STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2026

SENATE RESOLUTION

COMMEMORATING THE 182ND ANNIVERSARY OF DOMINICAN REPUBLIC
INDEPENDENCE ON FEBRUARY 27, 2026

Introduced By: Senators Quezada, Appollonio, Euer, Dimitri, Raptakis, Famiglietti, DiPalma, Burke, Lauria, and Rogers

Date Introduced: February 26, 2026

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, It is the tradition and practice of this legislative body to commemorate 2 historical events which exemplify the diversity, spirit, and struggle of the people in Rhode Island 3 and throughout the world that have achieved independence and live in peace and freedom; and

4 WHEREAS, The people of the Dominican Republic acquired their independence from 5 Spain on February 27, 1844; and

6 WHEREAS, Each year, this auspicious occasion is celebrated and provides an 7 opportunity for all people to reflect upon the rich history of the Dominican Republic and the 8 many contributions of Latin Americans to our country as well as the world; and

9 WHEREAS, February 27th has been designated as Dominican Independence Day in the 10 State of Rhode Island; and

11 WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize the great contributions 12 which Dominicans have brought to our State and our nation; and

13 WHEREAS, On February 27th, the people of the Dominican Republic, and all free 14 people, will celebrate 182 years of Dominican Independence; and

15 WHEREAS, The seat of the original capital of the Spanish New World, the Dominican 16 Republic, proclaims a host of New World firsts: the first permanent European settlement, the first 17 university, the first church, the first cathedral, the first mass, and the first royal court; and

18 WHEREAS, On February 27, 1844, the Declaration of Independence was written by Juan 19 Pablo Duarte, Francisco del Rosaro Sanchez and Ramon Matias Mella; and

1 WHEREAS, The Dominican Republic's record for free and fair elections sets an example 2 for emerging democracies the world over; and

3 WHEREAS, Today, the Dominican Republic has a close relationship with the United 4 States and has been supportive of many U.S. initiatives. The Dominican Republic has accredited
5 diplomatic missions in most of the countries in the Western Hemisphere and in principal 6 European capitals, and belongs to many world organizations, including the United Nations, the 7 World Bank, the International Labor Organization, the International Atomic Energy Agency, the 8 International Civil Aviation Organization, and the Inter-American Development Bank; and

9 WHEREAS, The approximately 2.7 million Dominicans now residing in the United 10 States are an important element in the special relationship between the two countries. Rhode 11 Island's Dominicans number around 54,000 and are among the State's smaller ethnic groups but 12 the community imparts a rich history and vitality through their presence in our Ocean State. The 13 strong civic participation and business ethic within Rhode Island's Dominican community, and 14 local businesses owned by Dominican immigrants, are evidenced by their myriad contributions, 15 greatly adding to the economic vitality of our State; and

16 WHEREAS, This Senate also acknowledges the leadership of Neicy Narcisa Coderre, the 17 first elected Dominican-American and first Dominican woman to serve on the Pawtucket City
18 Council, whose service demonstrates leadership and civic engagement in the community,
19 reflecting the growing participation and representation of Dominican-Americans in Rhode Island; 20 and

21 WHEREAS, The Dominican-American community plays another essential role through 22 their representation in the United States Armed Services. Many Dominican-Americans have made 23 the ultimate sacrifice, giving their lives defending America's liberty, security, and freedoms; now, 24 therefore be it

25 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island hereby commemorates the 26 182nd Anniversary of Dominican Republic Independence on February 27, 2026, and proudly
27 recognizes the significant contributions that Dominicans have made to the State of Rhode Island
28 and the United States; and be it further

29 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 30 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to His Excellency President Luis Rodolfo 31 Abinader Corona, Her Excellency Vice President Raquel Peña Rodríguez de Antuña, and to the 32 Dominican-American Association.
