11 Such a recall may be instituted by filing with the state board of elections an application
12 for issuance of a recall petition against said general officer which is signed by duly qualified 13 electors equal to three percent (3%) of the total number of votes cast at the last preceding general 14 election for that office. If, upon verification, the application is determined to contain signatures of 25 and his or her place of residence. The person witnessing the signatures of each elector on said 26 petition must sign a statement under oath on said sheet attesting that the signatures thereon are 27 genuine and were signed in his or her presence.

28 If the requisite number of signatures are not obtained within said ninety (90) days period,
29 the recall effort shall terminate. Upon verification of the requisite number of signatures, a special 30 election shall be scheduled at which the issue of removing said office holder and the grounds
31 therefor shall be placed before the electors of the state. If a majority of those voting support 32 removal of said office holder, the office shall be immediately declared vacant and shall be filled 33 in accordance with the constitution and laws of the state. The person so removed shall not be 34 eligible to fill the unexpired portion of the term of office. The general assembly shall provide by
