1        WHEREAS, Kathy Nadeau, a distinguished and highly respected public servant, is 2 retiring after many decades of outstanding public service and leadership with the State of Rhode 3 Island. Ms. Nadeau worked for 33 years as a Human Resource Analyst with the Department of 4 Administration before accepting a position with RIPTA to serve as the Chief of Human 5 Resources; and

6        WHEREAS, Ms. Nadeau has played a pivotal role in modernizing and improving
7 RIPTA's human resources operations, overseeing critical areas such as recruitment, labor 8 relations, benefits, workforce development, and employee engagement, always with a focus on 9 fairness, inclusion, and respect for workers at every level of the organization; and 10       WHEREAS, With a strong commitment to public service and workforce equity, Ms.

11 Nadeau worked tirelessly to implement strategies that addressed statewide bus driver shortages, 12 including leading initiatives for paid on-the-job CDL-permit training and advocating for 13 increased starting wages, which significantly enhanced RIPTA's ability to attract and retain 14 qualified personnel; and

15       WHEREAS, In addition to her responsibilities as Chief of Human Resources, Ms.
16 Nadeau served with distinction as Recording Secretary and Member of the Joint Pension Board, 17 helping to safeguard and manage the retirement benefits of RIPTA employees with diligence and 18 integrity; and

19       WHEREAS, Throughout her career, Ms. Nadeau earned the admiration of her colleagues,

1 union leaders, and public officials alike for her professionalism, collaborative spirit, and 2 unwavering commitment to the mission of public transportation and the well-being of its 3 workforce; and

4 WHEREAS, Her retirement marks the conclusion of a career defined by integrity, 5 excellence, and service, and her legacy will be felt for years to come in the policies she helped 6 craft and the lives of those she supported; now, therefore be it

7 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby honors Kathy Nadeau
8 on the occasion of her retirement from the State of Rhode Island after many years of dedicated 9 and exemplary public service; and be it further
