STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2024

SENATE RESOLUTION

CELEBRATING MAY OF 2024, AS "ASIAN AMERICAN, NATIVE HAWAIIAN, AND PACIFIC ISLANDER HERITAGE MONTH" IN THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

Introduced By: Senators Gu, Ujifusa, Raptakis, Felag, Cano, LaMountain, Rogers, F.
Lombardi, Euer, and DeLuca

Date Introduced: May 23, 2024

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1           WHEREAS, In 1978, a Joint Congressional Resolution established the first ten days of 2    May as Asian/Pacific American Heritage Week. These particular days were chosen because they 3    coincide with the arrival in the United States of the first Japanese immigrants in May of 1843, and 4    the contributions of Chinese workers to the building of the transcontinental railroad which was 5    completed in May of 1869; and

6           WHEREAS, In 1992, Congress expanded the observance to a month-long celebration
7    known as Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month, and in 2021, President Biden
8    issued a Proclamation declaring May as Asian American and Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander 9    Heritage Month; and

10          WHEREAS, The number of Asian-American residents in the United States was an 11    estimated 24 million according to the 2020 census, with more than 54 percent holding a 12    Bachelor's degree or higher level of education, and an estimated 581,200 Asian-owned employer
13    firms. In addition, Asian Americans encompass more than one million actively serving personnel 14    in the United States Military; and

15          WHEREAS, Asian Americans, Pacific Islanders, and Native Hawaiians have been 16    serving honorably in the United States Military since the War of 1812; and

17          WHEREAS, The Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander workforce can 18    be found in numerous fields including professional, scientific and technical services, as well as 19    teaching, financial management, engineering, nursing, health care, medicine, social assistance,

1 retail, construction, and repair and maintenance and have paid billions in federal income taxes in 2 addition to state and local taxes; and

3 WHEREAS, There have been connections between China and Rhode Island since the 4 18th Century, as highlighted in a recent exhibition entitled, "The Celestial City: Newport and 5 China," at Rosecliff Mansion from September 2023 to February 2024, which revealed that people
6 of Chinese heritage contributed to life in Newport, including immigrant entrepreneurs, suffragists, 7 merchants, sailmakers and sailors; and

8 WHEREAS, Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders have added to the 9 diversity, strength and vibrancy of our State through their culture, language, and religion and it is 10 fitting and vital to honor and acknowledge their invaluable contributions; now, therefore be it

11 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby proclaims May of 12 2024, as "Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander Heritage Month" and urges all 13 Rhode Islanders to learn more about the history of Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and 14 Pacific Islanders, and to observe this month with appropriate programs and activities; and be it 15 further

16 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 17 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the recipients of Senate Citations presented on 18 May 23, 2024, and to those who have helped promote Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and 19 Pacific Islander history and culture in Rhode Island.
