16 duty to protect the confidential information of a buyer customer or tenant customer involved in a

22 representative in the same transaction, the principal broker or his or her designee shall act in a 28 client in a transaction shall have the duty to protect the client's confidential information.

29 (f) All other affiliated licensees of the principal broker not appointed as a designated 33 any duties owed to the client.

34 (h) An appointment of a designated, client representative by a principal broker or his or 4 client or tenant client and landlord client in the same transaction only as a neutral dual facilitator.

9 tenant and landlord in all future, separate transactions where there is no relationship with the 10 other party.

11 (c) A licensee may be a neutral dual facilitator only after he or she has obtained the 12 informed, written consent of his or her principal broker and all parties involved in the transaction 13 before presenting an offer to a seller client on behalf of a buyer client or to a landlord client on 14 behalf of a tenant client. Such consent shall specifically inform all parties to the transaction of the 15 following:

17 neutral as to any conflicting interests between the parties to the transaction;

18 (2) A dual facilitator shall owe a duty to protect the confidential information of all

24 (iii) If such disclosure is intended to prevent illegal conduct; or 25 (iv) If such disclosure is necessary to prosecute a claim against a person represented or to 26 defend a claim against the licensee. The duty to protect confidential information shall continue 27 after the completion of the transaction; and

28 (4) If a comparative market analysis was prepared for a seller client or a buyer client and 29 a dual facilitation situation subsequently arises, the dual facilitator may only provide the 30 comparative market analysis to the other party with the prior consent of the party for whom it was 31 initially prepared. A dual facilitator shall not be able to prepare a comparative market analysis for 32 either party after a dual facilitation situation arises as it may adversely affect one party's 33 bargaining position relative to the other party.

34 In the event that either the seller client or buyer client in the case of a sale of property, or

1 the landlord client and the tenant client in the case of a rental of property, does not consent to dual 2 facilitation, then the principal broker or his or her designee, may, with the consent of the 3 party(ies) withholding consent designate another licensee to represent one of the parties as a 4 designated client representative.

5 In the event that an affiliated licensee is acting as a dual facilitator, the principal broker 6 or his or her designee shall act as a transaction coordinator in the transaction and shall protect the 7 parties' confidential information. In the event that the clients of a principal broker consent to his 8 or her acting as a disclosed dual facilitator, the principal broker may also oversee the transaction 9 as a transaction coordinator.

8 information; and (iii) properly account for funds;

9 (9) A statement that all affiliated licensees not appointed as a designated client 10 representative for the client may represent another party in a transaction with conflicting interests;

11 (10) An explanation of the potential conflicts of interest that exist if a licensee acts for 12 more than one party in the same transaction;

13 (11) A statement that a principal broker and his or her affiliated licensees must disclose 14 their relationship as a designated client representative, transaction facilitator, or transaction 15 coordinator to the buyer, seller, tenant, or landlord in any transaction;

3 or transmitted by wire or through the air by radio or television, onto any article; or 4 (3) Sell, distribute, circulate, offer for sale, distribution, or circulation, possess for the 5 purpose of sale, distribution, or circulation, or cause to be sold, distributed, circulated, offered for 6 sale, distribution, or circulation, or possessed for sale, distribution, or circulation, any article on 7 which sounds or performances have been transferred without the consent of the person who owns 8 the master article from which the sounds are derived or the right to record the performance.

9 (c) It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or association to sell, 10 distribute, circulate, offer for sale, distribution, or circulation or possess for the purposes of sale, 11 distribution, or circulation, any article on which sounds or images have been transferred unless 12 the article bears the actual name and address of the transferor of the sounds in a prominent place 13 on its outside face or package.

14 (d) This section does not apply to any person who transfers or causes to be transferred 15 any sounds or images intended for, or in connection with, radio or television broadcast 16 transmission or related uses; for archival purposes or solely for the personal use of the person 17 transferring or causing the transfer and without any compensation being derived by the person 18 from the transfer.

19 (e) Every person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a felony and:

20 (1) For the first offense is punishable by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars 21 ($5,000) or by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than six (6) years, or by both fine 22 and imprisonment.

23 (2) For a subsequent offense is punishable by a fine of not more than five thousand 24 dollars ($5,000) or by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than ten (10) years, or by 25 both fine and imprisonment.

26 (3) The court in its judgment of conviction may order the forfeiture and destruction or 27 other disposition of all infringing articles and all implements, devices, and equipment used in the 28 manufacture of the infringing articles.

