IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2026

H O U S E R E S O L U T I O N

EXPRESSING DEEPEST CONDOLENCES ON THE PASSING OF THE HONORABLE JOSEPH A. ABBATE

Introduced By: Representatives Shekarchi, J. Lombardi, Chippendale, Hull, Newberry, Dawson, Shanley, Solomon, Kazarian, and J. Brien

Date Introduced: April 09, 2026

Referred To: House read and passed

1 WHEREAS, It is with deep sadness that this House has learned of the passing of the 2 Honorable Joseph A. Abbate, of Lincoln. He was the beloved husband of Kathy A. Abbate, with 3 whom he shared a caring and devoted marriage, and the cherished father of Leah M. Abbate. His 4 love, guidance, and unwavering commitment to his family were the guiding forces of his life; and

5 WHEREAS, Born in the City of Providence, Joseph A. Abbate was the second son of 6 four boys born to the late Antonio and Concetta Abbate. He remained deeply connected to his 7 roots and community throughout his life; and

8 WHEREAS, From humble beginnings, Joseph forged a remarkable path through 9 determination and resilience, joining the United States Army Reserves at the age of 16 as one of 10 its youngest enlistees, and beginning a lifelong journey defined by discipline, perseverance, and 11 service to others; and

12 WHEREAS, Joseph's distinguished career in public service included 27 years with the 13 City of Providence, where he rose from an entry-level position to serve as Deputy Director and 14 Acting Director of the Mayor's Office of Community Development (now known as the 15 Department of Planning and Development), and further served as Executive Director of the 16 Providence Economic Development Corporation and Legal Counsel for the Providence Plan 17 Housing Corporation; and

18 WHEREAS, A committed and accomplished scholar, he graduated summa cum laude
19 from Providence College with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1986, attended the college's MBA

1 Program, and earned his Juris Doctor from Suffolk University Law School in 1991 while working 2 full-time, illustrating extraordinary dedication by attending evening classes and completing his 3 degree ahead of schedule; and

4 WHEREAS, In 2002, he was appointed as an Associate Judge of the Providence Housing
5 Court and later served for nine years as an Associate Judge of the Providence Municipal Court, 6 where he earned a reputation as a fair, thoughtful, and compassionate jurist who treated all who 7 appeared before him with dignity and respect; and

8 WHEREAS, Joseph served the State of Rhode Island as Director of the Law Revision
9 Office for the General Assembly. He was deeply valued by his former colleagues and was widely 10 respected for his legal acumen, intellect, and commitment to the integrity of the law; and

11 WHEREAS, In addition to his public roles, he maintained a private law practice 12 concentrating in domestic and juvenile law, commercial lending, personal injury, real estate, and 13 zoning law, and also served as Assistant Town Solicitor for the Town of Smithfield from 2006-14 2009; and

15 WHEREAS, He was appointed as a Magistrate of the Rhode Island Traffic Tribunal in 16 2013 and elevated to Administrative Magistrate in 2018, fulfilling a lifelong dream and 17 conducting himself on the bench with integrity, impartiality, and an unwavering commitment to 18 justice; and

19 WHEREAS, Judge Abbate further contributed to the legal and civic community through 20 his service on the Rhode Island Commission on Judicial Tenure and Discipline, the Board of 21 Governors of the Rhode Island Trial Judges Association, and numerous civic and cultural 22 organizations, including the Trinity Repertory Company and St. Augustine Church; and 23 WHEREAS, A man of deep faith, he was a lifelong communicant and parishioner of St.

24 Augustine Church and the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul, and his life reflected the values of 25 compassion, humility, and service that he held dear; and

26 WHEREAS, Beyond his professional accomplishments, Joseph Abbate was the 27 cornerstone of his family, finding his greatest joy in time spent with loved ones, whether at his 28 family beach house in Narragansett, around the table sharing pizzas he prepared, or celebrating 29 cherished traditions rooted in his Italian heritage, including cooking elaborate holiday meals, 30 baking traditional pastries, and sharing his homemade limoncello. He treasured the many years
31 spent at The Old Canteen in Providence, where he could often be found among friends, enjoying 32 good food, fellowship, and the camaraderie of a place that held special meaning in his life; and

33 WHEREAS, Joseph was also passionate about gardening, running, and reading, and was 34 known for his generosity in sharing his talents and treasured customs with family and friends,

1 leaving behind lasting memories imbued with warmth, laughter, and love; and

2 WHEREAS, Throughout a courageous nine-year battle with prostate cancer, Judge
3 Abbate demonstrated extraordinary strength, quiet resolve, and unwavering perseverance, 4 continuing to faithfully carry out his judicial responsibilities while undergoing treatment and 5 never seeking sympathy, exemplifying the very highest standards of dedication and dignity in 6 public service; and

7 WHEREAS, Besides his wife and daughter, Joseph is survived by his brothers, Anthony 8 Abbate and William Abbate, and his niece, Nicole Eastwood. He was predeceased by his brother, 9 David Abbate; and

10 WHEREAS, The Honorable Joseph A. Abbate will be remembered as a humble 11 gentleman, an accomplished jurist, a dedicated public servant, and, above all, a loving family man 12 whose life was defined by integrity, faith, and an abiding commitment to others; now, therefore 13 be it

14 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island hereby 15 expresses its deepest condolences and heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of the 16 Honorable Joseph A. Abbate; and be it further

17 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 18 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the family of the Honorable Joseph A. Abbate.
