STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2026

A N A C T

RELATING TO ELECTIONS -- NOMINATION OF PARTY AND INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES

Introduced By: Representatives Speakman, Donovan, Spears, Boylan, and Carson

Date Introduced: January 14, 2026

Referred To: House State Government & Elections

(Secretary of State)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Sections 17-14-1, 17-14-4, 17-14-11, 17-14-12, 17-14-13 and 17-14-14 of 2   the General Laws in Chapter 17-14 entitled "Nomination of Party and Independent Candidates" are 3   hereby amended to read as follows:
4           17-14-1. Declarations of candidacy.
5           ~~During the last consecutive Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in June in~~ In the even years 6   on the seventy-seventh (77th) and seventy-eighth (78th) day before the primary election held on 7   the ninth (9th) Tuesday preceding biennial general statewide elections, or on the seventy-eighth 8   (78th) and seventy-ninth (79th) day before a biennial statewide primary election held on the 9   Wednesday after Labor Day pursuant to § 17-15-1, and during the thirty-ninth (39th) and fortieth 10   (40th) days preceding a primary election for a special election for state or local office, or for an 11   election for state or local office regularly scheduled for a time other than the biennial general 12   statewide election, or during the sixty-seventh (67th) and sixty-eighth (68th) days preceding a 13   primary election for a special election for federal office, or for an election for federal office 14   regularly scheduled for a time other than the biennial general statewide election, each voter desiring 15   to be a candidate at the upcoming primary or an independent candidate on final nomination papers 16   shall, on a form that shall be provided by the secretary of state, file a declaration of their candidacy 17   not later than four o'clock (4:00) p.m. of the last day for the filing with the secretary of state for 18   congressional and statewide general offices, or with the local board of the place of the candidate's

1 voting residence for general assembly, or state committee or senatorial and representative district 2 committee, or with the appropriate local board for local officers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if 3 the first day declarations are due is a holiday, the declarations shall be filed on the next two (2) 4 subsequent business days. The declaration shall be signed by the candidate as the candidate's name
5 appears on the voting list. The signature shall be accepted as valid if it can be reasonably identified 6 to be the name and signature of the voter it purports to be. A variation of the voter's signature by 7 the insertion or omission of identifying titles or by the substitution of initials for the first or middle 8 names or both shall not in itself be grounds for invalidation of the signature. The declaration shall 9 also include the following information:

10 (1) The candidate's name as it appears on the voting list, subject to the same provisions as 11 relate to the voter's signature on the declaration;

12 (2) The address as it appears on the voting list, provided that an address that is substantially 13 the same as the address on the voting list shall be valid;

14 (3) The party declaration if seeking to run in a party primary;

15 (4) The office sought;

16 (5) The place and date of birth;

17 (6) The length of residence in the state and in the town or city where the candidate resides;

18 (7) A certification that the candidate is neither serving a sentence, including probation or 19 parole, for which the candidate was imprisoned upon final conviction of a felony imposed on any 20 date nor serving any sentence, whether incarcerated or suspended, on probation or parole, upon 21 final conviction of a felony committed after November 5, 1986;

22 (8) A certification that the candidate has not been lawfully adjudicated to be non compos 23 mentis, of unsound mind;

24 (9) In the case of candidates for party nomination, a certification that the candidate has not 25 been a member of a political party other than the declared party within ninety (90) days of the filing 26 date, except in the case of candidates for party nomination for a special election for federal office, 27 or for an election for federal office regularly scheduled for a time other than the biennial general 28 statewide election, that person shall not have been a member of a political party other than the 29 declared political party within thirty (30) days of the filing of their declaration of candidacy; and

30 (10) If a person is a candidate for a state or local office, a certification that the person has 31 not within the preceding three (3) years served any sentence, incarcerated or suspended, on 32 probation or parole, for a crime committed after November 5, 1986, upon a plea of nolo contendere 33 or guilty or upon a conviction of a felony or for a misdemeanor for which a sentence of 34 imprisonment for six (6) months or more, whether suspended or to be served was imposed.

1           17-14-4. Preparation of nomination papers for candidates — Combination of 2 endorsed candidates — Furnishing of nomination papers to candidates.

3           (a) Upon receipt of the declarations referred to in § 17-14-1, within two (2) business days 4 of the final date for filing endorsements, the secretary of state for statewide candidates and the local 5 board for general assembly and local candidates shall prepare nomination papers for each person 6 who has filed a declaration of candidacy as provided in § 17-14-1; provided that, in years when 7 there is a holiday during the declaration of a candidacy, endorsement, or nomination paper 8 preparation period, the nomination papers shall be furnished to candidates within one business day.

