A N A C T

RELATING TO CRIMINAL OFFENSES - FRAUD AND FALSE DEALING

Introduced By: Senators Pichardo, Ruggerio, Miller, Tassoni, and Metts

Date Introduced: February 01, 2012

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 11-18 of the General Laws entitled "Fraud and False Dealing" is
2 hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

3           11-18-34. Residential mortgage fraud. -- (a) A person commits residential mortgage
4 fraud when, with the intent to defraud, such person:

5           (1) Knowingly makes any material written misstatement or misrepresentation or material
6 omission during the mortgage lending process with the intention that a mortgage lender, a 7 borrower, or any other person that is involved in the mortgage lending process will rely on such
8 written misstatement, misrepresentation or omission;

9           (2) Knowingly uses or facilitates the use of any written misstatement or misrepresentation
10 or material omission during the mortgage lending process with the intention that a mortgage
11 lender, a borrower or any other person that is involved in the mortgage lending process relies on 12 it;

13           (3) Receives or attempts to receive proceeds or any other funds in connection with a
14 residential mortgage lending transaction that the person knew or should have known resulted 15 from an act or acts constituting residential mortgage fraud;

16           (4) Conspires with or solicits another to engage in an act or acts constituting residential 17 mortgage fraud; or

18           (5) Files or causes to be filed with a city or town clerk any document involved in 19 mortgage lending process that the person knows to contain a deliberate written misstatement,

1 misrepresentation or omission.

2 (b) Any person who violates subsection (a) shall be subject to the following penalties:

3 (1) Any person who commits an offense under subsection (a) shall be guilty of a felony
4 subject to imprisonment for not more than five (5) years, a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000),
5 or both.

6 (2) Any person who engages or participates in a pattern of residential mortgage fraud or a
7 conspiracy or endeavor to engage or participate in a pattern of residential mortgage fraud shall be
8 guilty of a felony subject to imprisonment for not more than twenty (20) years, a fine of one
9 hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or both.

10 (3) Any person who commits an offense and knew or had reason to know that the victim
11 was vulnerable due to age, disability, infirmity, reduced physical or mental capacity, national 12 origin or ancestry shall be guilty of a felony subject to imprisonment for not more than fifteen 13 (15) years, a fine of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), or both.

14 (4) The court shall order restitution to any victim.

15 (5) In addition to any criminal penalties above, any person found in violation of this
16 section shall forfeit anything of value received by him or her in the course of such violation.
17 Action for recovery of these amounts shall be brought in the superior court of any county in 18 which any element of the crime occurred. The actions shall be brought in the name of the state by 19 the attorney general for the benefit and use of the state.

20 (c) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply;

21 (1) "Mortgage lending process" means the process through which a person seeks or 22 obtains a residential mortgage loan including, but not limited to, solicitation, application, or 23 origination, negotiation of terms, real estate appraisals, third-party provider services,
24 underwriting, signing and closing, and funding of the loan. Documents involved in the mortgage
25 lending process include, but are not limited to, uniform residential loan applications or other loan
26 applications; appraisal reports; HUD-1 settlement statements; verifications or certifications
27 regarding occupancy intentions; supporting personal documentation for loan applications such as
28 W-2 forms, verifications of income and employment, bank statement, tax returns, and payroll
29 stubs; and any required disclosures.

30 (2) "Pattern of residential mortgage fraud" means one or more written misstatements,
31 misrepresentations, or omissions made during the mortgage lending process that involve two (2)
32 or more residential properties, which have the same or similar intents, results, accomplices,
33 victims, or methods of commission or otherwise are interrelated by distinguishing characteristics.

34 (3) "Person" means a individual, corporation, company, limited liability company,

1 partnership, trustee, association, or any other entity.

2 (4) "Residential mortgage loan" means a loan or agreement to extend credit made to a
3 person, which loan is secured by a deed to secure debt, security deed, mortgage, security interest,
4 deed of trust, or other document representing a security interest or lien upon any interest in a one-
5 to-four (4) family residential property including the renewal or refinancing of any such loan.

6 (5) "Victim" means a person experienced personal loss, including, but not limited to 7 monetary loss, due to a violation in subsection (a).

8 (d) It shall be sufficient in any prosecution for residential mortgage fraud to show that the 9 party accused did the act with the intent to defraud. It shall be unnecessary to show that any 10 particular person was harmed financially in the transaction or that the person to whom the 11 deliberate written misstatement, misrepresentation or omission was made relied upon the written 12 misstatement, misrepresentation or omission.

13 SECTION 2. Section 12-12-17 of the General Laws in Chapter 12-12 entitled
14 "Indictments, Informations and Complaints" is hereby amended to read as follows:
