1 WHEREAS, The federal Older Americans Act (OAA) requires every state to have an

4 the state long-term care ombudsman program; and

8 WHEREAS, The Rhode Island Office of the Long-Term Care Ombudsman is 9 administered by the RI Office of Healthy Aging through a contract with the Alliance for Better 10 Long-Term Care using a combination of federal and state funds; and

10 abuse, gross neglect and exploitation and 22 percent relating to care issues; and

11 WHEREAS, Combined federal and state funding to operate the RI Office of the Long-
