ANNOUNCEMENTS

Speaker Shekarchi would like to thank all of his colleagues for allowing him to serve as their Speaker these past two years. He strives to treat people fairly and reasonably. His first term was a great learning experience, and should the voters of District 23 in Warwick re-elect him, and he will continue to earn everyone's support, He hopes to be an even better Speaker next year.

The Speaker believes the House accomplished a great deal these past two years. It has been a very challenging time, particularly dealing with the impact of COVID – including relocating to the Veterans Auditorium for most of last session. He is proud that the House now enacted three budgets that have not raised taxes and indeed have lowered them. Eliminating the car tax a year ahead of schedule plus all the investments helping those in need in our state is a tribute to many the talented people in this room.

The Speaker could go on and on about the many proud achievements of the last two sessions, from the Act on Climate to Pay Equity, from expanding voting access to making significant investments in affordable housing, that the House has done a tremendous amount of work these past 2 years. He values all members' expertise and commitment to the people of Rhode Island and is proud to work with all members.

Part of the reason things have gone so well is because of our leadership team headed by Leader Blazejewski, Whip Kazarian, Deputy Whip Ackerman, Floor Manager Edwards and the rest of the team. A particular shout-out to all the committee chairs, who spend countless hour's hearings bills and providing great analysis. He also want to acknowledge a very professional and dedicated staff, and would like to start by thanking the Chief Legal Counsel, Nicole McCarty. She is here late at night, working weekends and holidays putting together our floor and committee calendars, drafting bills, amendments and doing everything it takes to make sure our legislative agenda is fulfilled. Thank you Nicole. He would like to thank Stacy Custer, who handles every detail in "the pit" from transmitting bills to the Senate and the Governor to making sure every committee hearing runs smoothly. The Speaker would like to acknowledge the rest of senior staff: Raymond Simone, Stephen Kavanagh, Lynne Urbani, Lynn DiPetrillo, Henry Kinch, Larry Berman, Jason Holt, Emmanuel Falck, Emily Martineau, and John Conti. The fiscal staff, headed by Sharon Reynolds Ferland, and thank you to each of our department directors and their staffs for their tireless work, from Legislative Council to Law Revision, from the Legislative Press Bureau to Capitol TV, from our great IT Department to JCLS, and to all the committee clerks, the workers in front of me in "the pit" and Parliamentarian Mike Egan, to all the executive assistants and the operations staff. Thank you.

Representative Noret recognizes and thanks the Constituents Services and Data Department for all of their hard work.

Chairwoman Williams recognizes the pages for staying late and all of their hard work. She would also like to thank Parliamentarian Mike Egan for standing by her many hours and all his hard work. She would like to recognize and thank Susan Chiariello, Sean Feeney for all their help.

Chairman Corvese would like to thank all of the administrative assistance, House Clerks and Constituent Service's Department for all the do.

Majority Leader Blazejewski would like to thank Speaker Shekarchi for being a great leader. He would also like to thank his assistant Jen Amerantes and Legal Counsel Danica Iacoi for all their hard work.