9 A minimum of three (3) sets of nomination papers shall be prepared for each candidate whose name 10 appears on nomination papers containing the name of a candidate for general assembly and for 11 local office. Nomination papers for voters from the city of Providence for the offices enumerated 12 in § 17-14-1 shall be furnished by the secretary of state. Nomination papers shall be prepared with 13 the name of the candidate as it appears on the voting list, notwithstanding that the candidate may 14 have signed their declaration of candidacy other than as the candidate's name appears on the voting 15 list. Candidates for nomination for different offices endorsed by the appropriate committee of any 16 party shall be combined on the same nomination papers. The names of candidates for different 17 offices not endorsed by the appropriate committee of any party shall not be combined on the same 18 nomination papers. Nomination papers for candidates for general assembly shall be furnished by 19 the local board of the general assembly candidate. Nomination papers shall be furnished to the local 20 boards by the secretary of state and each shall bear the imprint of the state coat of arms and any 21 additional language required by law. Nomination papers shall be appropriately marked or color 22 coded to indicate the different political parties, the endorsed and unendorsed candidates of those 23 parties, and independent candidates.

24           (b) Candidates for nomination may, at their own expense, have nomination papers 25 duplicated in exact appearance and as prescribed in subsection (a) of this section.

26           (c) Nomination papers furnished by the secretary of state shall be personally issued to the 27 candidate, or in the case of combined nomination papers to one of the candidates, for whom they 28 were prepared, or to an individual presenting written authorization from the candidate, or one of 29 the candidates appearing on them, to receive the nomination papers.

30           17-14-11. Checking and certification of nomination papers — Challenge.

31           (a) Each nomination paper for party and independent candidates shall be submitted before 32 four o'clock (4:00) p.m. on the ~~sixtieth (60th)~~ sixty-first (61st) day before the primary to the local 33 board of the city or town where the signers appear to be voters or, in the case of special elections 34 for state and local office, on the twenty-eighth (28th) day before the primary, or in the case of

1 special elections for federal office, on the fifty-third (53rd) day before the primary. Nomination 2 papers for independent presidential candidates and presidential candidates of political parties, other 3 than those defined in § 17-1-2(9), shall be filed not later than ~~sixty (60)~~ sixty -seven (67) days prior 4 to the general election. Each local board shall immediately proceed to check signatures on each 5 nomination paper filed with it against the voting list as last canvassed or published according to 6 law.

7 (b) The local boards shall certify a sufficient number of names appearing on the nomination 8 papers that are in conformity with the requirements of § 17-14-8 to qualify the candidate for a 9 position on the ballot, and after considering any challenge under this section and, if necessary, 10 certifying any additional valid names, shall immediately file nomination papers for statewide 11 office, general assembly, and state and district committee candidates with the secretary of state; 12 provided, that nomination papers for local candidates shall be retained by the local board.

13 (c) If any candidate or an individual presenting written authorization from the candidate, 14 or the chairperson of any party committee questions the validity or authenticity of any signature on 15 the nomination paper, the local board shall immediately and summarily decide the question, and 16 for this purpose, shall have the same powers as are conferred upon the board by the provisions of 17 § 17-14-14.

18 (d) If any challenged signature is found to be invalid, for any reason in law, or forged, then 19 the signature shall not be counted.

20 (e) The local canvassing clerk shall immediately notify the state board in writing and via 21 electronic mail if the local canvassing clerk suspects a consistent pattern of forgery as prescribed 22 by § 17-23-17 on the nomination papers of a local, state, or federal candidate.

23 (1) The state board, upon notification of allegations of any consistent pattern of suspected 24 forged signatures on nomination papers of a local, state, or federal candidate, shall review the 25 allegations and, if determined to be with reasonable cause, shall, as soon as feasible notify all 26 corresponding local canvassing clerks of the allegations of suspected forgery.

27 (2) The state board, if it deems necessary, shall order a review of all nomination papers of 28 a local, state, or federal candidate whose nomination papers include a consistent pattern of 29 suspected forged signatures as prescribed in this subsection. The state board, in consultation with 30 the Elections Committee of the Rhode Island Town and City Clerks' Association, shall promulgate 31 rules and regulations on the process to review nomination papers of a local, state, or federal 32 candidate whose nomination papers include a consistent pattern of suspected forged signatures as 33 prescribed in this subsection.

