STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2012

A N A C T

RELATING TO STATE AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT - THE RHODE ISLAND PORT
MARKETING COLLABORATIVE OF 2012

Introduced By: Representatives Ruggiero, Gallison, Chippendale, Tanzi, and DaSilva

Date Introduced: February 16, 2012

Referred To: House Environment and Natural Resources

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Title 42 of the General Laws entitled "STATE AFFAIRS AND
2 GOVERNMENT" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

3 CHAPTER 64.15

4 THE RHODE ISLAND PORT MARKETING COLLABORATIVE OF 2012

5 42-64.15-1. Short title. – This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Rhode 6 Island Port Marketing Collaborative of 2012.”

7 42-64.15-2. Legislative findings. – (a) It is found that our state has a long maritime
8 history which has benefited the public through improved employment opportunities, increased tax
9 revenues, improved logistics services and reduced transportation costs for consumers and 10 businesses.

11 (b) It is further found that some of Rhode Island’s greatest resources exist in its 12 waterfronts and ports, allowing Rhode Island to be competitive on regional, national, and 13 international levels.

14 (c) It is further found that the development and implementation of a statewide port
15 strategy is critical to economic development in the state of Rhode Island.

16 (d) It is further found that a statewide port strategy will help alleviate the substantial and
17 persistent unemployment and underemployment which causes hardship to many of the state’s 18 individuals and families.

1 (e) It is further found and declared that it is the public policy of the state to encourage the
2 expansion and development of the state's harbors, ports and related infrastructure; to foster and
3 improve the handling of waterborne commerce from and to any port of this state and other states
4 and foreign countries; to seek to improve the competitive posture of ports of this state and other
5 states and foreign countries; to seek to improve the competitive posture of ports of this state and
6 to promote a spirit of cooperation among these ports in the interest of the state as a whole; to
7 initiate and further plan for the responsible development and marketing of the ports of this state
8 and to keep the government and citizens of Rhode Island informed as to their present and future
9 requirements.

10 (f) It is further found and declared to be the policy of the state to promote a vigorous and 11 growing maritime economy, to prevent economic stagnation, and to encourage the creation of 12 new job opportunities in order to ameliorate the hazards of unemployment and underemployment,
13 reduce the level of public assistance, increase revenues to the state and its municipalities, and to 14 achieve a thriving and diversified economy.

15 42-64.15-3. Definitions. – When used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the 16 following meanings:

17 (1) "Collaborative" means the Rhode Island port marketing collaborative established
