5 whether the prospective purchaser or tenant is eighteen (18) years of age or older, or to confirm the 6 source, amount, and expected duration of the lawful source of income of the prospective purchaser 7 or tenant to determine whether the prospective purchaser or tenant meets the nondiscriminatory 8 standards and preferences or terms, conditions, limitations, or specifications permitted under 9 subsection (c) of this section.

10 (b) No person to whom application is made for a loan or other form of financial assistance

27 a tenant or applicant or a member of the household is, or has been, or is threatened with being the 28 victim of domestic abuse, or that the tenant or applicant has obtained, or sought, or is seeking relief 29 from any court in the form of a restraining order for protection from domestic abuse, of the applicant
30 or of the existing or prospective occupants or tenants. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed 31 to prohibit any written or oral inquiry as to whether the applicant is over the age of eighteen (18).

32 (c) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed in any manner to prohibit or limit 33 the exercise of the privilege of every person and the agent of any person having the right to sell, 34 rent, lease, or manage a housing accommodation to establish standards and preferences and set

1 terms, conditions, limitations, or specifications in the selling, renting, leasing, or letting thereof or 4 status, housing status, lawful source of income, military status as a veteran with an honorable 5 discharge or an honorable or general administrative discharge, servicemember in the armed forces, 6 country of ancestral origin, disability, age, familial status, or on the basis that a tenant or applicant

8 abuse, or that the tenant or applicant has obtained, or sought, or is seeking relief from any court in 9 the form of a restraining order for protection from domestic abuse, of any prospective purchaser, 10 lessee, tenant, or occupant thereof or on the race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender 11 identity or expression, marital status, housing status, lawful source of income, military status as a 12 veteran with an honorable discharge or an honorable or general administrative discharge, 13 servicemember in the armed forces, country of ancestral origin, disability, age, or familial status of 14 any person with whom the prospective purchaser, lessee, tenant, or occupant is or may wish to be 15 associated. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed in any manner to prohibit or limit 16 the exercise of the privilege of every person and the agent of any person making loans for, or 17 offering financial assistance in, the acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair, or maintenance 18 of housing accommodations to set standards and preferences, terms, conditions, limitations, or 19 specifications for the granting of loans or financial assistance that do not discriminate on the basis 20 of the race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, 21 housing status, military status as a veteran with an honorable discharge or an honorable or general 22 administrative discharge, servicemember in the armed forces, country of ancestral origin, disability, 23 age, familial status, or on the basis that a tenant or applicant or a member of the household is, or 24 has been, or is threatened with being the victim of domestic abuse, or that the tenant or applicant 25 has obtained, or sought, or is seeking relief from any court in the form of a restraining order for 26 protection from domestic abuse, of the applicant for the loan or financial assistance or of any 27 existing or prospective owner, lessee, tenant, or occupant of the housing accommodation. If a 28 landlord requires that a prospective or current tenant have a certain minimum level of income, the 29 standard for assessing eligibility shall be based only on the portion of the rent to be paid by the 30 tenant, taking into account the value of any federal, state, or local rental assistance or housing 31 subsidy.

32 (d) An owner may not refuse to allow a person with a disability to make, at his or her 33 expense, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by the person if 34 the modifications may be necessary to afford the person full enjoyment of the premises, except that,

1 in the case of a rental, the owner may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a 2 modification on the renter agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that 3 existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Where it is necessary in order 4 to ensure with reasonable certainty that funds will be available to pay for the restorations at the end 5 of the tenancy, the landlord may negotiate as part of the restoration agreement a provision requiring 6 that the tenant pay into an interest bearing escrow account, over a reasonable period, a reasonable 7 amount of money not to exceed the cost of the restorations. The interest in the account shall accrue 8 to the benefit of the tenant. The restoration deposition shall be exempt from § 34-18-19(a) but will 9 be subject to § 34-18-19(b) through (f) inclusive.

10 (e)(1) An owner may not refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, 11 practices, or services when those accommodations may be necessary to afford an occupant with a 12 disability equal opportunity to use and enjoy a ~~dwelling~~ housing accommodation.

13 (2) Every person with a disability who has a guide dog or other personal assistive animal, 14 or who obtains a guide dog or other personal assistive animal, shall be entitled to full and equal 15 access to all housing accommodations provided for in this section and shall not be required to pay 16 extra compensation for the guide dog or other personal assistive animal but shall be liable for any 17 damage done to the premises by a guide dog or other personal assistive animal. For the purposes 18 of this subsection, a “personal assistive animal” is an animal specifically trained by a certified 19 animal training program to assist a person with a disability to perform independent living tasks.

