Felix, Alzate, Morales, Hull, and Diaz

Date Introduced: February 10, 2026

Referred To: House read and passed

1 WHEREAS, It is important to recognize the role of Black people in every aspect of 2 American history since the colonial days; and

3 WHEREAS, There is little public awareness of the contributions of Black people during 4 the American Revolutionary War; and

5 WHEREAS, Despite the horrors of enslavement suffered by Black people in America, 6 some fought to gain their freedom, as well as American Independence, by becoming members of 7 the 1st Rhode Island Regiment during the American Revolutionary War; and

8 WHEREAS, The 1st Rhode Island Regiment was an integrated unit composed of Black, 9 White and Indigenous soldiers, who served together from 1778 through the end of the war in 10 1783; and

11 WHEREAS, In August of 1778, the 1st Rhode Island Regiment stood bravely on the right
12 flank of the Continental Army at Portsmouth, Rhode Island, and drove back three Hessian 13 charges and held the line against the British forces to “distinguish itself with deeds of great 14 valor”; and

15 WHEREAS, The Newport County NAACP, the Newport Middle Passage Port Marker
16 Project, the Bristol Middle Passage Port Marker Project, the Rhode Island Slave History 17 Medallions Project, the Battle of Rhode Island Association, the Portsmouth Historical Society and 18 other historical organizations have been working to educate the public about enslaved people in

1 Rhode Island and their contribution to the establishment of America during the colonial period;
2 and

3 WHEREAS, This year marks the 250th Anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of 4 Independence in 1776, it is important to ensure that the history and contributions of Black people
5 during the American Revolutionary War not be forgotten; now, therefore be it

6 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island hereby 7 recognizes February 10, 2026, as "The 3rd Rhode Island Regiment/Black Regiment Day" to 8 commemorate the contributions of Black soldiers during the American Revolutionary War; and 9 be it further

10 RESOLVED, That this House hereby expresses its deep gratitude to the Black soldiers 11 who served in the 1st Rhode Island Regiment and recognizes that this history must be made more 12 known and never be forgotten; and be it further

13 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 14 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the Honorable Donald Trump, President of the 15 United States, the Rhode Island Congressional Delegation, the Honorable Daniel McKee, 16 Governor of the State of Rhode Island, the Newport County NAACP, the Newport Middle 17 Passage Port Marker Project, the Bristol Middle Passage Port Marker Project, the Rhode Island
