8 trafficking worldwide and are being used as slaves in some capacity. The International Labour 9 Office (ILO), estimates that human trafficking generates approximately $236 billion dollars in 10 profit; and

11 WHEREAS, National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month was first 12 observed in January, 2018 and more than $45 million was contributed to the Global Fund to End
13 Modern Slavery, which provided for enhanced collaboration amongst nations and their law 14 enforcement and other community and business organizations in order to dismantle transnational 15 criminal organizations that are involved in human trafficking activities. In 2024, more than $75
16 million was raised; now, therefore be it

17 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby commemoates 18 January of 2026, as "National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month" in the State of 19 Rhode Island; and be it further

1 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 2 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, Donald 3 Trump, the Governor of the State of Rhode Island, Daniel McKee, and the Secretary-General of 4 the United Nations, António Guterres.
