3 34-36.1-1.02. Applicability.

4 (a)(1) This chapter applies to all condominiums created within this state after July 1, 1982,
5 except that any condominium created within this state prior to July 1, 1982, may voluntarily accept 6 the provisions of this chapter in lieu of the provisions under which it was originally organized.
7 Acceptance shall be evidenced by an agreement in writing executed by and in behalf of the 8 condominium association and by all of the owners of all of the individual condominium units within 9 the condominium, in which agreement it is clearly stated that they all accept the provisions of this 10 chapter in lieu of those in the statute under which the condominium was organized and wish to be 11 governed in the future by the provisions of this chapter. The agreement shall be recorded in the 12 land evidence records of each and every town or city where all or any part of the land in the 13 condominium concerned may be located and shall become effective when first so recorded. The 14 acceptance shall only apply to the governance of the condominium concerned as to all matters 15 which are prospective or executory in nature; and nothing herein shall be deemed to abrogate,
16 amend, limit, effect, or impair the continued effectiveness, legality, or validity of all actions
17 lawfully taken by or in behalf of the condominium prior to the effective date of the acceptance, 18 including, but without limitation, the condominium declaration and all amendments thereto, the by-19 laws of the condominium and/or of its association, all deeds, mortgages, leases, and any further

1 documents affecting the titles or rights of unit owners, or of the condominium or the prior lawful

14 to events and circumstances occurring after July 1, 1982, and do not invalidate existing provisions 15 of the declaration, bylaws, plats, or plans of those condominiums.

16 (3) A condominium created as an additional phase by amendment of a condominium 17 created prior to July 1, 1982, if the original declaration contemplated the amendment, shall be

19 conditions survey as described in § 34-36.1-1.02 and an initial reserves study within six (6) months
