STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2014

A N A C T

RELATING TO STATE AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT - RHODE ISLAND PREVENTION, HEALTH PROMOTION, AND PUBLIC HEALTH COUNCIL

Introduced By: Representatives Naughton, E Coderre, Kennedy, Ackerman, and Tanzi

Date Introduced: February 06, 2014

Referred To: House Health, Education & Welfare

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Title 42 of the General Laws entitled "STATE AFFAIRS AND
2 GOVERNMENT" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

3 CHAPTER 18.2

4 RHODE ISLAND PREVENTION, HEALTH PROMOTION AND PUBLIC HEALTH

5 COUNCIL

6 42-18.2-1. Establishment of Council. – There is hereby established a Rhode Island
7 prevention, health promotion, and public health council (hereafter referred to as “the council”).

8 The director of health shall appoint all council, subcommittee, and advisory committee members.

9 The department of health shall grant to the council reasonable access to appropriate staff.

10 42-18.2-2. Composition of the Council. – (a) The council shall have twenty-one (21)
11 members appointed by the director of the department of health including at least one member
12 representing each of the following areas: state government, environment issues, education issues,
13 workplace health promotion, health care facilities, mass media communications, municipal
14 government affairs, and social service agencies.

15 (b) Nine (9) members shall constitute a quorum.

16 (c) Members from state government shall serve in an ex officio capacity as long as they
17 are eligible.

18 (d) The council may establish subcommittees and advisory bodies as deemed necessary

1 by the members.

2 42-18.2-3. Meetings of the council. – The council shall meet at the call of the chair, no
3 less than quarterly.

4 42-18.2-4. Purpose and Duties. – The council shall:

5 (1) Provide coordination and leadership at the state level, and among all state departments
6 and agencies, with respect to prevention, wellness and health promotion practices, the public
7 health system, and integrative health care in Rhode Island;

8 (2) Develop a statewide prevention, health promotion, public health, and integrative
9 health care strategy that incorporates the most effective and achievable means of improving the
10 health status of Rhode Islanders and reducing the incidence of preventable illness and disability
11 across the state;

12 (3) Provide recommendations to the governor and the general assembly concerning the 13 most pressing health issues confronting the state and changes in state policy to achieve wellness,
14 health promotion, and public health goals, including the reduction of tobacco use, sedentary
15 behavior, and poor nutrition;

16 (4) Consider and propose evidence-based models, policies, and innovative approaches for 17 the promotion of transformative models of prevention, integrative health, and public health on 18 individual and community levels across the state;

19 (5) Submit annual reports required under section 6 of this chapter;

20 (6) Carry out other activities determined appropriate by the governor or as requested by 21 the general assembly; and

22 (7) Make available to the public all information about activities of the council.

23 42-18.2-5. Rhode Island Preventative Strategy. – Not later than one year after the date
24 of enactment of this chapter, the chairperson, in consultation with the council, shall develop and
25 make public a Rhode Island prevention, health promotion and public health strategy, and shall 26 review and revise such strategy periodically. Such strategy shall:

27 (1) Set specific goals and objectives for improving the health of Rhode Island through
28 prevention, health promotion, and public health programs, consistent with ongoing goal setting
29 efforts conducted by specific agencies;

30 (2) Establish specific and measurable actions and timelines to carry out the strategy, and
31 determine accountability for meeting those timelines, within and across state departments and 32 agencies; and

33 (3) Make recommendations to improve staff efforts relating to prevention, health
34 promotion, public health, and integrative health care practices to ensure state efforts are

1 consistent with available standards and evidence.

2 42-18.2-6. Annual Report. – (a) Not later than January 1, 2016, and annually thereafter,
3 the council shall submit to the governor and the general assembly, a report that:

4 (1) Describes the activities and efforts on prevention, health promotion, and public health
5 and activities to develop and/or revise the state prevention strategy conducted by the council
6 during the period for which the report is prepared;

7 (2) Describes the progress in meeting specific prevention, health promotion, and public
8 health goals defined in the strategy and further describes corrective actions recommended by the 9 council and taken by relevant agencies and organizations to meet these goals;

10 (3) Contains a list of state priorities on health promotion and disease prevention to 11 address lifestyle behavior modification (smoking cessation, proper nutrition, appropriate exercise, 12 mental health, behavioral health, substance use disorder, and domestic violence screenings) and
13 the prevention measures for the five (5) leading disease killers in Rhode Island; and

14 (4) Contains specific science-based initiatives to achieve the measurable goals of the 15 prevention strategy regarding nutrition, exercise, and smoking cessation, and targeting the five (5)
16 leading disease killers in Rhode Island.

17 (b) The director of health shall address a joint session of the general assembly during the
18 month of January or February of each year, at the invitation of the speaker of the house, to present
19 the key findings and recommendations of the annual report.

20 42-18.2-7. Applicability of other laws. – The council, as well as any subcommittees or 21 advisory bodies it may establish, shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 38-2, access to 22 public records act, and chapter 42-46, open meetings act.

23 42-18.2-8. Severability. – If any provision of this chapter or the application of this
24 chapter to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other
25 provisions or applications of the chapter, which can be given effect without the invalid provision
26 or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable.

27 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
