7 to the metropolitan areas of the state, to conserve the state's natural resources, and to provide for 8 the welfare and happiness of the inhabitants of the state.

9 (2) That it is in the public interest to prevent the forced conversion of farm, forest, and open 10 space land to more intensive uses as the result of economic pressures caused by the assessment for 11 purposes of property taxation at values incompatible with their preservation as farm, forest, and 12 open space land.

13 (3) That the necessity in the public interest of the enactment of the provisions of this chapter 14 is a matter of legislative determination.

17 45-24-37. General provisions — Permitted uses. [Effective January 1, 2026.]

18 (a) The zoning ordinance shall provide a listing of all land uses and/or performance 19 standards for uses that are permitted within the zoning use districts of the municipality. The 20 ordinance may provide for a procedure under which a proposed land use that is not specifically 21 listed may be presented by the property owner to the zoning board of review or to a local official 22 or agency charged with administration and enforcement of the ordinance for an evaluation and 23 determination of whether the proposed use is of a similar type, character, and intensity as a listed
24 permitted use. Upon such determination, the proposed use may be considered to be a permitted use.

25 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the following uses are permitted 26 uses within all residential zoning use districts of a municipality and all industrial and commercial 27 zoning use districts except where residential use is prohibited for public health or safety reasons:

10 or flood, the owner of the property is allowed to park, temporarily, mobile and manufactured home,

11 or homes, as the need may be, elsewhere upon the land, for use and occupancy of the former

12 occupants for a period of up to twelve (12) months, or until the building or structure is rehabilitated

13 and otherwise made fit for occupancy. The property owner, or a properly designated agent of the 14 owner, is only allowed to cause the mobile and manufactured home, or homes, to remain

16 purposes of obtaining the necessary permits to repair or rebuild the structure.

17 (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, appropriate access for people with 18 disabilities to residential structures is allowed as a reasonable accommodation for any person(s)

19 residing, or intending to reside, in the residential structure.

28 ~~use~~ and forest product operations, as defined in § 2-27.1-3 are permitted uses within all zoning

29 districts of a municipality, including all industrial and commercial zoning districts, except where 30 prohibited for public health or safety reasons or the protection of wildlife habitat.

31 (h) Adaptive reuse. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, adaptive reuse

32 for the conversion of any commercial building, including offices, schools, religious facilities,

33 medical buildings, mills, and malls into residential units or mixed-use developments which include

34 the development of at least fifty percent (50%) of the existing gross floor area into residential units,

1 shall be a permitted use and allowed by specific and objective provisions of a zoning ordinance.

2 (1) Prohibitions. Adaptive reuse under this section shall not be allowed where:

3 (i) Residential use is prohibited by environmental land use restrictions recorded on the 4 property by the state of Rhode Island department of environmental management or the United 5 States Environmental Protection Agency;

6 (ii) In any industrial or manufacturing zoning use district, or a portion thereof, where 7 residential use is prohibited for public health and safety reasons which are based on specific and 8 detailed findings;

9 (iii) In any building previously used for industrial or manufacturing use(s), which has not 10 been vacant of an industrial use for less than one year prior to the submission of the permit or 11 application for adaptive reuse.

12 (2) Density.

13 (i) Provided that all minimum building, rehabilitation, and fire code requirements are met 14 for all residential units, as applicable; and provided that, for projects with more than four (4)
15 residential units, not less than ten percent (10%) of low- or moderate-income housing is provided, 16 the local zoning ordinance shall not specify any maximum density of residential units. If less than 17 ten percent (10%) of low- or moderate-income housing is provided, then the allowable maximum 18 density shall be determined by the municipality.

19 (ii) Co-living housing which meets the applicable requirements of the building and fire 20 codes, may be allowed in adaptive reuse developments.

21 (3) Dimensional requirements.

22 (i) Building envelope. Unless a local zoning ordinance allows otherwise, the development 23 shall be limited to the existing building envelope, except that the envelope is allowed to be 24 expanded to accommodate upgrades of non-occupiable space related to the building and fire codes
25 and utilities such as HVAC equipment, stairs, and elevators.

26 (ii) Parking. A local zoning ordinance shall not require a development under this section 27 to provide more than one off-street parking space for the first two (2) bedrooms of any dwelling
28 unit and shall not require more than one off-street parking space for any additional bedroom beyond 29 the second bedroom in any dwelling unit.

30 (iii) Existing setbacks. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, for adaptive 31 reuse projects, existing building setbacks shall remain and shall be considered legal 32 nonconforming, but no additional encroachments shall be permitted into any nonconforming 33 setback, unless otherwise allowed by local zoning ordinance or relief is granted by the applicable 34 authority.

1 (iv) Height. For adaptive reuse projects, notwithstanding any other provisions of this 2 chapter, the height of the existing structure, if it exceeds the maximum height of the zoning district,
3 may remain and shall be considered legal nonconforming, and any non-occupiable rooftop
4 construction such as HVAC equipment and stairs or elevator towers, but excluding rooftop decks,
5 shall be included within the height exemption.

6 (4) Water and sewer. The development shall have access to public water and sewer 7 services or shall have access to adequate private water, such as a well(s) and and/or on-site 8 wastewater treatment system(s) approved by the relevant state agency.

9 (i) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, all towns and cities shall allow 10 manufactured homes, as defined in § 45-24-31, that comply with § 23-27.3-109.1.3 as a type of 11 single-family home on any lot zoned for single-family use. Such home shall comply with all 12 dimensional requirements of a single-family home in the district or seek relief for the same under 13 the provisions of this chapter.

14 (j) Attached single-family dwellings. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, 15 all towns and cities shall allow attached single-family units, as defined in § 45-24-33, in residential 16 districts which allow for the construction of two (2) or more units. The number of attached single-17 family units allowed shall be the same as the corresponding residential density for the property and 18 zoning district.

19 SECTION 10. Construction. This act, being necessary for the welfare of the state and its 20 inhabitants, shall be construed liberally in order to effectuate its purposes.

21 SECTION 11. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of this act 22 shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, that judgment shall not 23 affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this act but shall be confined in its operation to the 24 clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part directly involved in the controversy in which that 25 judgment shall have been rendered.

26 SECTION 12. This act shall take effect upon passage.
