JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2013

AN ACT

RELATING TO CRIMINAL PROCEDURE -- DNA DETECTION OF SEXUAL AND VIOLENT OFFENDERS

Introduced By: Senators Bates, Walaska, McCaffrey, Hodgson, and Algiere

Date Introduced: January 16, 2013

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 12-1.5-1, 12-1.5-2, 12-1.5-4, 12-1.5-7, 12-1.5-8, 12-1.5-13, and 12-1.5-17 of the General Laws in Chapter 12-1.5 entitled "DNA Detection of Sexual and Violent Offenders" are hereby amended to read as follows:

12-1.5-1. Policy. [Contingent amendment; see other version] -- The general assembly 4 5 finds and declares that DNA databanks and DNA databases are important tools in criminal 6 investigations, in the exclusion of individuals who are the subject of criminal investigations or 7 prosecutions, and in deterring and detecting recidivism. Many states have enacted laws requiring 8 persons arrested for or convicted of a crime of violence, or persons convicted of any felony, 9 sexual and violent offenses to provide genetic samples for DNA profiling. Moreover, it is the 10 policy of this state to assist federal, state and local criminal justice and law enforcement agencies 11 in the identification and detection of individuals in criminal investigations. It is therefore in the 12 best interest of the state to establish a DNA databank and a DNA database containing DNA samples and DNA records of individuals arrested for any crime of violence as defined in section 13 14 12-1.5-2, or convicted of any felony, of certain sexual and violent offenses, or convicted of any 15 felony as defined in the general laws of Rhode Island, and missing persons.

16 12-1.5-1. Policy. [Contingent effective date; see note.] -- The general assembly finds 17 and declares that DNA databanks and DNA databases are important tools in criminal 18 investigations, in the exclusion of individuals who are the subject of criminal investigations or

1 prosecutions, and in deterring and detecting recidivism. Many states have enacted laws requiring 2 persons arrested for or convicted of a crime of violence as defined in section 12-1.5-2 sexual and violent offenses to provide genetic samples for DNA profiling. Moreover, it is the policy of this 3 4 state to assist federal, state, and local criminal justice and law enforcement agencies in the 5 identification and detection of individuals in criminal investigations. It is in the best interest of the state to establish a DNA databank and a DNA database containing DNA samples and DNA 6 7 records of individuals arrested for any crime of violence as defined in section 12-1.5-2 or 8 convicted of any felony, a crime of violence as defined in section 11-47-2, or convicted of any 9 felony as defined in the general laws of Rhode Island, and missing persons.

12-1.5-2. Definitions. -- For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "CODIS" is derived from combined DNA index system, the Federal Bureau of Investigation's national DNA identification index system that allows the storage and exchange of DNA records submitted by state and local forensic DNA laboratories;

(2) "DNA" means deooxyribonucleic acid, which is located in the cells of the body and provides an individual's personal genetic blueprint. DNA encodes genetic information that is the basis of human hereditary and forensic identification;

17 (3) "DNA record" means DNA identification information only, which is stored in the 18 state DNA database or the combined DNA index system for the purpose of generating 19 investigative leads or supporting statistical interpretation of DNA test results. The DNA record is 20 the result obtained from the DNA typing tests. The DNA record is comprised of the 21 characteristics of a DNA sample which are of value only in establishing the identity of 22 individuals. The DNA record, however, does not include the DNA sample, and the DNA record 23 may never include the results of tests of any structural genes. The results of all DNA 24 identification tests on an individual's DNA sample are also collectively referred to as the DNA 25 profile of an individual;

(4) "DNA sample" means a blood or tissue sample provided by any person with respect to offenses covered by this chapter, or submitted to the department of health laboratory pursuant to this chapter for DNA analysis or storage, or both;

29

(5) "F.B.I." means the Federal Bureau of Investigation;

30 (6) "State DNA databank" means the repository of DNA samples collected under this 31 chapter, which is administered by the department of health; and

32 (7) "State DNA database" means the state-level DNA identification record system to 33 support law enforcement which is administered by the department of health and which provides 34 DNA records to the F.B.I. for storage and maintenance in CODIS. It is the collective capability to

1 store and maintain DNA records related to forensic casework, the DNA records of those arrested 2 for crimes of violence as defined in section 12-1.5-2 and/or convicted offenders required to 3 provide a DNA sample under state law, and anonymous DNA records used for research, quality 4 control, and other DNA analysis support systems. 5 (8) "Crimes of violence" include murder, manslaughter, first degree arson, kidnapping with intent to extort, robbery, larceny from the person, first degree sexual assault, second degree 6 7 sexual assault, first and second degree child molestation, assault with intent to murder, assault 8 with intent to rob, assault with intent to commit first degree sexual assault, burglary, and entering 9 a dwelling house with intent to commit murder, robbery, sexual assault, or larceny. 10 12-1.5-4. State DNA database. -- There is established the state DNA database. It shall be 11 administered by the department of health and provide DNA records for the F.B.I. for storage and 12 maintenance by CODIS. The state DNA database shall have the capability provided by computer 13 software and procedures administered by the department of health to store and maintain DNA 14 records related to:

15 (1) Forensic casework, including the identification of missing persons;

16 (2) Individuals arrested for any crime of violence as defined in section 12-1.5-2 and

17 convicted felony offenders required to provide a DNA sample under this chapter; and

(3) Anonymous DNA records used for research on identification technologies or qualitycontrol.

12-1.5-7. Scope and applicability. [Contingent amendment; see other version] -- For law enforcement purposes, this chapter is applicable to adult persons arrested for crimes of violence as defined in section 12-1.5-2 and/or convicted to a period of probation for any of the following offenses: sections 11-37-2, 11-37-4, 11-37-8, 11-37-8.1, 11-37-8.3, 11-23-1 and 11-233, and for of any felony as defined in the general laws of Rhode Island-in this chapter.

1 the provisions of this chapter.

2	(f) The detention, arrest, or conviction of a person based upon a database match or
3	database information is not invalidated if it is determined that the sample was obtained or placed
4	in the database by mistake. Any identification, warrant, or probable cause to arrest based upon a
