STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2014

HOUSE RESOLUTION

RESPECTFULLY REQUESTING CONGRESS TO RE-ENACT PROVISIONS OF THE GLASS-STEAGALL BANKING ACT

Introduced By: Representative Gregg Amore

Date Introduced: February 27, 2014

Referred To: House Corporations

(by request)

1           WHEREAS, From 1933 to 1999, the Federal Building Banking Act of 1933, known as 2 the Glass-Steagall Act, worked effectively to protect the public interest by separating the 3 functions of commercial banking from investment banking, insurance, and securities trading; and

4           WHEREAS, The Glass-Steagall Act was repealed in 1999, expanding the ability of 5 financial entities to exploit the financial system for their own gain in disregard of the public 6 interest, and contributing to the greatest speculative bubble and subsequent worldwide economic 7 distress since the Great Depression; and

8           WHEREAS, Many of the financial services entities were saved by the United States 9 Treasury at a cost of billions of dollars to American taxpayers; and

10          WHEREAS, The Federal Reserve continues the bail-out process today, issuing $85
11 billion per month in cash throughout 2013 to the "too big to fail" Wall Street banks, to buy their 12 devalued derivatives securities; and these banks have used the money to increase their speculation
13 in financial derivatives, and have decreased lending to Main Street by $700 billion since 2008; 14 and

15          WHEREAS, Within the thousands of pages of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform Act, 16 there are no prohibitions preventing "too big to fail" financial services organizations from 17 investing in or undertaking substantial risks in hundreds of trillions of dollars of derivative 18 contracts; and

19          WHEREAS, A new set of financial bubbles are in full swing, and the American taxpayers

1 are at renewed risk of being forced to cover for losses incurred by derivatives gambling of the 2 financial services conglomerates; and

3 WHEREAS, Re-enactment of the Glass-Steagall provisions would protect the public 4 from these bail-out costs, and free credit resources to be directed into large-scale infrastructure 5 and other physical economic investments, with attendant restoration of skilled employment and 6 the tax base; and

7 WHEREAS, A bi-partisan resolution urging the United States Congress to re-enact the 8 Glass-Steagall banking provisions have been introduced into 26 state legislatures as of December 9 2013, and these resolutions have passed in four states thus far; and

10 WHEREAS, In the United States House of Representatives, Congresswoman Marcy 11 Kaptur has introduced House Resolution 129, known as the Return to Prudent Banking Act of 12 2013, to reinstate the provisions of the Glass-Steagall Act, with 80 bipartisan cosponsors as of 13 December of 2013; and Representatives Walter Jones and John Tierney have introduced House 14 Resolution 3711, the "21st Century Glass-Steagall Act of 2013"; and

15 WHEREAS, In the United States Senate, Senator Tom Harkin has introduced Senate Bill
16 985 to restore Glass-Steagall provisions; and Senators Elizabeth Warren, John McCain, Maria
17 Cantwell and Angus King have introduced Senate Bill 1285, the "21st Century Glass-Steagall Act
18 of 2013", with ten co-sponsors as of December of 2013; now, therefore be it

19 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island and 20 Providence Plantations urges the United States Congress and the President of the United States to 21 enact Glass-Steagall inspired legislation currently before Congress, and prohibit commercial 22 banks and bank holding companies from investing in stocks, underwriting securities, or investing 23 in or acting as guarantors to derivatives transactions; and be it further

24 RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution shall be sent to the President of the United 25 States, to the presiding officers of each house of Congress, and to each member of the State of 26 Rhode Island Congressional Delegation.
