15 of the Rhode Island unified judicial system, as defined in § 8-15-1, and retired, recalled, or current 16 justices, judges and magistrates of the United States Supreme Court, United States Courts of 17 Appeal, United States District Courts and United States Bankruptcy Courts who reside in the State
18 of Rhode Island.

1       (b)(1) No state agency, county agency or municipal agency shall publicly post or display
2 the personal information of any protected individual without first obtaining the written permission
3 of that individual.

4       (2) Each protected individual may file a written notice of their status as a protected
5 individual, for themselves and immediate family with any state, county, or municipal agency
6 requesting each state, county, or municipal agency to mark as confidential the protected
7 individual's or immediate family member's personal information.

8       (3) Upon receipt of a written request in accordance with this section, the state, county, or 9 municipal agency shall remove the protected individual's or immediate family member's personal 10 information from publicly available content within seventy-two (72) hours; and further, shall not 11 publicly post or display the personal information of any protected individual or immediate family
12 member without first obtaining written permission from the protected individual.

13       (4) This subsection (b) shall not prohibit the list of delinquent taxpayers published pursuant 14 to § 44-1-34 from containing the name of any protected individual or immediate family member,
15 the type of tax levied, and the amount of the delinquency, including interest and penalty. Addresses,
16 including the city or town and zip code, of any protected individual or immediate family member 17 shall not be disclosed on such list once the division of taxation receives a written notice filed in 18 accordance with subsection (b)(2) of this section.

19       (c)(1) In accordance with this section, it shall be unlawful for a data aggregator to sell,
20 license, trade, purchase, or otherwise provide or make available for consideration a protected
21 individual's or immediate family member's personal information.

22       (2) Each protected individual may file a written notice of their status as a protected
23 individual, for themselves and immediate family, to any person, data aggregator, business, or 24 association, requesting the person, data aggregator, business, or association mark as confidential
25 the protected individual's or immediate family member's personal information.

26       (3) In accordance with this section, upon receipt of a written request submitted by the 27 protected individual, either directly or through an agent, to the person, data aggregator, business,
28 or association, the person, data aggregator, business, or association shall remove the protected
29 individual's or immediate family member's personal information from publicly available content 30 within seventy-two (72) hours; and further, shall not in the future publicly post or display the 31 personal information of any protected individual or immediate family member without first 32 obtaining written permission from the protected individual.

33       (4) After receiving a protected individual's written request, a person, data aggregator,
34 business, or association shall ensure that the protected individual's or the immediate family

1 member's personal information is not made available on any website or subsidiary website under 2 their control controlled by that data aggregator, person, business, or association.

3 (5) After receiving a protected individual's written request, no person, data aggregator,
4 business or association shall transfer the judge's or an immediate family member's personally 5 identifiable information to any other person, business, or association through any medium.

6 (6) A protected individual, or their immediate family member, whose personally 7 identifiable information is made public as a result of a violation of this section may bring an action
8 seeking injunctive or declaratory relief in any court of competent jurisdiction within the State of 9 Rhode Island. If the court grants injunctive or declaratory relief, the person, business, or association 10 responsible for the violation shall be required to pay the individual's costs and reasonable attorneys' 11 fees.

12 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
