27 provision of this section is held invalid, the remainder of this section and the application of its 28 provisions shall not be affected by that invalidity.

29 44-3-12. Visually impaired persons — Exemption.

30 (a) The property of each person who is legally blind according to federal standards as 31 certified by a licensed physician or as certified by the Rhode Island services for the blind and

33 except for the towns of:

34 Tiverton. Which exemption shall be provided by town ordinance as a tax credit of three

1 hundred dollars ($300) or greater; and

2 Warren. Which exemption shall be up to forty thousand eight hundred ninety-five dollars 3 ($40,895); and

4 Barrington. Which exemption shall be sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000) for real property.
5 The exemption shall apply to the property in the municipality where the person resides, and if there
6 is not sufficient property to exhaust the exemption, the person may proclaim the balance in any city
7 or town where he or she may own property; except for the town of Cumberland, which exemption 8 shall be up to forty-seven thousand five hundred forty-four dollars ($47,544); and

9 Westerly. Which may provide, by ordinance, an exemption on the total value of real and 10 personal property not to exceed twenty-nine thousand dollars ($29,000). The city or town council 11 of any city or town may, by ordinance, increase the exemption within the city or town to an amount 12 not to exceed twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500). The exemption shall not be 13 allowed in favor of any person who is not a legal resident of the state, or unless the person entitled 14 to the exemption shall have presented to the assessors, on or before the last day on which sworn 15 statements may be filed with the assessors for the year for which exemption is claimed, due 16 evidence that he or she is so entitled, which evidence shall stand so long as his or her legal residence
17 remains unchanged. The exemption provided for in this section, to the extent that it shall apply to 18 any city or town, shall be applied in full to the total value of the person's real and tangible personal 19 property located in the city or town and shall be applied to intangible personal property only to the 20 extent that there is not sufficient real property or tangible personal property to exhaust the 26 above the minimum of six thousand dollars ($6,000), except for the town of:

27 Barrington. Which exemption shall be sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000) for real property.
28 The exemption shall increase automatically each year by the same percentage as the percentage
29 increase in the total amount of taxes levied by the city or town. The automatic increase shall not

31 minimum of six thousand dollars ($6,000), except for the town of:

32 Barrington. Which exemption shall be sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000) for real property.
33 If the application of the automatic increase to an exemption of six thousand dollars ($6,000) on a
34 continuous basis from December 31, 1987, to any subsequent assessment date would result in a

1 higher exemption than the exemption enacted by the city or town council, then the amount provided 2 by the automatic increase applies.
