16 administrator's authority and witnesses subpoenaed by the tax administrator under this section shall 17 receive fees and compensation at the same rates as officers and witnesses in the district courts of 18 the state, to be paid from the proper appropriation for the administration of this chapter.

19 (d) A party aggrieved by an order of the court may appeal the order to the supreme court 20 in accordance with the procedures contained in the rules of appellate procedure of the supreme 21 court.

22 44-20.3-11. Hearings by tax administrator.

23 Any person aggrieved by any action under this chapter of the tax administrator or the tax 24 administrator's authorized agent for which a hearing is not elsewhere provided may apply to the 25 tax administrator, in writing, within thirty (30) days of the action for a hearing, stating the reasons
26 why the hearing should be granted and the manner of relief sought. The tax administrator shall 27 notify the applicant of the time and place fixed for the hearing. After the hearing, the tax 28 administrator may make the order in the premises as may appear to the tax administrator just and 29 lawful and shall furnish a copy of the order to the applicant. The tax administrator may, by notice 30 in writing, at any time, order a hearing on the tax administrator's own initiative and require the 31 taxpayer or any other individual whom the tax administrator believes to be in possession of 32 information concerning any manufacture, importation, or sale of kratom or kratom products to 33 appear before the tax administrator or the tax administrator's authorized agent with any specific 34 books of account, papers, or other documents, for examination relative to the hearing.

1 44-20.3-12. Appeal to district court.

2 Any person aggrieved by any decision of the tax administrator under the provisions of this 3 chapter may appeal the decision within thirty (30) days thereafter to the sixth division of the district
4 court. The appellant shall at the time of taking an appeal file with the court a bond of recognizance
5 to the state, with surety to prosecute the appeal to effect and to comply with the orders and decrees
6 of the court in the premises. These appeals are preferred cases, to be heard, unless cause appears to 7 the contrary, in priority to other cases. The court may grant relief as may be equitable. If the court
8 determines that the appeal was taken without probable cause, the court may tax double or triple
9 costs, as the case demands; and, upon all those appeals, which may be denied, costs may be taxed
10 against the appellant at the discretion of the court. In no case shall costs be taxed against the state,
11 its officers, or agents. A party aggrieved by a final order of the court may seek review of the order 12 in the supreme court by writ of certiorari in accordance with the procedures contained in § 42-35-13 16.

14 44-20.3-13. Claim for refund.

15 Whenever the tax administrator determines that any person is entitled to a refund of any 16 monies paid by a person under the provisions of this chapter, or whenever a court of competent 17 jurisdiction orders a refund of any monies paid, the general treasurer shall, upon certification by 18 the tax administrator and with the approval of the director of revenue, pay the refund from any 19 monies in the treasury not appropriated without any further act or resolution making appropriation
20 for the refund. No refund is allowed unless a claim is filed with the tax administrator within three 21 (3) years from the fifteenth day after the close of the month for which the overpayment was made.

22 44-20.3-14. Administration — Forms — Rules and regulations.

23 The tax administrator is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the 24 provisions, policies, and purposes of this chapter. The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally 25 construed to foster the enforcement of and compliance with all provisions herein related to taxation.
26 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the tax administrator may make available to an 27 authorized agent of the department of health and the attorney general any information that the 28 administrator may consider proper contained in tax reports or returns or any audit or the report of 29 any investigation made with respect to them, filed pursuant to the tax laws of this state, to whom 30 disclosure is necessary for the purpose of ensuring compliance with state law and regulations.

31 44-20.3-15. Severability.

32 The provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable; and in case any part, section,
33 or provision of this chapter is held void by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining parts,
34 sections, and provisions of the chapter are not impaired or affected.