20 \(3\) In determining whether a dog qualifies as a service animal, an owner shall not inquire 21 into the nature or extent of a person's disability or require documentation, such as proof that the 22 dog has been certified, trained, or licensed as a service animal. Unless it is readily apparent that the 23 dog is trained to do work or perform tasks for an individual with a disability, an owner may ask if 24 the animal is required because of a disability and what work or task the animal has been trained to 25 perform.

26 (f) Any housing accommodation of four (4) units or more constructed for first occupancy 27 after March 13, 1991, shall be designed and constructed in such a manner that:

28 (1) The public use and common use portions of the dwellings are readily accessible to and 29 usable by persons with disabilities;

30 (2) All the doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises within the 31 dwellings are sufficiently wide to allow passage by persons with disabilities in wheelchairs;

32 (3) All premises within the dwellings contain the following features of adaptive design:

33 (i) Accessible route into and through the dwelling;

34 (ii) Light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental controls in

1 accessible locations;

2 (iii) Reinforcements in bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars; and

3 (iv) Usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver 4 about the space. To the extent that any state or local building codes, statutes, or ordinances are 5 inconsistent with this section, they are hereby repealed. The state building code standards 6 committee is hereby directed to adopt rules and regulations consistent with this section as soon as 7 possible, but no later than September 30, 1990.

8 (g) Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the state building code 14 9 “accessibility for individuals with disabilities for residential use groups” suffices to satisfy the 10 requirements of subsection (f).

11 (h) As used in subsection (f), the term “housing accommodation of four (4) units or more” 12 means:

13 (1) Buildings consisting of four (4) or more units if those buildings have one or more 14 elevators; and

15 (2) Ground floor units in other buildings consisting of four (4) or more units.

16 (i) Nothing in subsection (f) shall be construed to limit any law, statute, or regulation that 17 requires a greater degree of accessibility to persons with disabilities.

18 (j) Nothing in this section requires that a dwelling be made available to an individual whose 19 tenancy would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or whose tenancy 20 would result in substantial physical damage to the property of others.

21 (k) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit an owner, lessee, 22 sublessee, or assignee from advertising or selecting a person of the same or opposite gender to rent, 23 lease, or share the housing unit that the owner, lessee, sublessee, or assignee will occupy with the 24 person selected.

25 (l) No person shall aid, abet, incite, compel, or coerce the doing of any act declared by this 26 section to be an unlawful housing practice; or obstruct or prevent any person from complying with 27 the provisions of this chapter or any order issued thereunder; or attempt directly or indirectly to 28 commit any act declared by this section to be an unlawful housing practice.

29 (m) No owner; person defined in § 34-37-3(13); person to whom application is made for a 30 loan or other form of financial assistance for the acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair, or 31 maintenance of any housing accommodation, whether secured or unsecured; no financial 32 organization governed by the provisions of title 19 or any other credit-granting commercial 33 institution; or respondent under this chapter; or any agent of these shall discriminate in any manner 34 against any individual because he or she has opposed any practice forbidden by this chapter, or

1 because he or she has made a charge, testified, or assisted in any manner in any investigation, 2 proceeding, or hearing under this chapter.

3 (n) Nothing in this section shall prevent a landlord from proceeding with eviction action 4 against a tenant who fails to comply with § 34-18-24(7).

5 34-37-5. Prevention of unlawful housing practices.

6 (a) The commission is empowered and directed to prevent any person from violating any 7 of the provisions of this chapter, provided that before instituting a formal proceeding, it shall 8 attempt by informal methods of conference, persuasion, and conciliation to induce compliance with 9 this chapter.

