AN ACT
RELATING TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS—LICENSED ACTIVITIES—CURRENCY TRANSMISSIONS

Introduced By: Senators DiPalma, Lombardo, Conley, Gallo, and Valverde

Date Introduced: April 04, 2019

Referred To: Senate Commerce

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 19-14-1, 19-14-2, 19-14-4, 19-14-5, 19-14-6 and 19-14-26 of the General Laws in Chapter 19-14 entitled "Licensed Activities" are hereby amended to read as follows:

19-14-1. Definitions.

Unless otherwise specified, the following terms shall have the following meanings throughout chapters 14, 14.1, 14.2, 14.3, 14.4, 14.6, 14.8, 14.10, and 14.11 of this title:

(1) "Bona fide employee" shall mean an employee of a licensee who works under the oversight and supervision of the licensee.

(2) "Check" means any check, draft, money order, personal money order, or other instrument for the transmission or payment of money. For the purposes of check cashing, travelers checks or foreign denomination instruments shall not be considered checks. "Check cashing" means providing currency for checks.

(3) "Check casher" means a person or entity who or that, for compensation, engages, in whole or in part, in the business of cashing checks.

(4) "Currency transmission" means engaging in the business of any of the following:

(i) Sale or issuance of payment instruments or stored value primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; or

(ii) Receiving money or monetary value for transmission or holding funds incidental to transmission within the United States or to locations abroad by any and all means, including payment instrument, stored value, wire, facsimile, or electronic transfer, primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. This includes maintaining control of virtual currency or transactions in virtual currency on behalf of others.

(4)"Deferred-deposit transaction" means any transaction, such as those commonly known as "payday loans", "payday advances", or "deferred-presentment loans", in which a cash advance is made to a customer in exchange for the customer's personal check or in exchange for the customer's authorization to debit the customer's deposit account and where the parties agree either that the check will not be cashed or deposited, or that the customer's deposit account will not be debited until a designated future date.

(5) "Deliver" means to deliver a check to the first person who, in payment for the check, makes, or purports to make, a remittance of, or against, the face amount of the check, whether or not the deliverer also charges a fee in addition to the face amount and whether or not the deliverer signs the check.

(6) "Electronic money transfer" means receiving money for transmission within the United States or to locations abroad by any means including, but not limited to, wire, facsimile, or other electronic transfer system.

(7) "Insurance premium finance agreement" means an agreement by which an insured, or prospective insured, promises to pay to an insurance premium finance company the amount advanced, or to be advanced, under the agreement to an insurer or to an insurance producer, in payment of a premium, or premiums, on an insurance contract, or contracts, together with interest and a service charge, as authorized and limited by this title.

(8) "Insurance premium finance company" means a person or entity engaged in the business of making insurance premium finance agreements or acquiring insurance premium finance agreements from other insurance premium finance companies.

(9)(i) "Lender" means any person who makes or funds a loan within this state with the person's own funds, regardless of whether the person is the nominal mortgagee or creditor on the instrument evidencing the loan;

(ii) A loan is made or funded within this state if any of the following conditions exist:

(A) The loan is secured by real property located in this state;

(B) An application for a loan is taken by an employee, agent, or representative of the lender within this state;

(C) The loan closes within this state;

(D) The loan solicitation is done by an individual with a physical presence in this state; or
(E) The lender maintains an office in this state.

(iii) The term "lender" shall also include any person engaged in a transaction whereby the person makes or funds a loan within this state using the proceeds of an advance under a line of credit over which proceeds the person has dominion and control and for the repayment of which the person is unconditionally liable. This transaction is not a table-funding transaction. A person is deemed to have dominion and control over the proceeds of an advance under a line of credit used to fund a loan regardless of whether:

(A) The person may, contemporaneously with, or shortly following, the funding of the loan, assign or deliver to the line of credit lender one or more loans funded by the proceeds of an advance to the person under the line of credit;

(B) The proceeds of an advance are delivered directly to the settlement agent by the line-of-credit lender, unless the settlement agent is the agent of the line-of-credit lender;

(C) One or more loans funded by the proceeds of an advance under the line of credit is purchased by the line-of-credit lender; or

(D) Under the circumstances, as set forth in regulations adopted by the director, or the director's designee, pursuant to this chapter.

(10) "Licensee" means any person licensed under this chapter.

