1 SECTION 1. Section 12-19-14 of the General Laws in Chapter 12-19 entitled "Sentence
2 and Execution" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 12-19-14. Violation of terms of probation — Notice to court — Revocation or 4 continuation of suspension.

6 execution of his or her sentence pursuant to § 12-19-13 ~~violates~~ is believed to have violated the 7 terms and conditions of his or her probation as fixed by the court by being formally charged with 8 committing a new criminal offense, the police or department of corrections division of 9 rehabilitative services shall cause the defendant to appear before the court. The department of 10 corrections division of rehabilitative services shall determine when a technical violation of the 11 terms and conditions of probation as fixed by the court ~~that does not constitute a new criminal~~ 12 ~~offense~~ has occurred and shall cause the defendant to appear before the court. For technical 13 violations, the division of rehabilitative services shall promptly render a written report relative to 14 the conduct of the defendant, ~~including, as applicable, a description of the clear and articulable~~ 15 ~~public safety risk posed by a defendant accused of a technical violation,~~ and, as available, the 16 information contained in any report under § 12-13-24.1. ~~The division of rehabilitative services may~~ 17 ~~recommend that the time served up to that point is a sufficient response to a violation that is not a~~
18 ~~new, alleged crime. The court may order the defendant held without bail for a period not exceeding~~ 19 ~~ten (10) days excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays if the new criminal charge(s) constitutes~~

5 (b) Whenever any person accused of violating the terms and conditions of his or her 6 probation is caused to appear before the court, the court shall set reasonable bail and may set other 7 reasonable conditions of release. In all cases involving a violation that does not constitute a new 8 criminal offense or an alleged violation involving low level substance use, there shall be a 9 presumption of release pending a defendant's probation violation hearing. If the court believes that 10 the defendant presents a substantial risk of failing to appear at the probation violation hearing, then 11 the court shall place forward any non-monetary conditions deemed necessary for reasonable surety.

12 (c) The court shall only detain the defendant if the court believes, based on the totality of 13 the circumstances, that the defendant presents a threat to the community or themselves or if no non-14 monetary conditions or combination of conditions in the community will reasonably assure the 15 defendant's appearance at the probation violation hearing. The court may consider factors 16 including, but not limited to, the alleged probation violator's age, condition of health, criminal 17 record, the alleged facts of the new offense, and the bail set for the new offense. The court shall 18 explain its reasoning for denying release in writing or on the record.

19 ~~(b)~~(d) The court shall conduct a hearing within thirty (30) days of arrest; provided that, in 20 the event that the alleged probation violator was held without bail pursuant to this section, the 21 hearing shall take place within ten (10) days not including holidays, Saturdays, or Sundays, unless 22 waived by the defendant alleged probation violator, to determine whether the defendant violator
23 has violated the terms and conditions of his or her probation, at which hearing the defendant violator
24 shall have the opportunity to be present and to respond. Upon a determination by a fair 25 preponderance of the evidence that the defendant violator has violated the terms and conditions of 26 his or her probation, the court, in open court and in the presence of the defendant violator, may as
