1           WHEREAS, Farming is not only a basic necessity for all human life, but it is also a proud 2 tradition and an essential component in our state's economy; and

3           WHEREAS, Thomas Jefferson once said, "Agriculture is our wisest pursuit, because it
4 will in the end contribute most to real wealth, good morals, and happiness." And while members

6 in family heritage and have achieved abundant success in the business of farming; and

7           WHEREAS, In 1914, George Wright moved his family to a 90-acre parcel of land in 8 North Smithfield that he had purchased in 1896. Over the course of the next century, four 9 generations of the Wright Family have been caring for the land and building a thriving business 10 known today as Wright's Dairy Farm & Bakery; and

11           WHEREAS, Adopting a business philosophy of sound decision making mixed with a 12 dollop of calculated risk taking and a large measure of customer input has produced a business 13 that has morphed, expanded, and ultimately grown more successful over the years; and

14           WHEREAS, Today, Wright's Farm employs 70 local bakers, dairy plant workers, and 15 grounds hands. The business produces several varieties of milk and ice cream, as well as a 16 cornucopia of delicious baked goods. The farm has become such a traditional stop for 17 generations of families that the history of the farm has now been documented in a book entitled, 18 "Wright's Dairy Farm: History in Four Voices"; and

19           WHEREAS, The economic vitality of our state depends and relies on the strength of 20 small businesses such as the Wright's Dairy Farm who sagaciously and fruitfully carry on the

1 noble tradition of farming in our state; now, therefore be it
