STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2014

HOUSE RESOLUTION

DECLARING TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 2014, AS "NO MORE DAY" IN THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

Introduced By: Representatives Fox, E Coderre, Blazejewski, Ruggiero, and Ackerman

Date Introduced: March 11, 2014

Referred To: House read and passed

1 WHEREAS, The State of Rhode Island is home to an estimated 205,000 victims, both 2 male and female, who, during their lifetimes, experience rape, physical violence, and/or stalking 3 by an intimate partner; and

4 WHEREAS, Domestic violence in Rhode Island poses a major public health crisis, not 5 only for the significant others who fall victim to these horrific acts, but also for the children who 6 suffer through the experience; and

7 WHEREAS, In 2011, Rhode Island police officers responded to 7,883 domestic violence 8 related calls, and children were present in almost 2,100 of these incidents; and

9 WHEREAS, All too often, there are many more of these heinous crimes that don't get 10 reported because of victims' fear, a threat from the guilty spouse, or, in some cases, because of 11 death resulting from the crime; and

12 WHEREAS, "NO MORE Day" serves as a symbol of commitment to ending domestic 13 violence and sexual assault in Rhode Island and across the nation; and

14 WHEREAS, "NO MORE Day" will also serve as a national symbol to bring awareness to 15 issues of domestic violence and sexual assault that all too often get overlooked; now, therefore be 16 it

17 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island and 18 Providence Plantations hereby recognizes March 11, 2014, as "NO MORE Day," a day that will 19 be known as the nation's call to end domestic violence and sexual assault; and be it further

1 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 2 submit a duly certified copy of this resolution to the Rhode Island Coalition Against Domestic 3 Violence.
