AN ACT

RELATING TO DELINQUENT AND DEPENDENT CHILDREN - PROCEEDINGS IN FAMILY COURT

Introduced By: Senator Michael J. McCaffrey

Date Introduced: February 13, 2013

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14-1-33 of the General Laws in Chapter 14-1 entitled "Proceedings in Family Court" is hereby amended to read as follows:

14-1-33. Supervision of child placed on probation. -- (a) Whenever the court places a child on probation, the court may do so upon any terms and conditions, not inconsistent with law, that the court may deem best for the welfare of the child, but unless otherwise ordered by the court, a probation counselor may make any arrangements for the care of the child that he or she may deem best for its welfare, and may release the child in the care of its parent, guardian, or other lawful custodian, or in the care of any relative of the child. If a child has been placed on probation as provided in this chapter, the probation counselor may at any time before the discharge of the child take the child before the court without a warrant, or the court may issue a warrant to bring the child before the family court. When the child is before the court, the court may make any disposition of the case which it might have made before the child was placed on probation, or may continue or extend the period of probation.

(b) At the end of the probation period of a child, the probation counselor shall make a report to the court, in writing, as to the conduct of the child during that period.

(c) If, at any time during a child's probationary term, the child is charged with an additional and subsequent offense, the probation counselor shall forthwith file a petition in the family court alleging that the child has violated probation.

- 1 (d) If, at any time during a child's probationary term the child violates a condition of
- 2 probation in a manner that does not constitute an offense, the probation counselor may file a
- 3 petition in the family court alleging that the child has violated probation.
- 4 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