(11) "Loan" means any advance of money or credit including, but not limited to:

(i) Loans secured by mortgages;

(ii) Insurance premium finance agreements;

(iii) The purchase or acquisition of retail installment contracts or advances to the holders of those contracts;

(iv) Educational loans;

(v) Any other advance of money; or

(vi) Any transaction, such as those commonly known as "payday loans", "payday advances", or "deferred-presentment loans", in which a cash advance is made to a customer in exchange for the customer's personal check, or in exchange for the customer's authorization to debit the customer's deposit account, and where the parties agree either, that the check will not be cashed or deposited, or that customer's deposit account will not be debited, until a designated future date.

(12) "Loan broker" means any person or entity who or that, for compensation or gain, or in the expectation of compensation or gain, either directly or indirectly, solicits, processes, negotiates, places, or sells a loan within this state for others in the primary market, or offers to do so. A loan broker shall also mean any person who is the nominal mortgagee or creditor in a table-funding transaction. A loan is brokered within this state if any of the following conditions exist:

(i) The loan is secured by real property located in this state;

(ii) An application for a loan is taken or received by an employee, agent, or representative of the loan broker within this state;

(iii) The loan closes within this state;

(iv) The loan solicitation is done by an individual with a physical presence in this state; or

(v) The loan broker maintains an office in this state.

(13) "Loan-closing services" means providing title services, including title searches, title examinations, abstract preparation, insurability determinations, and the issuance of title commitments and title insurance policies, conducting loan closings, and preparation of loan-closing documents when performed by, or under the supervision of, a licensed attorney, licensed title agency, or licensed title insurance company.

(14) "Loan solicitation" shall mean an effectuation, procurement, delivery and offer, and advertisement of a loan. Loan solicitation also includes providing or accepting loan applications and assisting persons in completing loan applications and/or advising, conferring, or informing anyone regarding the benefits, terms and/or conditions of a loan product or service. Loan solicitation does not include loan processing or loan underwriting as defined in this section. Loan solicitation does not include telemarketing that is defined, for purposes of this section, to mean contacting a person by telephone with the intention of collecting such person's name, address, and telephone number for the sole purpose of allowing a mortgage loan originator to fulfill a loan inquiry.

(15) "Loan underwriting" shall mean a loan process that involves the analysis of risk with respect to the decision whether to make a loan to a loan applicant based on credit, employment, assets, and other factors, including evaluating a loan applicant against a lender's various lending criteria for creditworthiness, making a determination for the lender as to whether the applicant meets the lender's pre-established credit standards, and/or making a recommendation regarding loan approval.

(16) "Monetary value" means a medium of exchange, whether or not redeemable in fiat currency.

(17) "Mortgage loan" means a loan secured in whole, or in part, by real property located in this state.

(18) "Mortgage loan originator" has the same meaning set forth in § 19-14.10-3(6).

(19) "Nationwide Multi-state Licensing System" means a system involving more than one state, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and which is established to facilitate the sharing of regulatory information and the licensing, application, reporting, and payment processes, by electronic or other means, for mortgage lenders and loan brokers and other licensees required to be licensed under this chapter.

(19) "Natural person employee" shall mean any natural person performing services as a bona fide employee for a person or entity licensed under § 19-14-1 et seq., in return for a salary, wage, or other consideration, where such salary, wage, or consideration is reported by the licensee on a federal form W-2 payroll record. The term does not include any natural person or business entity performing services for a person licensed under the provisions of Rhode Island general laws in return for a salary, wage, or other consideration, where such salary, wage, or consideration is reported by the licensee on a federal form 1099.

(20) "Negative equity" means the difference between the value of an asset and the outstanding portion of the loan taken out to pay for the asset, when the latter exceeds the former amount.

(21) "Negotiates" shall mean, with respect to a loan, to confer directly with, or offer advice directly to, a loan applicant or prospective loan applicant for a loan product or service concerning any of the substantive benefits, terms, or conditions of the loan product or service.

(22) "Nonprofit organization" means a corporation qualifying as a 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, in the operation of which no member, director, officer, partner, employee, agent, or other affiliated person profits financially other than receiving reasonable salaries if applicable.

(23) "Operating subsidiary" shall mean a majority-owned subsidiary of a financial institution or banking institution that engages only in activities permitted by the parent financial institution or banking institution.

(24) "Oversight and supervision of the licensee" shall mean that the licensee provides training to the employee, sets the employee's hours of work, and provides the employee with the equipment and physical premises required to perform the employee's duties.

(25) "Personal money order" means any instrument for the transmission or payment of money in relation to which the purchaser or remitter appoints, or purports to appoint, the seller as his or her agent for the receipt, transmission, or handling of money, whether the instrument is signed by the seller, or by the purchaser, or remitter, or some other person.

