CREATING A SPECIAL LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION TO BE KNOWN AS "THE 1696 HISTORICAL COMMISSION" OF RHODE ISLAND AND THE UNITED STATES

Introduced By: Representatives Almeida, Williams, Diaz, Shekarchi, and Abney

Date Introduced: February 13, 2014

Referred To: House Health, Education & Welfare

1           WHEREAS, Rhode Island holds a unique place in history with the establishment of its 2 Royal Charter in July 1663, that marked the first time that a sovereign leader signed a charter
3 guaranteeing that individuals within a society were free to practice the religion of their choice 4 without any interference from the government; and

5           WHEREAS, This progressive act during the early settlement of the Colony of Rhode 6 Island would attract from across the world all manner of religious, ethnic and racial groups to 7 Rhode Island shores bringing with them their expertise in maritime trade and commerce; and

8           WHEREAS, By the 18th century Rhode Island was one of Colonial America's leading 9 maritime centers; and

10           WHEREAS, As Rhode Island became the first American Colony to declare its 11 independence from Great Britain on May 4, 1776, it was also at the same time in history one of 12 the largest African trade and importation centers; and

13           WHEREAS, The earliest history and people of Rhode Island has included persons of 14 African heritage who, even though they arrived as chattel property, would soon rise up to 15 establish many of America's earliest African American civic, religious, cultural and educational 16 enterprises; and

17           WHEREAS, The history of the African slave trade, the early arrival of persons of African 18 heritage to the state, and the triumphs of African-Americans and their significant contributions to 19 the development of this state and country is the proper concern of all people, particularly students

1 enrolled in the schools of the State of Rhode Island; now, therefore be it

2           RESOLVED, That a special legislative commission, to be known as "The 1696 Historical 3 Commission," so named in honor of the first documented group of enslaved Africans to arrive in 4 Rhode Island at Newport in 1696 on the brig Seaflower, be and the same is hereby created
5 consisting of fifteen (15) members: one of whom shall be the Secretary of State, or designee; one 6 of whom shall be the Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education, or designee; one of 7 whom shall be the Executive Director of the Rhode Island Historical Preservation and Heritage 8 Commission, or designee; and twelve (12) of whom shall be public members, four (4) of whom 9 shall be appointed by the President of the Senate, four (4) of whom shall be appointed by the 10 Speaker of the House, and four (4) of whom shall be appointed by the Governor.

11           The public members shall be residents of this state, chosen with due regard to broad 12 geographic representation and ethnic diversity, who have an interest in the history of Rhode 13 Island, the African slave trade and slavery in Rhode Island and America and the contributions of 14 African-Americans to our society. Each public member of the commission shall serve for a term
15 of two (2) years. A vacancy occurring other than by expiration of term shall be filled in the same 16 manner as the original appointment but for the unexpired term only.

17           The purpose of said commission shall be to develop a comprehensive African American 18 history curriculum for all K-12 public schools in Rhode Island. Said curriculum should include, 19 but not be limited to, the history of persons of African heritage, including the history of African 20 peoples before the political conflicts that led to the development of slavery, the passage to 21 America and Rhode Island, the enslavement experience in America and Rhode Island, abolition, 22 and the contributions of Africans to America and Rhode Island.

23           The commission shall develop, in consultation with the Department of Education, 24 curriculum guidelines for the teaching of information on the African slave trade, slavery in 25 America and Rhode Island, the vestiges of slavery in this country and state, and the contributions
26 of African-Americans to our country and state.

27           The commission shall make recommendations on facilitating the inclusion of the history 28 of persons of African heritage, including the history of African peoples before the political 29 conflicts that led to the development of slavery, the passage to America and Rhode Island, the 30 enslavement experience in Rhode Island and America, abolition, and the contributions of African 31 Americans to Rhode Island and America and any related special programs in the educational 32 system of the state, with the goal of funding and implementing such curriculum for the start of the 33 September, 2016 K-12 public school year.

34           Every local board of education is requested to incorporate the information developed by

1 the commission in an appropriate place in the curriculum of elementary and secondary school 2 students in the state; and

3 On facilitating the inclusion of the history of persons of African heritage, including the 4 history of African peoples before the political conflicts that led to the development of slavery, the 5 passage to America and Rhode Island, the enslavement experience in Rhode Island and America, 6 abolition, and the contributions of African-Americans to Rhode Island and America and any 7 related special programs in the educational system of the state, with the goal of funding and 8 implementing such curriculum for the start of the September, 2016 K-12 public school year.

9 The Secretary of State, or designee, shall serve as the chair and the Commissioner of 10 Education, or designee, shall serve as the vice-chair of the commission. The presence of a 11 majority of the authorized membership of the commission shall be required for the conduct of 12 official business.

13 The membership of said commission shall receive no compensation for their services.

14 The Rhode Island Historical Preservation and Heritage Commission and Rhode Island
15 Department of Education shall provide staff support for the Commission.

16 All departments and agencies of the state shall furnish such advice and information, 17 documentary and otherwise, to said commission and its agents as is deemed necessary or 18 desirable by the commission to facilitate the purposes of this resolution.

19 The commission is authorized to prepare all reports by January 1, 2015 for the Governor 20 and the Legislature regarding its findings and recommendations on facilitating the inclusion of 21 the history of persons of African heritage, including the history of African peoples before the 22 political conflicts that led to the development of slavery, the passage to America and Rhode 23 Island, the enslavement experience in Rhode Island and America, abolition, and the contributions 24 of African-Americans to Rhode Island and America and any related special programs in the 25 educational system of the State, with the goal of funding and implementing such curriculum for 26 the start of the September, 2016 K-12 public school year.

27 The Joint Committee on Legislative Services is hereby authorized and directed to provide 28 suitable quarters for said commission; and be it further

29 RESOLVED, That the commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the 30 General Assembly and the Governor no later than January 6, 2015, and said commission shall 31 expire on May 6, 2015.
