CHAPTER 149

RESTRICTING RADIO FREQUENCY IDENTIFICATION DEVICES

42-149-1. Restriction of radio frequency identification devices. -- Except where required by federal law, no state or municipal agency, or any subdivision thereof, shall use, or request the use of Radio Frequency Identification Devices (RFID) for the purpose of tracking the movement or identity of any student on school grounds, at school functions, or while being transported to or from school grounds or school functions.

Global Positioning devices are excluded.

(b) Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit the use of RFIDs for the purpose of tracking students being transported to a hospital for emergency medical services in accordance with section 23-4.1-1; provided, however, that no information that personally identifies the individual shall be transmitted by the RFID unless HIPPA compliant.

(c) Nothing contained herein shall prohibit the use of RFIDs by a state or local government for the purpose of tracking the location of equipment or vehicles owned by the state or local government, provided that the RFID device shall not contain or transmit information that directly pertains to any student.

(d) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to apply to or prohibit the use of global positioning system devices.

42-149-4.
