

2025 -- S 0959

LC002724

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2025

A N A C T

RELATING TO LABOR AND LABOR RELATIONS -- WORKPLACE PSYCHOLOGICAL SAFETY ACT

Introduced By: Senators Ciccone, and Burke

Date Introduced: April 07, 2025

Referred To: Senate Labor & Gaming

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Title 28 of the General Laws entitled "LABOR AND LABOR RELATIONS"
2 is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

3 CHAPTER 61

4 WORKPLACE PSYCHOLOGICAL SAFETY ACT

5 28-61-1. Short title.

6 This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Workplace Psychological Safety
7 Act."

8 28-61-2. Public policy.

9 (a) This chapter sets forth a public policy acknowledging and addressing the relevance and 10 importance of mental health as an integral aspect of human well-being, and therefore, employee
11 well-being. This chapter also sets forth a public policy against any type of psychological abuse that:

12 (1) Violates an employee's right to a physically and psychologically safe work 13 environment; and

14 (2) Injures an employee, hinders the performance of an employee, stigmatizes the 15 employee, and/or undermines the dignity of the employee.

16 (b) This chapter declares and reasserts the obligation of employers to keep their employees
17 and the work environment safe, as set forth in laws throughout the state and the federal government.

18 28-61-3. Purpose.

1 It is the purpose of this chapter to:

2 (1) Recognize and protect an employee's right, not only to a physically safe work
3 environment but also to ensure a psychologically safe work environment in the workplace.

4 (2) Recognize and promote an employer's responsibility to acknowledge, monitor, prevent,
5 discourage, and adequately address issues of psychological abuse in the workplace.

6 (3) Provide legal incentive for employers to acknowledge, monitor, prevent, discourage,
7 and adequately address issues of psychological abuse, to eliminate such behaviors before they
8 disrupt the safety of the work environment and/or cause subsequent harm to employees.

9 (4) Provide legal relief and remedies for employees harmed psychologically, emotionally,
10 physically, professionally, or economically by exposure to an unsafe, toxic work environment,
11 including any subsequent damages to make employees whole.

12 28-61-4. Scope of application.

13 This chapter shall apply to all employees regardless of the nature of their job.

14 28-61-5. Definitions.

15 For the purposes of this chapter, the terms used herein shall have the meanings set forth in 16 this section:

17 (1) "Bullying" means interpersonal abuse that operates employer-to-employee(s),
18 especially superior(s) to subordinate(s).

19 (2) "Mobbing" means an interpersonal abuse system that operates employer-to-
20 employee(s).

21 (3) "Physical injury" means impairment of a person's physical health or bodily integrity, as 22 established by competent evidence and may manifest mentally, emotionally, or physically.

23 (4) "Psychological abuse" means mentally provocative harassment. Mistreatment that has 24 the effect of hurting, weakening, confusing, or frightening a person mentally or emotionally.

25 (5) "Psychological injury" means impairment of a person's mental health, as established by 26 competent evidence and may manifest mentally, emotionally, or physically.

27 (6) "Reasonable person" means an unbiased person who displays reason, fairness, caution, 28 and care.

29 (7) "Representative employee" means administrative employees in leadership and/or 30 management positions, whose responsibility is to oversee and enforce organizational policies
31 including, but not limited to, CEOs, CFOs, presidents, vice presidents, executive directors, 32 members of a board of directors, or employees in human resources, legal, or diversity, equity, and 33 inclusion.

34 (8) "Third party" means a neutral person, with no prior affiliation with the parties.

1 (9) "Toxic work environment" means an intolerable employment condition, in which a 2 reasonable person would find it difficult, uncomfortable, and/or an impossible environment to 3 perform their workplace duties and tasks.

4 28-61-6. Employee right to dignity and a psychologically safe work environment.

5 Every employee shall have the right to a work environment that is safe and affords them
6 the dignity, to which all human beings are entitled, free from all forms of psychological abuse.

7 28-61-7. Employer responsibility to provide safe work environments and ensure 8 worker dignity.

9 Employers have a general duty to provide a safe work environment, free from all forms of 10 abuse including psychological abuse. Employers have a general duty to ensure that all employees
11 are treated respectfully and with dignity.

12 28-61-8. Prohibited activity.

13 (a) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for any employer or employee to engage 14 in the psychological abuse of another employee, that creates a toxic work environment in which a 15 reasonable person would find intolerable to perform their regular workplace duties and tasks, has 16 the ability to cause injury, and/or jeopardizes future career prospects, without just cause. The 17 determination of which shall be conducted, from the view of a reasonable person under the totality
18 of the circumstances, its impact on the work environment of the employee, and/or its subsequent 19 impact on the employee's well-being.

20 (b) It shall be an unlawful employment practice to retaliate in any manner against an 21 employee who has opposed any unlawful employment practices under this chapter including, but 22 not limited to, filing a claim internally or externally on behalf of oneself or another objecting to 23 behavior, in violation of this chapter whether as a complainant, witness, or advocate.

24 (c) It shall be an unlawful employment practice to require any complainant under this 25 chapter to enter into mediation or forced arbitration.