(26) "Primary market" means the market in which loans are made to borrowers by lenders, whether or not through a loan broker or other conduit.

(27) "Principal owner" means any person or entity who or that owns, controls, votes, or has a beneficial interest in, directly or indirectly, ten percent (10%) or more of the outstanding capital stock and/or equity interest of a licensee.

(28)(29) "Processes" shall mean, with respect to a loan, any of a series of acts or functions, including the preparation of a loan application and supporting documents, performed by a person that leads to, or results in, the acceptance, approval, denial, and/or withdrawal of a loan application, including, without limitation, the rendering of services, including loan underwriting, obtaining verifications, credit reports or appraisals, communicating with the applicant and/or the lender or loan broker, and/or other loan processing and origination services, for consideration by a lender or loan broker. Loan processing does not include the following:

(i) Providing loan closing services;

(ii) Rendering of credit reports by an authorized credit reporting agency; and

(iii) Rendering of appraisal services.

(29)(30) "Provisional employee" means a natural person who, pursuant to a written agreement between the natural person and a wholly owned subsidiary of a financial holding company, as defined in the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. § 1841 et seq.), as amended, a bank-holding company, savings-bank-holding company, or thrift-holding company, is an exclusive agent for the subsidiary with respect to mortgage loan originations and the subsidiary: (a) Holds a valid loan broker's license; and (b) Enters into a written agreement with the director, or the director's designee, to include:

(i) An "undertaking of accountability", in a form prescribed by the director, or the director's designee, for all of the subsidiary's exclusive agents to include full-and-direct financial and regulatory responsibility for the mortgage loan originator activities of each exclusive agent as if said exclusive agent were an employee of the subsidiary;

(ii) A business plan, to be approved by the director, or the director's designee, for the education of the exclusive agents, the handling of consumer complaints related to the exclusive agents, and the supervision of the mortgage loan origination activities of the exclusive agents; and

(iii) A restriction of the exclusive agents' mortgage loan originators' activities to loans to be made only by the subsidiary's affiliated bank.

(30)(31) "Sell" means to sell, to issue, or to deliver a check.

(31)(32) "Servicing" means receiving a scheduled, periodic payment from a borrower, pursuant to the terms of a loan, including amounts for escrow accounts, and making the payments to the owner of the loan or other third party of principal and interest and other payments with respect to the amounts received from the borrower as may be required pursuant to the terms of the servicing loan documents or servicing contract. In the case of a home equity conversion mortgage or a reverse mortgage, servicing includes making payment to the borrower.
"Simple interest" means interest computed on the principal balance outstanding immediately prior to a payment for one plus the actual number of days between payments made on a loan over the life of a loan.

"Small loan" means a loan of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000), not secured by real estate, made pursuant to the provisions of chapter 14.2 of this title.

"Small-loan lender" means a lender engaged in the business of making small loans within this state.

"Stored value" means monetary value representing a claim against the issuer that is stored on an electronic or digital medium and is evidenced by an electronic or digital record, and that is intended and accepted for use as a means of redemption for money or monetary value or payment for goods or services. The term does not include stored value that is redeemable by the issuer exclusively in goods or services; stored value that is redeemable exclusively in goods or services limited to transactions involving a defined merchant or location or set of locations, such as a specific retailer or retail chain, college campus, or program points, miles, or other units issued in connection with a customer affinity or rewards program, even if there is a secondary market for the stored value.

"Table-funding transaction" means a transaction in which there is a contemporaneous advance of funds by a lender and an assignment by the mortgagee or creditor of the loan to the lender.

"Third-party loan servicer" means a person or entity who or that, directly or indirectly, engages in the business of servicing a loan secured by residential real estate located in Rhode Island, for a personal, family, or household purpose, owed or due, or asserted to be owed or due, another, or a person or entity that owns the servicing rights to a loan secured by residential real estate located in Rhode Island whether or not that owner services the loan themselves or contracts with another person or entity for the servicing.

"Virtual currency":

(i) Means a digital representation of value that:

(A) Is used as a medium of exchange, unit of account, or store of value; and
(B) Is not legal tender, whether or not denominated in legal tender; and

(ii) Does not include:

(A) A transaction in which a merchant grants, as part of an affinity or rewards program, value that cannot be taken from or exchanged with the merchant for legal tender, bank credit, or virtual currency;
(B) A digital representation of value issued by or on behalf of a publisher and used solely...
within an online game, game platform, or family of games sold by the same publisher or offered on the same game platform;

The licensing requirement for any person providing debt-management plans shall apply to all persons, without regard for state of incorporation or a physical presence in this state, who initiate or service debt-management plans for residents of this state. Special exemptions from licensing for each activity are contained in other chapters in this title.

