13 the winning bidder of a contract proposed, offered, or otherwise submitted for competitive bidding
14 by a government entity including, but not limited to, a contract proposed, offered, or otherwise

2 (C) Rotating bids;

3 (D) Sharing profits with a contractor who does not submit the low bid;

4 (E) Submitting prearranged bids, agreed-upon higher or lower bids or other complementary 5 bids;

6 (F) Dividing up territories to restrict competition; and/or

7 (G) Not submitting a bid;

9 to simultaneously submit bids for the same work, or a portion thereof, as a proposed prime 10 contractor and subcontractor.

34 including, but not limited, to procurement processes established pursuant to chapter 2 of title 37 or

1 chapter 55 of title 45, or regulations promulgated thereto, to any person any information concerning 2 the specifications for such contract or the identity of any particular potential subcontractors, when 3 inclusion of such information concerning the specifications or contractors in the bid or offer would 4 influence the likelihood of acceptance of such bid or offer. It shall not constitute a violation of this 5 subsection to convey information intended to clarify plans or specifications regarding a public 6 contract where such disclosure of information is also made generally available to the public.

7 (b) It is unlawful for any person who is an official of or employed by any unit of state or

12 processes established pursuant to chapter 2 of title 37 or chapter 55 of title 45, or regulations

18 whichever is greater. Any criminal proceeding brought pursuant to this chapter must be commenced 19 within six (6) years after the alleged criminal act occurred.

20 (b) The attorney general may also institute in the name of the state actions or proceedings
21 to prevent or restrain civil violations of this chapter. The attorney general may apply for an order 22 enjoining the continuance of any violation of this chapter, and directing restitution, damages, 23 penalties of up to one million dollars ($1,000,000) and, in an appropriate case, cancelling any 24 certificate filed with the secretary of state and debarment from state contracting for a period of up 25 to five (5) years, and the court may award the relief applied for or so much thereof as it may deem 26 proper.

27 (b) It shall not constitute a violation of this chapter where any person who is an official of 28 or employed by any unit of state or local government follows procedures established by federal, 29 state or local laws or regulations including, but not limited, to processes established pursuant to 30 chapter 2 of title 37 or chapter 55 of title 45, or regulations promulgated thereto.

31 (c) It shall not constitute a violation of this chapter for any person who is an official of or

33 or other summary of any pre-bid conference where such transcript or summary is also made 34 generally available to the public.

1           37-27-6. Civil investigative demands.

2           When the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe that any person has engaged in,
3 is engaging in, or may have information related to a civil violation of § 37-27-3, the attorney general 4 is authorized to take proof and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue civil 5 investigative demands to any person, in accordance with and subject to the limitations of the rules
6 set forth in § 6-13.1-7. Such authorization may precede any application, action or proceeding
7 instituted pursuant to § 37-27-5 and shall not abate or terminate by reason of any application, action, 8 or proceeding brought by the attorney general under this chapter.

9           37-27-7. Debarment.

10          (a) Any vendor debarred pursuant to this chapter shall not perform work as a prime 11 contractor, consultant, subcontractor or subconsultant for the state and shall be excluded from all 12 state procurements and any contract between the state and the vendor shall be terminated.

13          (b) Any person who is found to be in violation of any provision of this chapter shall be 14 subject to debarment, pursuant to chapter 2 of title 37 or any regulations promulgated thereto, from 15 state contracting for a period of up to five (5) years.

16          (c) A government entity that proposes, offers, or otherwise submits a contract for 17 competitive bidding shall maintain a current list of persons excluded or ineligible, by reason of 18 debarment, for participation in contracts or subcontracts with that government entity.

19          37-27-8. Severability.

20          Should any part of this chapter be declared invalid or unenforceable, or the enforcement or 21 compliance with it is suspended, restrained, or barred, either by the state or by the final judgment 22 of a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this chapter shall remain in full force and 23 effect.