26 (d) Conduct that does not constitute psychological abuse includes, but is not limited to:

27 (1) Acts intended to exercise a supervisor's authority to discipline with just cause and 28 conducted in a progressive disciplinary manner in compliance with policies and laws;

29 (2) Demands for protecting the confidentiality of the services provided by the employer;

30 (3) The formulation or promulgation of regulations or memoranda to direct the operations,
31 maximize efficiency, and evaluate employees' performance based on the general objectives of the 32 employer;

33 (4) The temporary assignment of additional duties when necessary to ensure the continuity
34 of services;

1 (5) Administrative actions directed to the completion of an employment agreement, with 2 cause; and

3 (6) Employer's affirmative actions to enforce the provisions of a human resources
4 regulation, clauses of employment agreements, or obligations, duties, and prohibitions established
5 by law.

6 (e) Concerted activity/Section 7 activity under the National Labor Relations Act, as
7 interpreted by the National Labor Relations Board, shall not be construed as psychological abuse.

8 28-61-9. Procedure.

9 (a) Every employer shall be responsible for taking all reasonable measures to acknowledge,
10 monitor, prevent, discourage, and adequately address incidents of psychological abuse.

11 (b) Within one hundred eighty (180) days of the effective date of this chapter, every 12 employer shall:

13 (1) Adopt and implement preventive and detective internal policies against psychological
14 abuse, including anti-retaliation policies, consistent with this chapter. Policies should include a 15 broad reporting procedure, including formal and informal reporting methods.

16 (2) Notify and train all managers, supervisors, and other representative employees as to 17 handling complaints of psychologically abusive behavior, including the employer's reporting
18 provisions and policies to acknowledge, monitor, prevent, discourage and adequately address all 19 such complaints.

20 (3) Post employees' rights under this chapter and employer reporting policies in such a
21 manner that all employees have access, including on the website, bulletin boards, job descriptions,
22 and in applicable promotional materials.

23 (4) Implement and uphold an effective anti-retaliation provision, that guarantees no
24 retaliation against any employee who has opposed any unlawful practice in a complaint under this
25 chapter.

26 (5) Implement an investigation policy for all complaints of psychologically abusive
27 behavior which includes notice provisions for the complainant regarding the status, completion,
28 and outcome of the complaint and imposes a policy of progressive discipline for any employee
29 determined to have engaged in psychologically abusive behavior.

30 (6) Apply evaluation and discipline processes evenly and fairly to all employees.

31 (7) Annually perform an anonymous workplace climate survey, with its results to be 32 annually submitted to the department of labor and training.

33 (8) Report annually the number of employee complaints of abusive behavior, employee
34 disciplines, workers' compensation claims, absenteeism rates, stress leave rates, attrition rates,

1 discrimination complaints, investigation rates, follow up action rates, the workforce gender and
2 racial makeup, and de-identified wage and salary data by protected category to the department of 3 labor and training, who will make this information publicly available, at a minimum under the 4 access to public records act.

5 (c) If the employer proves to have exercised reasonable care to prevent and promptly
6 correct the conduct, such employer shall be held harmless from any claim under the provisions of 7 this chapter.

8 (d) The aggrieved employee shall have the following options to notify the employer of the 9 complaint, without use of the employer's protocol:

10 (1) File a complaint with the department of labor and training (public sector employees), 11 who shall:

12 (i) Evaluate and investigate the conditions described in the complaint; and

13 (ii) Contact the employer in writing and require the employer to respond by a due date with 14 proof that the hazard has been corrected; or make an appointment for a site visit prioritized
15 according to the nature of the hazard; or by phone or visit to the workplace if there is imminent
16 danger and issue fines and/or penalties; or

17 (2) File suit against the employer in the Rhode Island superior court for violation(s) of this 18 chapter.

19 (e) The department of labor and training shall make written violations of this chapter
20 available to the public, per the access to public records act, redacting all private information as to 21 the aggrieved employee, including their name to protect their privacy and not interfere with future
22 job prospects.

23 28-61-10. Employer liability.

24 Any employer that allows, engages in, or promotes psychological abuse, whereby creating 25 a toxic work environment, shall be liable to the affected employee(s).

26 Every employer shall:

27 (1) Be liable for failing to take the appropriate measures to provide employees with a
28 psychologically safe work environment, as outlined in this chapter.

29 (2) Be liable for engaging in any violation of this chapter.

30 (3) Be liable for any damages, including economic, compensatory, and punitive damages,
31 to any employee who has been subjected to work in a toxic work environment, as outlined in this
32 chapter in the scope of their employment unless the employer can demonstrate they have met all 33 elements of affirmative defenses provided in § 28-61-12. An employee is entitled to recover the 34 greater of all actual damages or five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation of this chapter.

1 (4) If not prevailing, be liable for the plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' and witnesses' fees
2 and costs.

3 28-61-11. Scope of the protection.

4 (a) Any person who reports psychological abuse shall be protected by this chapter.

5 (b) No person shall aid, abet, incite, compel, or coerce the doing of an act forbidden under 6 this chapter or to attempt to do so.