(b) No lender or loan-broker licensee shall permit an employee to act as a mortgage loan originator without first verifying that such originator is licensed under this chapter. No individual may act as a mortgage-loan originator without being licensed, or act as a mortgage-loan originator for more than one person. The license of a mortgage-loan originator is not effective during any period when such mortgage-loan originator is not associated with a lender or loan-broker licensee.

(c) Each loan negotiated, solicited, placed, found, or made without a license as required in subsection (a) shall constitute a separate violation for purposes of this chapter.

(d) No person engaged in the business of making or brokering loans in this state, whether licensed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter or exempt from licensing, shall accept applications, or referral of applicants from, or pay a fee to, any lender, loan broker, or mortgage-loan originator who is required to be licensed or registered under said sections but is not licensed to act as such by the director, or the director's designee.

(e) No person except those exempt pursuant to § 19-14.3-1 shall engage in the business of currency transmission in this state without a license as provided in this chapter.

(f) A currency transmission licensee may conduct its business in this state at one or more locations, directly or indirectly owned, or through one or more authorized delegates, or both, pursuant to the license granted under this chapter.

(g) A person is considered to be engaged in the business of currency transmission in this state if that person enters into a transaction with a person physically located in or resident in Rhode Island at the time the transaction is initiated.

19-14-4. Annual fee.

(a) Each licensee shall pay an annual license fee as follows:

Licensees with four (4) to seven (7) branches shall post a bond, as indicated above, and an additional bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). Licensees with eight (8) or more branches shall post a bond, as indicated above, and an additional bond in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000);

(8) (6) Each debt-management services registrant, the amount provided in § 19-14.8-13;
or

(7) Each third-party loan servicer, the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000); or

(8) If a currency transmission licensee shows that a surety bond is not generally available in this state at a commercially reasonable cost, the department may accept an alternative form of

security.

(c) The bond shall run to the state for the use of the state and of any person who may have cause of action against the obligor of the bond under the provisions of this title. The bond shall be perpetual and shall be conditioned upon the obligor faithfully conforming to, and abiding by, the provisions of this title and of all rules and regulations lawfully made, and the obligor will pay to the state and to any person any and all money that may become due or owing to the state or to the person from the obligor under, and by virtue of, the provisions of this title.

(d) The provisions of subsection (b)(6) shall not apply to any foreign exchange business holding a valid, electronic money transfer license issued pursuant to § 19-14-1 et seq., that has filed with the division of banking the bond required by subsections (b)(4) and (b)(7).

(e) The bond shall remain in force and effect until the surety is released from liability by the director, or the director's designee, or until the bond is cancelled by the surety. The surety may cancel the bond and be released from further liability under the bond upon receipt by the director, or the director's designee, of written notice in a manner satisfactory to the director, including, but not limited to, for documentation purpose of the cancellation of the bond at least thirty (30) days in advance of the cancellation of the bond. The cancellation shall not affect any liability incurred or accrued under the bond before the termination of the thirty-day (30) period. Upon receipt of any notice of cancellation, the director shall provide written notice to the licensee.

(f) Upon receipt of any notice of cancellation, the director may provide written notice to the licensee requiring reinstatement or replacement of the bond. Unless the bond is reinstated by the surety, or a satisfactory replacement bond is filed with the director prior to the cancellation of the original bond, the license shall be suspended. The licensee will be provided notice of the suspension and may request a hearing within thirty (30) days. If the licensee does not request a hearing, the director, or director's designee, shall issue an order revoking the license for failure to comply with this section.

Any person and the several members, officers, directors, agents, and employees of any person who violate or participate (a) If a person other than a licensee engages in activity for which licensure is required by this title with or on behalf of a resident in violation of this chapter, the department may assess a civil penalty against the person in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each day of violation and/or may order that the person cease and desist from all activities requiring licensure.

(b) If a licensee materially violates or participates in the violation of any of the applicable provisions of this title, or any regulation promulgated under this title, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine the department may assess a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation or in the case of identifiable measured transactions per transaction, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both. Each violation constitutes a separate offense. Complaints under the provisions of this chapter may be made by the director, or the director's designee, and shall not be required to give surety for costs. The attorney general shall prosecute all complaints criminal activities under this chapter.

