10 \(u\) Executive office of commerce \(chapter 64.19 of this title\); and
11 \(v\) Executive office of health and human services \(chapter 7.2 of this title\).
12 \(w\) Department of housing \(chapter 64.34 of this title\).

13 42-6-2. ~~Heads of departments.~~ Heads of departments, executive offices, and 14 commissioners of education.

15 The governor, secretary of state, attorney general, and general treasurer, hereinafter called 16 general officers, shall each be in charge of a department. There shall also be a director of 17 administration, a director of revenue, a director of public safety, a director of human services, a 18 director of behavioral healthcare, developmental disabilities and hospitals, a director of 19 transportation, a director of business regulation, a director of labor and training, a director of
20 environmental management, a director for children, youth and families, ~~and~~ a director of
21 corrections, a secretary of the executive office of health and human services, a secretary of
22 commerce of the executive office of commerce, the commissioners of elementary and secondary
23 education and postsecondary education, and a secretary of housing. Each director, secretary, and
24 commissioner shall hold office at the pleasure of the governor and he or she shall serve until his or 25 her successor is duly appointed and qualified unless the director, secretary, or commissioner is 26 removed from office by special order of the governor.

27 42-6-3. ~~Appointment of directors.~~ Appointment of directors, secretaries of executive 28 offices, and commissioners of education.

29 (a) At the January session following his or her election to office, the governor shall appoint
30 a director of administration, a director of revenue, a director of public safety, a director of human 31 services, a director of behavioral healthcare, developmental disabilities and hospitals, a director of 32 transportation, a director of business regulation, a director of labor and training, a director of
33 environmental management, a director for children, youth and families, ~~and~~ a director of
34 corrections, a secretary of the executive office of health and human services, a secretary of

1 commerce, the commissioners of elementary and secondary education and postsecondary education
2 and a secretary of housing. The governor shall, in all cases of appointment of a director, secretary,
3 or commissioner, while the senate is in session, notify the senate of his or her appointment and the 4 senate shall, within sixty (60) legislative days after receipt of the notice, act upon the appointment.
5 If the senate shall, within sixty (60) legislative days, vote to disapprove the appointment, it shall so
6 notify the governor, who shall forthwith appoint and notify the senate of the appointment of a
7 different person as director, secretary, or commissioner, and so on in like manner until the senate
8 shall fail to so vote disapproval of the governor's appointment. If the senate shall fail, for sixty (60)
9 legislative days next after notice, to act upon any appointment of which it has been notified by the 10 governor, the person so appointed shall be the director, secretary, or commissioner. The governor
11 may withdraw any appointment of which he or she has given notice to the senate, at any time within 12 sixty (60) legislative days thereafter and before action has been taken thereon by the senate.

13 (b) Except as expressly provided in § 42-6-9, and except that the governor may enter into 14 a contract of employment for a director of the department of children, youth and families for a
15 period of time up to three (3) years, no director, secretary, or commissioner, of any department
16 shall be appointed or employed pursuant to any contract of employment for a period of time greater
17 than the remainder of the governor's current term of office. Any contract entered into in violation
18 of this section after July 1, 1994, is hereby declared null and void.

19 42-6-4. Filling of vacancies.

20 (a) In case of a vacancy in any of the offices listed in § 42-6-3 while the senate is in session,
21 the governor shall appoint a director, secretary, or commissioner, to hold the office until his or her
22 successor is appointed and qualified in the same manner as provided in § 42-6-3; provided,
23 however, that no person so appointed to hold the office until his or her successor is appointed and
24 qualified shall serve in such position for more than ten (10) days unless that person's name shall 25 have been submitted to the senate for its approval.

26 (b) In case of a vacancy while the senate is not in session, the governor shall appoint a
27 director, secretary, or commissioner to hold the office until the next session thereof; provided,
28 however, that no person should serve in such position for more than three (3) legislative days after 29 the senate convenes unless that person's name shall have been submitted to the senate for its 30 approval.

31 (c) In no case shall the governor appoint or designate any person to serve as "interim" or 32 "acting" director, secretary, or commissioner of any department or office in circumvention of this 33 section.

34 SECTION 2. Section 16-97-1.2 of the General Laws in Chapter 16-97 entitled "The Rhode

1 Island Board of Education Act" is hereby amended to read as follows:

2 16-97-1.2. Powers and duties of the board of education.

3 The board of education shall have the following powers and duties:

4 (a) To develop and adopt a strategic plan defining broad goals and objectives for education
5 in the state. These goals and objectives shall be expressed in terms of the future educational
6 attainment of the population, quality of life and economy of Rhode Island, including but not limited
7 to what children, men and women should know and be able to do as a result of their educational
8 experience and the contributions of education to meeting the workforce and economic development
9 needs of Rhode Island. The board shall approve the strategic plans for elementary and secondary 10 education and postsecondary education in terms of the alignment of these strategic plans with the 11 overall strategic plan of the board of education. The board shall continuously evaluate the efforts
12 of the council on elementary and secondary education and the council on postsecondary education
13 to implement the strategic plans and shall review the results of education in the light of these 14 objectives;

15 (b) To prepare and maintain a five (5) year strategic funding plan for all levels of education
16 in Rhode Island. The board shall determine priorities of expenditures for public education purposes
17 of state revenues and other public resources made available for the support of public education and 18 direct the council on elementary and secondary education and the council on postsecondary 19 education to implement those priorities when developing the annual budget for elementary and 20 secondary education and higher education. The councils shall present their annual budgets to the 21 board for its review and approval. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall authorize the board
22 to alter the allocation of grants or aid otherwise provided by law;

23 (c) To develop and submit to the general assembly for approval a performance funding
24 formula for public higher education that furthers the purposes of the board and ensures that all
25 students may achieve educational excellence;

26 (d) To develop policies that maximize the potential of collaboration from elementary and 27 secondary education through higher education systems and that improve efficiencies at all levels
28 of the education system through improved coordination of activities;

29 (e) To embrace the legislative findings regarding virtual education established by § 16-
30 22.1-2 and adopt goals and policies that address these findings and to encourage the council on 31 elementary and secondary education and the council for postsecondary education to develop and 32 or improve virtual learning experiences for Rhode Island students;

33 (f) ~~To approve the appointment of a commissioner of elementary and secondary education.~~

34 (g) ~~To approve the appointment of a commissioner of postsecondary education.~~

1 (h) To conduct a training course for newly appointed and qualified board members within
2 six (6) months of their qualification. The course shall be developed by the chairperson of the board,
3 approved by the board, and conducted by the chairperson of the board. The board may approve the 4 use of any board or staff members or other individuals to assist with training. The training course
5 shall include instruction in the following areas: the provisions of chapter 46 of title 42, chapter 14
6 of title 36, and chapter 2 of title 38; and the board's own rules.

7 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect on January 1, 2025.
