Introduced By: Senator Hanna M. Gallo

Date Introduced: April 28, 2026

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, Arts and culture are embedded in every community, play a unique role in 2 the lives of our families, and contribute to livability, economic vitality, and enrichment of every 3 Rhode Islander; and

4 WHEREAS, Arts and culture are a source of strength, solace, and connection; and

5 WHEREAS, The U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, reports that the arts sector 6 represented 3.3 percent of Rhode Island's GDP—supporting nearly 18,000 jobs; and

7 WHEREAS, Our artists' small businesses are a substantive component of economic 8 impact; and

9 WHEREAS, Because of the arts, event attendees have a ripple effect on neighboring 10 businesses, downtowns, and tourism – spending on average $38 in restaurants, shops, and other 11 local establishments in addition to buying an event ticket; and

12 WHEREAS, An 11-year study recently reported that during a school year, each student 13 enrolled in an arts course had an increase of a third of a day in attendance. This increase translates 14 to nine additional days of instruction – showing arts education can lead to improved academic 15 performance and school attendance; and