29 6-13.1-17. Contracts -- Provision to sell real estate. -- It is unlawful for any person, 30 firm, partnership, corporation, or association to provide in any contract for the purchase of 31 consumer goods or documents related to them; a provision allowing the seller the power to sell or 32 attach real estate for default; without first obtaining an order by a court exercising proper 33 jurisdiction of the subject matter.

34 6-13.1-20. Credit reports -- Definitions. -- As used in this chapter:

1 (1) "Credit bureau" means any entity or person ~~which~~ who or that, for monetary fees, 2 dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in whole or in part in the practice of 3 assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the 4 purpose of furnishing credit reports to third parties;

5 (2) (i) "Credit report" means any written, oral, or other communication of any 6 information by a credit bureau bearing on a consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, or 7 credit capacity, ~~which~~ that is used or expected to be used or collected in whole or in part for the 8 purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the consumer's eligibility for:

9 (A) Credit or insurance to be used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes;

10 (B) Employment purposes; or 11 (C) Other purposes authorized under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C.

12 section 1681 et seq.

13 (ii) "Credit report" does not include:

14 (A) Any report containing information solely as to transactions or experiences between 15 the consumer and the person making the report;

16 (B) Any authorization or approval of a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly 17 by the issuer of a credit card or similar device;

18 (C) Any report in which a person who has been requested by a third party to make a 19 specific extension of credit directly or indirectly to a consumer conveys his or her decision with 20 respect to that request, if the third party advises the consumer of the name and address of the 21 person to whom the request was made and the person makes the disclosures to the consumer 22 required under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. section 1681 et seq.; or

23 (D) Any report containing information solely on a consumer's character, general 24 reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living ~~which~~ that is obtained through personal 25 interviews with neighbors, friends, or associates of the consumer reported on, or with others with 26 whom he or she is acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning those items of 27 information, only if the report is not used in granting, extending, or decreasing credit.

28 6-13.1-21. Credit reports -- Notice to individual -- Requirements of users of credit
29 reports. -- (a) No person or business shall request a credit report in connection with a consumer's 30 application for credit, employment, or insurance unless a consumer is first informed that a credit 31 report may be requested in connection with the application.

32 (b) Whenever credit or insurance for personal, family, ~~or~~ household purposes, or 33 employment, involving a consumer is denied or the charge for that credit or insurance is increased 34 either wholly or partly because of information contained in a credit report from a credit bureau,

1 the user of the credit report shall advise the consumer against whom the adverse action has been 2 taken and supply the name and address of the credit bureau making the report.

3 6-13.1-22. Access to credit reports. -- Any consumer who requests disclosure of his or 4 her credit file from a credit bureau shall be entitled to have mailed to the consumer; a copy of the 5 information in the files of the credit bureau that pertains to the consumer at the time of the 6 consumer's request for disclosure within four (4) working days of the request. The credit bureau 7 may impose a reasonable charge for the report, but that charge shall not exceed eight dollars 8 ($8.00) per report. The maximum charge for the report may be raised annually not to exceed the 9 increase in the Consumer Price Index (CPI). The copy shall be furnished without charge if the 10 request for a copy of the report is the result of a consumer being notified that adverse action has 11 been taken on a credit application based on the credit report, provided the request for the report is 12 made within sixty (60) days of receipt of the notice.

13 6-13.1-23. Disputed credit report. -- (a) If the completeness or accuracy of any item of 14 information contained in a consumer's file is disputed by that consumer, and the dispute is 15 directly conveyed to the credit bureau by the consumer, the credit bureau shall within thirty (30) 16 calendar days reinvestigate the current status of that information unless it has reasonable grounds 17 to believe that the dispute by the consumer is frivolous or irrelevant. If after the reinvestigation 18 that information is found to be inaccurate or can no longer be verified, the credit bureau shall 19 promptly delete that information. The presence of contradictory information in the consumer's file 20 does not in and of itself constitute reasonable grounds for believing the dispute is frivolous or 21 irrelevant.

22 (b) If the reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute, the consumer may file a brief 23 statement stating the nature of the dispute. The credit bureau may limit statements of dispute to 24 not more than one hundred (100) words if it provides the consumer with assistance in writing a 25 clear summary of the dispute.

26 (c) Whenever a statement of dispute is filed, unless there is reasonable grounds to 27 believe that it is frivolous or irrelevant, the credit bureau shall, in any subsequent consumer report 28 containing the information in question, clearly note that it is disputed by the consumer and 29 provide either the consumer's statement or a clear and accurate codification or summary of that 30 statement.