(c) A civil penalty under this section continues to accrue until the earlier of the following:

(1) The date the violation ceases; or

(xi) A person that:

(A) Does not receive compensation from or on behalf of a resident or from sales of data pertaining to a resident for:

(I) Providing virtual currency products or services; or

(II) Conducting virtual currency business activity; or

(B) Is engaged in testing products or services with the person's own funds,

(5) The department may determine that a person or class of persons, given facts particular to the person or class, should be exempt from this chapter, whether the person or class is covered by requirements imposed under federal law on a money-service business.

SECTION 4. Chapter 19-14.3 of the General Laws entitled "Sale of Checks and Electronic Money Transfers" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sections:

19-14.3-1. Definitions.

In addition to the definitions provided in § 19-14-1 the following definitions are applicable to this chapter:

(1) "Control" means:

(i) When used in reference to a transaction or relationship involving virtual currency, the power to execute unilaterally or prevent indefinitely a virtual currency transaction; and

(ii) When used in reference to a person, the direct or indirect power to direct the management, operations, or policies of the person through legal or beneficial ownership of twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the voting power in the person or under a contract, arrangement, or understanding.

(2) "Department" means the department of business regulation, division of banking;

(3) "Exchange," used as a verb, means to assume control of virtual currency from or on behalf of a resident, at least momentarily, to sell, trade, or convert;

(i) Virtual currency for legal tender, bank credit, or one or more forms of virtual currency; or

(ii) Legal tender or bank credit for one or more forms of virtual currency.

(4) "Legal tender" means a medium of exchange or unit of value, including the coin or paper money of the United States, issued by the United States or by another government.

(5) "Licensee" means a person licensed under this chapter.

(6) "Monetary value" means a medium of exchange, whether or not redeemable in money.

(7) "Reciprocity agreement" means an arrangement between the department and the appropriate licensing agency of another state which permits a licensee operating under a license granted by the other state to engage in currency transmission business activity with or on behalf of a resident.

(8) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(9) "Registry" means the Nationwide Multistate Licensing System.

(10) "Resident":

(i) Means a person that:
(A) Is domiciled in this state;
(B) Is physically located in this state for more than one hundred eighty-three (183) days of the previous three hundred sixty-five (365) days; or
(C) Has a place of business in this state; and
(ii) Includes a legal representative of a person that satisfies subsection (10)(i) of this section.
(11) "Responsible individual" means an individual who has managerial authority with respect to a licensee's currency transmission business activity with or on behalf of a resident.
(12) "Sign" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:
(i) To execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or
(ii) To attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic symbol, sound, or process.
(13) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.
(14) "Store," except in the phrase "store of value," means to maintain control of virtual currency on behalf of a resident by a person other than the resident. "Storage" and "storing" have corresponding meanings.
(15) "Transfer" means to assume control of virtual currency from or on behalf of a resident and to:
(i) Credit the virtual currency to the account of another person;
(ii) Move the virtual currency from one account of a resident to another account of the same resident; or
(iii) Relinquish control of virtual currency to another person.
(16) "U.S. Dollar equivalent of virtual currency" means the equivalent value of a particular virtual currency in United States dollars shown on a virtual currency exchange based in the United States for a particular date or period specified in this chapter.
(17) "Virtual currency business activity" means:
(i) Exchanging, transferring, or storing virtual currency whether directly or through an agreement with a virtual currency control-services vendor;
(ii) Holding electronic precious metals or electronic certificates representing interests in precious metals on behalf of another person or issuing shares or electronic certificates representing interests in precious metals; or
(iii) Exchanging one or more digital representations of value used within one or more online games, game platforms, or family of games for:

(A) Virtual currency offered by or on behalf of the same publisher from which the original digital representation of value was received; or

(B) Legal tender or bank credit outside the online game, game platform, or family of games offered by or on behalf of the same publisher from which the original digital representation of value was received.

(18) "Virtual currency control-services vendor" means a person that has control of virtual currency solely under an agreement with a person that, on behalf of another person, assumes control of virtual currency.

19-14.3-1.2. License by reciprocity.

(a) A person licensed by another state to engage in currency transmission business activity in that state may engage in currency transmission business activity with or on behalf of a resident to the same extent as a licensee if:

(1) The department determines that the state in which the person is licensed has in force laws regulating currency transmission business activity which are substantially similar to, or more protective of rights of users than, this chapter and enters into a reciprocity agreement with the other state that the state will allow reciprocal licensing of persons licensed under this chapter.