10 (b) Upon the commission's own initiative or whenever an aggrieved individual or an 11 organization chartered for the purpose of or engaged in combating discrimination or racism or of 12 safeguarding civil liberties, that organization acting on behalf of one or more individuals being 13 hereinafter referred to as the complainant, makes a charge, in writing, under oath, to the commission 14 that any person, agency, bureau, corporation, or association, hereinafter referred to as the 15 respondent, has violated or is violating, to the best of complainant's knowledge and belief, any of 16 the provisions of this chapter, and that the alleged discriminatory housing practice has occurred or 17 terminated within one year of the date of filing, the commission may initiate a preliminary 18 investigation and if it shall determine after the investigation that it is probable that unlawful housing 19 practices have been or are being engaged in, it shall endeavor to eliminate the unlawful housing 20 practices by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion. Nothing said or done 21 during these endeavors may be used as evidence in any subsequent proceeding. If after the 22 investigation and conference, the commission is satisfied that any unlawful housing practice of the 23 respondent will be eliminated, it may, with the consent of the complainant, treat the charge as 24 conciliated, and entry of that disposition shall be made on the records of the commission. If the 25 commission fails to effect the elimination of the unlawful housing practices and to obtain voluntary 26 compliance with this chapter, or, if the circumstances warrant, in advance of any preliminary 27 investigation or endeavors, the commission shall have the power to issue and cause to be served 28 upon any person or respondent a complaint stating the charges in that respect and containing a 29 notice of hearing before the commission, a member thereof, or a hearing examiner at a place therein 30 fixed to be held not less than ten (10) days after the service of the complaint.

31 (c) The commission, member thereof, or hearing examiner conducting the hearing shall 32 have the power reasonably and fairly to amend any written complaint at any time prior to the 33 issuance of an order based thereon. The respondent shall have like power to amend its answer to 34 the original or amended complaint at any time prior to the issuance of the order. The commissioner

1 assigned to the preliminary hearing of any charge shall take no part in the final hearing except as a 2 witness upon competent matters and will have no part in the determination or decision of the case 3 after hearing.

4 (d) The respondent shall have the right to file an answer to the complaint and shall appear 5 at the hearing in person or otherwise with or without counsel to present evidence and to examine 6 and cross-examine witnesses.

7 (e) In any proceeding, the commission, its member, or its agent shall not be bound by the 8 rules of evidence prevailing in the courts.

9 (f) The commission shall in ascertaining the practices followed by the respondent take into 10 account all evidence, statistical or otherwise, that may tend to prove the existence of a 11 predetermined pattern of discrimination in housing.

12 (g) The testimony taken at the hearing shall be under oath and shall be reduced to writing 13 and filed with the commission. Thereafter, in its discretion, the commission upon notice may take 14 further testimony or hear argument.

15 (h)(1) If upon all the testimony taken the commission shall determine that the respondent 16 has engaged in or is engaging in unlawful housing practices, the commission shall state its findings 17 of fact and shall issue and cause to be served on the respondent an order requiring the respondent 18 to cease and desist from the unlawful housing practices, and to take further affirmative or other 19 action as will effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

20 (2) The commission may also order the respondent to pay the complainant damages 21 sustained thereby; costs, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred at any time in connection 22 with the commission of the unlawful act, and civil penalties, any amounts awarded to be deposited 23 in the state treasury. The civil penalty shall be (i) An amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars 24 ($10,000) if the respondent has not been adjudged to have committed any prior discriminatory 25 housing practice; (ii) In an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) if the 26 respondent has been adjudged to have committed one other discriminatory housing practice during 27 the five-year (5) period ending on the date of filing this charge; and (iii) In an amount not exceeding 28 fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed two (2) or 29 more discriminatory housing practices during the seven-year (7) period ending on the date of the 30 filing of this charge; except that if the acts constituting the discriminatory housing practice that is 31 the object of the charge are committed by the same natural person who has been previously 32 adjudged to have committed acts constituting a discriminatory housing practice, then the civil 33 penalties set forth in (ii) and (iii) may be imposed without regard to the period of time within which 34 any subsequent discriminatory housing practice occurred. When determining the amount of civil

1 penalties, the commission shall consider as a mitigating factor whether the respondent has acted in 2 good faith and whether the respondent has actively engaged in regular antidiscrimination
3 educational programs. Provided that no order shall affect any contract, sale, encumbrance, or lease 4 consummated before the issuance of the order and involving a bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer, 5 or tenant without actual notice of the charge filed under this title.

6 (i) If the commission shall find that no probable cause exists for crediting the charges, or,
7 if upon all the evidence, it shall find that a respondent has not engaged in unfair housing practices, 8 the commission shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served on the 9 complainant an order dismissing the complaint as to the respondent. A copy of the order shall be 10 delivered in all cases to the attorney general and such other public officers as the commission deems 11 proper.

12 (j) Until a transcript of the record in a case shall be filed in a court as provided in subsection 13 (m), the commission may at any time, upon reasonable notice, and in such manner as it shall deem 14 proper, modify or set aside, in whole or in part, any of its findings or orders.

