

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2025

A N A C T

RELATING TO STATE AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT -- THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1990

Introduced By: Senator E Morgan

Date Introduced: February 13, 2025

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Legislative findings.

2 (1) Anti-Semitism and harassment on the basis of actual or perceived national origin,
3 shared ancestry, or ethnic characteristics with a religious group remains a persistent, pervasive, and
4 disturbing problem in contemporary American society.

5 (2) The Jewish people continue to be a targeted minority in the United States. Data shows
6 that Jews are among the most likely of all religious groups to be victimized by incidents of hate,
7 and such incidents are increasing at an alarming rate.

8 (3) State officials and institutions, including educational institutions, have a responsibility
9 to protect citizens from acts of hate and bigotry motivated by a discriminatory animus, including
10 anti-Semitism, and must be given the tools to do so.

11 (4) Valid monitoring, informed analysis and investigation, and effective policy making all 12 require uniform definitions.

13 (5) While there is no exhaustive definition of anti-Semitism, as it can take many forms, the 14 International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance's (IHRA) working definition has been an essential
15 tool used to determine contemporary manifestations of anti-Semitism and includes useful examples
16 of discriminatory anti-Israel acts that cross the line into anti-Semitism.

17 (6) On May 26, 2016, the member states of the IHRA, including the United States, adopted
18 the non-legally binding working definition of anti-Semitism at its plenary session in Bucharest.

1 This definition is used by various agencies of the federal government and the other thirty-three (33)
2 governments that are members of the IHRA. The definition has been recommended for use by the 3 European Council and the Secretary General of the Organization of American States, included in 4 policy guides prepared by the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, and formally
5 adopted by a growing number of European nations.

6 (7) Awareness of this conduct-based definition of anti-Semitism, although it is not to be 7 taken as an exclusive definition, will increase understanding of the parameters of contemporary
8 anti-Jewish crime and discrimination in certain circumscribed areas.

9 SECTION 2. Section 42-112-1 of the General Laws in Chapter 42-112 entitled "The Civil 10 Rights Act of 1990" is hereby amended to read as follows:

11 42-112-1. Discrimination prohibited.

12 (a) All persons within the state, regardless of race, color, religion, sex, disability, age, or 13 country of ancestral origin, have, except as is otherwise provided or permitted by law, the same
14 rights to make and enforce contracts, to inherit, purchase, to lease, sell, hold, and convey real and 15 personal property, to sue, be parties, give evidence, and to the full and equal benefit of all laws and 16 proceedings for the security of persons and property, and are subject to like punishment, pains,
17 penalties, taxes, licenses, and exactions of every kind, and to no other.

18 (b) For the purposes of this section, the right to "make and enforce contracts, to inherit,
19 purchase, to lease, sell, hold, and convey real and personal property" includes the making,
20 performance, modification and termination of contracts and rights concerning real or personal 21 property, and the enjoyment of all benefits, terms, and conditions of the contractual and other
22 relationships.

23 (c) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to affect chapter 14.1 of title 37,
24 chapter 5.1 of title 28, or any other remedial programs designed to address past societal
25 discrimination.

26 (d) For the purposes of this section, the terms "sex" and "age" have the same meaning as 27 those terms are defined in § 28-5-6, the state fair employment practices act. The term "disability"
28 has the same meaning as that term is defined in § 42-87-1, and the terms, as used regarding persons
29 with disabilities, "auxiliary aids and services," "readily achievable," "reasonable accommodation," 30 "reasonable modification," and "undue hardship" shall have the same meaning as those terms are 31 defined in § 42-87-1.1.

32 (e) For purposes of this section, the term "anti-Semitism" means:

33 (1) The definition of anti-Semitism adopted on May 26, 2016, by the International 34 Holocaust Remembrance Alliance, which has been adopted by the United States Department of

1 State:

2 (2) Contemporary examples of anti-Semitism identified by the International Holocaust

3 Remembrance Alliance; and

4 (3) Does not include criticism of Israel similar to that leveled against any other country.

5 (f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

6 (1) Diminish or infringe upon any rights protected under the First Amendment to the United
7 States Constitution or Article I of the Rhode Island State Constitution; or

8 (2) Conflict with federal or state discrimination laws.

9 (g) In reviewing, investigating, or deciding whether there has been a specific instance of 10 discrimination that violates a state law prohibiting discrimination or is otherwise subject to the 11 authority of the commission, the state, any of its agencies, or local subdivisions of state agencies,
12 shall take into consideration the definition of anti-Semitism for purposes of determining whether 13 the instance of discrimination was motivated by anti-Semitic intent.

14 (h) A discriminatory act includes any harassing conduct that is so severe, pervasive, or 15 persistent as to interfere with or limit the ability of the victim to participate in or benefit from any 16 service, activity, opportunity, or privilege.

17 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage.