(2) An application under this section is filed with the registry and the applicant shall notify the department in a record that the applicant has submitted the application to the registry and shall submit to the department:

(i) A certification of license history from the agency responsible for issuing a license in each state in which the applicant has been licensed to conduct currency transmission business activity;

(ii) A nonrefundable reciprocal licensing application fee in the amount required by § 19-14-6;

(iii) All other information requested by the department in the application for licensure on the registry.

19-14.3-1.3. Cooperation and data-sharing authority.

(a) The department may cooperate, coordinate, jointly examine, consult, and share records and other information with the appropriate regulatory agency of another state, a selfregulatory organization, federal or state regulator of banking or non-depository providers, or a regulator of a jurisdiction outside the United States, concerning the affairs and conduct of a licensee in this state.

(b) The department shall:
(1) Establish or participate in, with another state that enacts a law substantially similar to this chapter, a central depository for filings required by law of this state other than this chapter;

(2) Cooperate in developing and implementing uniform forms for applications and renewal reports and the conduct of joint administrative proceedings and civil actions;

(3) Formulate joint rules, forms, statements of policy, and guidance and interpretative opinions and releases; and

(4) Develop common systems and procedures.

(c) In deciding whether and how to cooperate, coordinate, jointly examine, consult, or share records and other information under subsection (a) of this section, the department shall consider:

(1) Maximizing effectiveness and uniformity of regulation, examination, implementation, and enforcement for the benefit of residents and licensees and registrants; and

(2) Minimizing burdens on licensees and registrants without adversely affecting protection for residents.

19-14.3-3.5. Required disclosures for virtual currency.

(a) A licensee engaging in virtual currency business activities shall provide to a resident who uses the licensee's virtual currency products or service the disclosures required by subsection (b) of this section and any additional disclosure the department by rule determines reasonably necessary for the protection of residents. The department may determine by rule any additional disclosures and/or the time and form required for disclosure. A disclosure required by this section must be made separately from any other information provided by the licensee and in a clear and conspicuous manner in a record the resident may keep. A licensee may propose for the department's approval alternate disclosures as more appropriate for its virtual currency business activity with or on behalf of residents.

(b) Before establishing a relationship with a resident, a licensee shall disclose, to the extent applicable to the virtual currency business activity the licensee will undertake with the resident:

(1) A schedule of fees and charges the licensee may assess, the manner by which fees and charges will be calculated if they are not set in advance and disclosed, and the timing of the fees and charges;

(2) Whether the product or service provided by the licensee is covered by:

(i) A form of insurance or is otherwise guaranteed against loss by an agency of the United States;

(A) Up to the full U.S. Dollar equivalent of virtual currency placed under the control of or purchased from the licensee as of the date of the placement or purchase, including the maximum amount provided by insurance under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or otherwise available from the Securities Investor Protection Corporation; or

(B) If not provided at the full U.S. Dollar equivalent of virtual currency placed under the control of or purchased from the licensee, the maximum amount of coverage for each resident expressed in the U.S. Dollar equivalent of the virtual currency; or

(ii) Private insurance against theft or loss, including cyber theft or theft by other means;

(3) The irrevocability of a transfer or exchange and any exception to irrevocability;

(4) A description of:

(i) Liability for an unauthorized, mistaken, or accidental transfer or exchange;

(ii) The resident's responsibility to provide notice to the licensee of the transfer or exchange;

(iii) The basis for any recovery by the resident from the licensee;

(iv) General error-resolution rights applicable to the transfer or exchange; and

(v) The method for the resident to update the resident's contact information with the licensee;

(5) That the date or time when the transfer or exchange is made and the resident's account is debited may differ from the date or time when the resident initiates the instruction to make the transfer or exchange;

(6) Whether the resident has a right to stop a pre-authorized payment or revoke authorization for a transfer and the procedure to initiate a stop-payment order or revoke authorization for a subsequent transfer;

(7) The resident's right to receive a receipt, trade ticket, or other evidence of the transfer or exchange;

(8) The resident's right to at least thirty (30) days' prior notice of a change in the licensee's fee schedule, other terms and conditions of operating its virtual currency business activity with the resident and the policies applicable to the resident's account; and

(9) That virtual currency is not legal tender.

c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section, at the conclusion of a virtual currency transaction with or on behalf of a resident, a licensee shall provide the resident a confirmation in a record which contains:

(1) The name and contact information of the licensee, including information the resident may need to ask a question or file a complaint;

(2) The type, value, date, precise time, and amount of the transaction; and
(3) The fee charged for the transaction, including any charge for conversion of virtual currency to legal tender, bank credit, or other virtual currency.

(d) If a licensee discloses that it will provide a daily confirmation in the initial disclosure under subsection (c) of this section, the licensee may elect to provide a single, daily confirmation for all transactions with or on behalf of a resident on that day instead of a per-transaction confirmation.

19-14.3-3.6. Property interests and entitlements to virtual currency.

(a) A licensee that has control of virtual currency for one or more persons shall maintain in its control an amount of each type of virtual currency sufficient to satisfy the aggregate entitlements of the persons to the type of virtual currency.

(b) If a licensee violates subsection (a) of this section, the property interests of the persons in the virtual currency are pro rata property interests in the type of virtual currency to which the persons are entitled, without regard to the time the persons became entitled to the virtual currency or the licensee obtained control of the virtual currency.

(c) The virtual currency referred to in this section is:

(1) Held for the persons entitled to the virtual currency;

(2) Not property of the licensee; and

(3) Not subject to the claims of creditors of the licensee.

19-14.3-3.7. Mandated compliance programs and monitoring.

(a) An applicant, before submitting an application, shall create and, during licensure, maintain in a record, policies and procedures for:

(1) An information-security and operational-security program;

(2) A business-continuity program;

(3) A disaster-recovery program;

(4) An anti-fraud program;

(5) An anti-money-laundering program; and

(6) A program to ensure compliance with the Bank Secrecy Act and the USA Patriot Act.

(b) A licensee's information-security and operational-security policy must include reasonable and appropriate administrative, physical, and technical safeguards to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of any non-public personal information or currency transmission it receives, maintains, or transmits.

(c) A licensee is not required to file with the department a copy of a report it makes to a federal authority unless the department specifically requires filing.

(d) After the policies and procedures required under this section are created by the licensee and approved by the department, the licensee shall engage a responsible individual with desirable, and enforce it.

c) A licensee may:
(1) Request advice from the department as to compliance with this section; and
(2) With the department's approval, outsource functions, other than compliance, required under this section.

(f) Failure of a particular policy or procedure adopted under this section to meet its goals in a particular instance is not a ground for liability of the licensee if the policy or procedure was created, implemented, and monitored properly. Repeated failures of a policy or procedure are evidence that the policy or procedure was not created or implemented properly.

(a) No person required to be licensed under this chapter shall:
(1) Fail to remit all money or monetary value received for transmission pursuant to this chapter, or give instructions committing equivalent money or monetary value to the person designated by the sender within ten (10) days after receipt by the licensee unless otherwise directed by the sender except in cases relating to the prevention and detection of fraud or money laundering, compliance with applicable sanctions, regimes and other related compliance obligations;
(2) Fail to immediately notify the director in writing if the licensee dishonors or fails to satisfy any currency transmission transaction within the ten (10) days following receipt for any reason other than direction by the sender except in cases relating to the prevention and detection of fraud or money laundering, compliance with applicable sanctions, regimes and other related compliance obligations;
(3) Engage in the business of currency transmission in the state under any name other than that which it is organized or otherwise authorized to do business in the state;
(4) Fail to comply with the Federal Bank Secrecy Act, 31 U.S.C. 5311 et seq., and 31
C.F.R. Part 1022, including maintenance of an active registration with the United States Department of Treasury Financial Crimes Enforcement Network;
(5) Fail to comply with the Federal Electronic Funds Transfer Act, 15 U.S.C. 1693 et seq., and Regulation E, 12 C.F.R. 1005 et seq.;
(6) Fail to safeguard identifying information obtained in the course of currency transmission and otherwise comply with the requirements set forth in chapter 52 of title 6; (7) Fail to comply with applicable state and federal laws and regulations related to the business of currency transmission;

(8) Use or cause to be published or disseminated any advertising communication which contains any false, misleading, or deceptive statement or representation; or

(9) Engage in unfair, deceptive, or fraudulent practices.

SECTION 5. Title 6 of the General Laws entitled "COMMERCIAL LAW - GENERAL REGULATORY PROVISIONS" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

CHAPTER 56
UNIFORM SUPPLEMENTAL COMMERCIAL LAW FOR THE UNIFORM REGULATION OF VIRTUAL-CURRENCY BUSINESSES ACT

6-56-1. Short title.
This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Uniform Supplemental Commercial Law for the Uniform Regulation of Virtual-Currency Businesses Act."

