It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 28-22 of the General Laws entitled "Division of Professional

3 28-22-4. Retirement status license.

4 (a) Any person currently holding a license issued or overseen by the division of 5 professional regulation who has attained the age of sixty-five (65) may renew their license as a
6 retirement status license subject and pursuant to subsections (b) through (d) of this section.

7 (b) An applicant for a retirement status license shall submit their original license to the 8 division of professional regulation, along with a form, to be provided by the division of professional
9 regulation, for such classification, which shall contain a statement expressing the licensee's status

13 (c) A licensee issued a retirement status license shall not practice or offer to practice the 14 occupation or trade for which a license was originally issued. The division of professional

9 the year immediately preceding reinstatement.

10 (g) The division of professional regulation may, for good cause shown, grant a retirement
11 status license to a person who does not meet the requirements of subsection (a) of this section.