34 (3) The state board shall explicitly determine and deliver, in writing and via electronic mail

1 to the secretary of state, the findings of the review of the local, state, or federal candidate whose 2 nomination papers include suspected forged signatures as prescribed in this subsection, and whether 3 the determination affects a candidate's qualification for a position on the ballot.

4 17-14-12. Filing of nomination papers.

5 All nomination papers for state offices or officers and all certified lists of candidates for 6 local offices or officers shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state (the certified lists by the 7 respective local boards), not later than ~~fifty-four (54)~~ fifty-five (55) days before the date of the 8 primary held to nominate candidates for general election; but when there is a primary to nominate 9 candidates for any office mentioned in § 17-15-7 to be voted upon at a special election for state and 10 local office, all nomination papers and lists of local candidates shall be filed in the office on or 11 before the twenty-sixth (26th) day preceding the day of the special primary election, or when there 12 is a primary to nominate candidates for any office listed in § 17-15-7 to be voted upon at a special 13 election for federal office, all nomination papers and lists of local candidates shall be filed in the 14 office on or before the forty-ninth (49th) day preceding the day of the special primary election.
15 Nomination papers for independent presidential candidates and presidential candidates of political 16 parties other than those defined in § 17-1-2(9) shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state 17 by the local boards of canvassers not later than ~~fifty-four (54)~~ sixty-one (61) days before the date 18 of the election.

19 17-14-13. Objections to eligibility of candidate or sufficiency of papers.

20 When nomination papers have been duly filed and are in apparent conformity with § 17-21 14-11, they shall be conclusively presumed to be valid, unless written objections to them are made 22 as to the eligibility of the candidate or the sufficiency of the nomination papers or the signatures on 23 them. All objections for local candidates shall be filed at the local board by four o'clock (4:00) p.m.
24 on the fifty-sixth (56th) day before the primary. All objections for federal and state candidates shall 25 be filed in the office of the secretary of state ~~or of the local board, as the case may be,~~ by four 26 o'clock (4:00) p.m. on the ~~next business day after the last day fixed for filing nomination papers in~~ 27 ~~the appropriate office as provided in this chapter~~ fifty-fourth (54th) day before the primary. Nothing 28 in this section shall be construed to prevent the secretary of state or the local board, as the case may 29 be, from disqualifying a candidate based on the determination of the secretary of state or the local 30 board, acting on its own motion, that the candidate is ineligible or the nomination papers or the 31 signatures on them are invalid or insufficient.

32 17-14-14. Hearings on objections — Witnesses — Notice.

33 (a) All objections to nomination papers which are required to be filed with the secretary of 34 state shall be considered by the state board. The secretary of state shall, when requested by the state

1 board, immediately deliver to the board the nomination papers to which objection has been filed.
2 The state board may, at the hearing on the objections, summon witnesses, administer oaths, and 3 require the production of books, papers, and documents. The witnesses shall be summoned in the 4 same manner, be paid the same fees, and be subject to the same penalties for default as witnesses 5 before the superior court. A summons may be sworn to and an oath may be administered by the 6 board. When an objection has been filed, notice of the objection shall be immediately given by 7 registered or certified mail or by personal service by the state board to the candidates, addressed to 8 the residence of the candidate as given in the nomination papers, and to any party committee 9 interested in the nomination to which objection is made. The state board shall promulgate rules and 10 regulations on challenges to nomination papers filed by any candidate, an individual presenting 11 written authorization from the candidate, or the chairperson of any party committee that questions 12 the validity or authenticity of any signature on the nomination paper of a candidate.

13 (b) Additional notice may also be given by the state board if it sees fit to do so. The decision 14 of the board shall be rendered within two (2) days for nomination papers for candidates 15 participating in a primary election and thirty-five \(35\) days for nomination papers for candidates
16 not participating in a primary election, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, after filing of objections 17 and shall immediately be certified by the state board to the secretary of state.

18 (c) All objections to nomination papers other than state and federal candidates shall be 19 considered by the local board in the same manner and with the same effect as provided in subsection 20 (a) of this section for hearing of objections to nomination papers for state and federal candidates 21 by the state board.

22 SECTION 2. Section 17-15-1 of the General Laws in Chapter 17-15 entitled "Primary 23 Elections" is hereby amended to read as follows:

24 17-15-1. Date of primaries.

25 A primary election for the nomination of candidates for each political party shall be held 26 in each voting district in the manner provided in this chapter on the ~~eighth~~ ninth \(9th\) Tuesday 27 preceding biennial state elections. Provided, however, that if the ninth \(9th\) Tuesday is the day after 28 Labor Day, then the primary election shall be held on the next day, the Wednesday.

29 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect on January 1, 2028.