15 (k) Until such time as a hearing is convened pursuant to this section, no publicity shall be 16 given to any proceedings before the commission, ~~either~~ by the commission or any employee 17 thereof, ~~the complainant, or the respondent,~~ except that in the event of a conciliation agreement the 18 agreement shall be made public unless the complainant and respondent otherwise agree and the 19 commission determines that disclosure is not required to further the purposes of this chapter. After 20 the complaint issues and before an order issues, the commission shall not initiate any public notice 21 of any charge or complaint before the commission, however, the commission may respond to 22 inquiries about the status of a complaint.

23 (l) A complainant may seek a right to sue in state court if not less than one hundred and 24 twenty (120) days and not more than two (2) years have elapsed from the date of filing of a charge, 25 if the commission has been unable to secure a settlement agreement or conciliation agreement and 26 if the commission has not commenced hearing on a complaint. The commission shall grant the right 27 to sue within thirty (30) days after receipt of the request. This shall terminate all proceedings before 28 the commission and shall give to the complainant the right to commence suit in the superior court 29 within any county as provided in § 28-5-28 within ninety (90) days after the granting of the request.
30 Any party may claim a trial by jury. The superior court may make orders consistent with subsection 31 (h) and may also award punitive damages and such other damages as the court deems just and 32 proper.

33 (m)(1) The commission is further empowered to file a complaint in the superior court in 34 any county in which the unlawful housing practice allegedly occurs, or has occurred, or in which a

1 defendant resides or maintains a business office, or in Providence County, seeking injunctive relief, 2 including a temporary restraining order, against the defendant.

3 (2) No preliminary injunction shall be effective for more than thirty (30) days; provided 4 that, if the defendant has sought judicial review of an order of the commission issued pursuant to 5 this section, or if the commission has sought a decree of the court for the enforcement of the order, 6 the preliminary injunction shall remain in full force and effect until such time as the judicial review 7 or the commission's petition for the decree of enforcement is finally heard and determined.

8 (3) In any proceeding under this subsection, the commission may, if the prayer of the 9 original or amended complaint so requests, proceed at the proper time to obtain the relief provided 10 in § 34-37-6.

11 (4) The application by the commission for injunctive relief shall not prevent the 12 commission from continuing to prosecute the proceeding before it out of which the application 13 arises.

14 (5) Whenever a complaint shall be filed under the provisions of this subsection, the state 15 shall be liable, in an action brought against it, for the payment of such costs and damages as may 16 have been incurred or suffered by the defendant should final judgment be entered upon the 17 complaint in favor of the defendant, or should the commission, having been denied temporary relief 18 after the entry of a restraining order, fail to prosecute the matter further, or should the commission, 19 having been granted temporary relief, fail to prosecute the matter further, unless, in the latter two 20 (2) instances, failure to prosecute is caused by the making of an agreed settlement of any kind with 21 the defendant, including a conciliation agreement.

22 (6) All proceedings taken pursuant to the provisions of this section shall take precedence 23 over all other civil matters then pending before the court.

24 (n) The complainant or the respondent may elect, within twenty (20) days after receipt of 25 a finding of probable cause, to terminate by written notice to the commission all proceedings before 26 the commission and have the case heard in the superior court. In the event of an election to terminate 27 the proceedings, the commission shall issue a right to sue notice to the complainant with a copy of 28 the notice sent to all parties.

29 (1) The complainant shall have the right to commence suit in the superior court within any 30 county as provided in § 28-5-28 within ninety (90) days of the date of the right to sue notice. Either 31 party may claim a trial by jury in the superior court.

32 (2) Notwithstanding the termination of proceedings before the commission upon the 33 granting of the right to sue notice, the parties may agree to have the commission seek to conciliate 34 or mediate settlement of the case within the ninety-day (90) period in which the complainant has

1 the right to commence suit in superior court.

2 (o) If an election is made under subsection (n):

3 (1) The complainant, the commission, or the attorney general may commence a civil action 4 on behalf of the aggrieved person in the superior court within any county as provided in § 28-5-28 5 within ninety (90) days of the date of the right to sue notice under subsection (n);

6 (2) Any party may claim a trial by jury. Any aggrieved person with respect to the issues to 7 be determined in a civil action under this subsection may intervene as of right in that civil action;

8 (3) The superior court may make orders consistent with subsection (h) and may also award 9 punitive damages and such damages as the court deems just and proper; provided, that the court 10 shall not enter a consent order, dismissal stipulation, or judgment settling claims of discrimination 11 in an action or proceeding under this chapter, unless the parties and their counsel attest that a waiver 12 of all or substantially all attorneys' fees was not compelled as a condition of the settlement.

13 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
