

1 can provide adequate information for license-issuance intended to protect the riding public.

2 WHEREAS, The Rhode Island passenger carrier industry deserves a threshold level of 3 quality and safety standards that do not encourage the employment or harboring of drivers with 4 out-of-state disqualifying criminal records who otherwise would be disqualified to drive had the 5 same criminal record originated in-state.

6 39-14.2-2. Definitions. -- As used in this chapter:

7 (1) "Conviction" means, in addition to judgments of conviction entered by a court 8 subsequent to a finding of guilty or a plea of guilty, those instances where the defendant has 9 entered a plea of nolo contendere, regardless of the disposition of sentence, including a sentence
10 of probation, and those instances where a defendant has entered into a deferred sentence 11 agreement with the attorney general.

12 (2) "Division" means the Rhode Island division of public utilities and carriers.

13 (3) "Disqualifying information" means information produced by a criminal records check 14 pertaining to conviction, for the following crimes will result in a letter to the applicant and the 15 division disqualifying the applicant from issuance of a HACKNEY OPERATOR'S LICENSE:
16 Murder, voluntary manslaughter, involuntary manslaughter, first degree sexual assault, second 17 degree sexual assault, third degree sexual assault, first degree child molestation sexual assault, 18 second degree child molestation sexual assault, assault on persons sixty (60) years of age or older, 19 assault with intent to commit specified felonies (murder, robbery, rape, burglary, or the 20 abominable and detestable crime against nature) felony assault, burglary, breaking and entering, 21 first degree arson, robbery, felony drug offenses, larceny or driving under the influence of liquor 22 or drugs.

23 (4) "Driver" means a person required to hold a hackney operator's license who delivers 24 passengers for hire as contemplated in Rhode Island general laws chapters 14 and 14.1 of title 39.

25 (5) "Applicant" means any individual seeking a hackney operator's license for the first 26 time or a renewal of one previously issued by the division.

27 (6) "Hackney operator's license" means a special license, commonly referred to as a "blue 28 card" issued by the division, authorizing the holder thereof to transport passengers in a taxicab, 29 limited public motor vehicle or public motor vehicle in accordance with Rhode Island general 30 laws section 39-14-20 or 39-14.1-8.

31 39-14.2-3. Powers of division. -- The division may prescribe any rules and regulations or 32 policy that it deems proper to foster the intent of this chapter and to assure safe passenger service 33 to the public.

34 39-14.2-4. National criminal records check. -- (a) Starting on September 1, 2013, all

1 first-time applicants for a division-issued hackney operator's license shall undergo a one-time
2 national criminal records check. Individuals who possess an active division-issued hackney
3 operator's license on September 1, 2013, shall undergo a one-time national criminal records check
4 at the time they next seek to renew their hackney operator's license. Any former hackney operator 5 licensee seeking to renew or reactivate a hackney operator's license that has been expired for 6 more than twelve (12) months shall be treated as a first-time applicant and shall undergo a one-7 time national criminal records check.

8 (b) The person shall apply to the bureau of criminal identification (BCI), department of 9 attorney general, state police or local police department where he or she resides, for a national 10 criminal records check. Fingerprinting shall be required. Upon the discovery of any disqualifying 11 information, the bureau of criminal identification, state police or local police department shall 12 inform the applicant in writing of the nature of the disqualifying information and, without 13 disclosing the nature of the disqualifying information will notify the division in writing that 14 disqualifying information has been discovered.

15 (c) In those situations in which no disqualifying information has been found, the bureau 16 of criminal identification, state police or local police department shall inform the applicant and 17 the division in writing of this fact.

18 (d) The division shall maintain on file evidence that criminal records checks have been 19 initiated on all applicants after September 1, 2013 and the results of the checks.

20 (e) The applicant shall be responsible for the costs of the national criminal records check.
21 However, any applicant required to provide a national criminal background check to the division 22 shall not be required to provide a Rhode Island statewide criminal background check during the 23 same application process.

24 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on September 1, 2013.