6-56-2. Definitions.
(a) As used in this chapter:
(1) “Article 8” means Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code, as amended, in substantially the form approved by the American Law Institute and the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, as adopted in this state as title 6A of the general laws.
(2) “Control” has the meaning provided in § 19-14.3-1.1(1).
(3) “Hague Securities Convention” means the Convention on the Law Applicable to
(4) “Uniform Commercial Code jurisdiction” means a state that has enacted Article 8.
(5) “Uniform Regulation of Virtual-Currency Businesses Act” means chapter 14.3 of title 19 of the Rhode Island general laws.
(6) “User” means a person for which a licensee has control of virtual currency.
(b) Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections of the Uniform Regulation of Virtual-Currency Businesses Act in which they appear are as follows:
(1) “Licensee” as set forth in § 19-14.3-1.1.
(2) “Record” as set forth in § 19-14.3-1.1.
(3) “Resident” as set forth in § 19-14.3-1.1.
(4) “Sign” as set forth in § 19-14.3-1.1.
(5) “State” as set forth in § 19-14.3-1.1.
(6) “Virtual currency” as set forth in § 19-14-1.
(c) Other definitions applying to this chapter are as follows:
(1) “Entitlement holder” as set forth in § 6A-8-102(a).
(2) “Financial asset” as set forth in § 6A-8-102(a).

(3) “Securities intermediary” as set forth in § 6A-8-102(a).

(4) “Security” as set forth in § 6A-8-102(a).

(5) “Securities account” as set forth in § 6A-8-501.

(d) The definition of “agreement” applying to this chapter appears in § 6A-1-201(b)(3) and in Article 1 of the Uniform Commercial Code, as amended, in substantially the form approved by the American Law Institute and the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

This chapter applies to:

(1) A person or transaction governed by the Uniform Regulation of Virtual-Currency Businesses Act; and

(2) A user that is not a resident if the user or transaction with the user would be governed by the Uniform Regulation of Virtual-Currency Businesses Act if the user were a resident.

6-56-4. Incorporation of Article 8.

(a) The relationship between a licensee or registrant and a user shall be evidenced by an agreement in a record signed by the licensee or registrant and by the user. The agreement:

(1) Shall specify the jurisdiction whose law governs the agreement;

(2) If governed by the law of a jurisdiction that is not a Uniform Commercial Code jurisdiction, the agreement shall:

(i) Specify a Uniform Commercial Code jurisdiction as the securities intermediary’s jurisdiction for the purpose of Article 8; and

(ii) State that the law in force in the Uniform Commercial Code jurisdiction under subsection (2)(i) of this section applies to all issues specified in Article 2(1) of the Hague Securities Convention;

(3) Shall state that:

(i) The licensee is a securities intermediary;

(ii) The control of virtual currency by the licensee for the benefit of the user creates a securities account of which the user is the entitlement holder;

(iii) The parties agree that the virtual currency is to be treated as a financial asset credited or held for credit to the securities account of the user; and

(iv) The licensee will not grant a security interest in virtual currency which the licensee or registrant is obligated to maintain under § 6A-8-504(a) and/or Article 8;

(4) May not provide a standard for the licensee to comply with its duties under Part 5 of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code which is less protective of the user than the standard that would apply under Part 5 of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code in the absence of an agreement concerning the standard; and

(5) May not provide that:
(i) The securities intermediary’s jurisdiction for the purpose of Article 8 is a jurisdiction that is not a Uniform Commercial Code jurisdiction; or (ii) The law in force in a jurisdiction that is not a Uniform Commercial Code jurisdiction applies to all issues specified in Article 2(1) of The Hague Securities Convention.

(b) To the extent that there is no agreement that complies with subsection (a) of this section, the relationship between a licensee or registrant and a user is determined as if the licensee or registrant and the user have an agreement that complies with subsection (a) of this section and specifies that the law of this state governs the agreement.

(c) The effect of this section may not be varied by agreement.

(a) A licensee shall maintain in a state an office that complies with the second sentence of Article 4(1) of The Hague Securities Convention.

(b) The effect of this section may not be varied by agreement.

6-56-6. Effect of failure to comply with this chapter.

Failure to comply with this chapter is a violation of the Uniform Regulation of Virtual-Currency Businesses Act.

6-56-7. No inference as to characterization under other statute or rule.

Treatment of virtual currency as a financial asset credited to a securities account under this chapter and Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code does not determine the characterization or treatment of the virtual currency under any other statute or rule.

6-56-8. Supplementary law.

Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity supplement this chapter.

In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

This chapter modifies, limits, or supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001, et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede Section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of

If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or application of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect on January 1, 2020.
This act would add virtual currency to the existing electronic money transmission and sale of check licenses and would add additional regulatory provisions to simplify and clarify licensing related thereto.

This act would take effect on January 1, 2020.