7 (c) No employer shall terminate, sanction, mislead, coerce, intimidate, threaten, interfere
8 with, discriminate against, or otherwise retaliate against any person in the opposition of unlawful 9 employment practices or exercise of any right under this chapter including, but not limited to, an
10 employee as to the terms, conditions, compensation, location, benefits, or privileges of employment
11 because the employee or witness offers or attempts to offer, verbally or in writing, any testimony,
12 statement, information, or claim to a labor union, human resources office, employer office,
13 legislative, administrative, or judicial forum, or any other internal or external office or otherwise 14 engages in any other reasonable participation in a claim under this chapter, insofar as such 15 statements constitute a disclosure of privileged information as provided by law.

16 (d) The employee shall show proof of the violation through direct and circumstantial
17 evidence.

18 (e) The employee may bring a prima facie case of violation of the law, by proving they 19 reported an incident of workplace psychological abuse and was subsequently terminated,
20 threatened, or discriminated against in their employment. Once the prima facie case is established, 21 the employer may allege and provide a legitimate and nondiscriminatory ground for the 22 termination. If the employer alleges and provides such grounds, the employee shall show that the 23 grounds alleged by the employer were a mere pretext for termination.

24 28-61-12. Affirmative defense.

25 (a) An employer may establish an affirmative defense to limit damages for psychological 26 abuse under this chapter, where the employer took all steps outlined in this chapter to acknowledge,
27 monitor, prevent, discourage, and adequately address the issues and complaints surrounding 28 allegations of psychological abuse and exercised reasonable care to prevent and promptly correct
29 any violation in this chapter or acted with just cause.

30 (b) Because this chapter requires employers to take all reasonable necessary steps to 31 adequately address complaints of psychological abuse, an employer shall not be exempt from 32 liability if the employer or its representative employees or supervisors knew or should have known
33 of said conduct and failed to acknowledge, monitor, prevent, discourage, or address the allegations
34 of psychological abuse and promptly correct the situation.

1 (c) This defense shall not be available when the employer or its representative employees
2 or supervisors engage in this conduct.

3 28-61-13. Remedies.

4 Complainants, who prove a violation of this chapter, shall be entitled to all remedies
5 necessary to make such complainants whole. Such remedies shall factor in whether a toxic work
6 environment existed and/or whether or not injury resulted:

7 (1) An apology to the complainant employee and mandatory training and/or coaching
8 and/or counseling and/or discipline for violators of this chapter who remain with the employer ;

9 (2) Reinstatement of work;

10 (3) Economic damages for lost wages;

11 (4) Expenses related to treatment related to the psychological abuse including future
12 medical expenses for psychological injury or resulting physical injury;

13 (5) Compensable damages to compensate for the resulting pain and suffering and emotional
14 and psychological damages;

15 (6) Punitive damages to deter future acts of psychological abuse;

16 (7) Injunctive relief whereby the court may enjoin the defendant from engaging in the 17 unlawful employment practice;

18 (8) Public notification of the case outcome, without disclosing the plaintiff's name if 19 desired by the plaintiff;

20 (9) Attorneys' fees to the prevailing plaintiff; and

21 (10) Any other relief deemed appropriate, including restorative measures, including 22 modification of the disciplinary record of the employee and/or organizational training.

23 28-61-14. Statute of limitations.

24 Any person who has a private cause of action, under the provisions of this chapter, shall
25 have a period of three (3) years to file said cause of action, from the last alleged psychologically
26 abusive act, in the Rhode Island superior court.

27 28-61-15. Severability clause.

28 If any clause, paragraph, subparagraph, article, provision, section, or part of this chapter is 29 held to be unconstitutional or void, the holding to such effect shall not affect, impair, or invalidate
30 the remainder of this chapter. The effect of said holding shall be limited solely to the clause,
31 paragraph, subparagraph, article, provision, section, or part thereof thus held to be unconstitutional
32 or void.

33 28-61-16. Conflict with laws.

34 (a) Nothing in this chapter should limit employee rights under any other law including

1 OSHA, laws under state-level OSHA agencies or their equivalent, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act,
2 the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, state EEO laws,
3 the National Labor Relations Act \(NLRA\), and state labor rights laws.

4 \(b\) Nothing in this chapter shall restrict workers from negotiating broader protections via
5 collective bargaining or other concerted activity.

6 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.

=====
LC002724
=====

EXPLANATION
BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL
OF
A N A C T
RELATING TO LABOR AND LABOR RELATIONS -- WORKPLACE PSYCHOLOGICAL
SAFETY ACT

1 This act would provide protection for employees from workplace psychological abuse
2 (bullying), which would require employers to establish, adopt, and implement an anti-workplace
3 bullying policy to address and investigate complaints of workplace psychological abuse. It would 4 also provide a cause of action against employers, who knowingly violate this act and allow,
5 encourage, or ignore workplace bullying, with a variety of remedies including, reinstatement of 6 work, lost wages, medical expenses, and punitive damages. The act would also identify affirmative
7 defenses for an employer, that addressed complaints in accordance with this chapter.

8 This act would take effect upon passage.

=====
LC002724
=====