14 committee. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to prohibit a teacher from tutoring a student 15 who is not concurrently under his or her instruction in the public school and receiving compensation 16 for the tutoring from the parents of the student.

4 for the cost of district-sponsored field trips, provided that the district shall pay for the costs to attend
5 and participate in these field trips by meeting any deficit that may remain after efforts to raise funds
6 or accept donations have concluded; and provided further that all requests for donations include a 7 written statement that all donations are voluntary, and no student will be denied participation or 8 attendance for failure to donate. No students shall be individually identified in regard to these