31 (d) Following any deletion or correction of information ~~which~~ that is found to be 32 inaccurate or whose accuracy can no longer be verified or any notation as to disputed 33 information, the credit bureau shall properly furnish a copy of the corrected credit report to the 34 consumer at no charge, and at the request of the consumer, furnish a copy of the corrected report

1 to any person specifically designated by the consumer who has within two (2) years prior thereto 2 received a credit report for employment purposes, or within six (6) months received a credit 3 report for any other purpose, ~~which~~ that contained the deleted, corrected, or disputed information.
4 The credit bureau shall clearly and conspicuously disclose to the consumer his rights to make that 5 request. The disclosure shall be made at or prior to the time the information is deleted or the 6 consumer's statement regarding the disputed information is received.

7 6-13.1-24. Registration with secretary of state. -- Any credit bureau doing business in 8 this state shall immediately register in the office of the secretary of state and shall state its 9 corporate or company name; agent for service of process; business address; and phone number.
10 Any credit bureau shall notify the office of secretary of state, in writing, of any change in name, 11 agent, address, or telephone number within thirty (30) days of the change.

12 6-13.1-25. Penalties. -- A violation of ~~section §§~~ 6-13.1-21, 6-13.1-22 or 6-13.1-23 shall 13 constitute a deceptive trade practice for enforcement purposes. Any credit bureau ~~which~~ that 14 negligently fails to comply with the requirements imposed under this chapter with respect to any 15 consumer and ~~which~~ that does not achieve compliance within three (3) working days of being 16 notified of its noncompliance by the consumer is liable to that consumer in an amount equal to 17 the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) per day for each day of noncompliance, beginning on the fourth 18 day following the date that the credit bureau is notified by the consumer of the noncompliance; 19 provided that there is noncompliance as determined by the court, plus any actual damages 20 sustained by the consumer as a result of the negligent failure; and in the case of any successful 21 action to enforce any provision under this chapter, the costs of the action together with reasonable 22 attorney's fees as determined by the court.

23 6-13.1-28. Financing of motor vehicles -- Term and rate of interest prominently 24 displayed. -- (a) Any contract to finance the sale of a motor vehicle shall prominently display the 25 term and rate of interest.

26 (b) The borrower's initials or signature shall appear immediately adjacent to the term and 27 to the rate of interest on the loan agreement ~~which~~ that shall only serve as an acknowledgement 28 that the borrower has been informed of the terms and rate. The borrower shall also be required to 29 separately sign the loan agreement to bind ~~themselves~~ himself or herself to the contract.

30 (c) Any agreement to finance a motor vehicle that does not comply with the provision of 31 this section shall be voidable within thirty (30) days at the option of the borrower; provided, 32 however, the borrower shall be responsible for any damage to the vehicle.

33 6-13.1-29. Furnishing of credit reports. -- No credit bureau doing business in this state 34 shall use all or part of a consumer's social security number as the sole factor when determining

1 whether a credit report in its files matches the identity of a person who is the subject of a credit
2 inquiry from a user of credit reports. When a social security number is used as a factor, a credit 3 bureau may disclose a credit report in its files to an inquiring user of credit reports only if the 4 name and, at a minimum, at least one other identifier such as address; prior address; date of 5 birth; mother's maiden name; place of employment; or prior place of employment; also match 6 the identity of the person who is the subject of the inquiry.

7 SECTION 11. Sections 6-13.2-2, 6-13.2-3, 6-13.2-4, 6-13.2-5, 6-13.2-6 and 6-13.2-7 of 8 the General Laws in Chapter 6-13.2 entitled "Comparison Price Advertising for Precious Metal 9 and Stones" are hereby amended to read as follows:

10 6-13.2-2. Definitions. -- The following words as used in this chapter, unless a different 11 meaning is required by the context or is specifically prescribed, shall have the following 12 meanings:

13 (1) "Advertisement" means any oral, written, or graphic statement or representation 14 made in connection with the solicitation of business in any manner for the purpose of soliciting a 15 consumer in this state by a seller and includes, without limitation because of enumeration, 16 statements and representations, but does not include price tags or in-store signs, or printed in any 17 sales literature or brochure excepting catalogs. The terms "producer", "manufacturer", 18 "wholesaler", "importer", or words of similar meaning, mean sellers ~~that are~~ engaged in resales, 19 not sellers of products or services for consumer, personal, family, or household use or 20 consumption. No price comparison may be made by a seller for precious metal and stones at 21 wholesale, wholesale prices, factory prices, or the like. If the prices for the sale being offered are 22 the net-cost prices retailers usually and customarily pay when they buy that merchandise for 23 resale, sales may be termed net-cost sales and in that event sellers may advertise cost prices
24 providing the substantiation of net-cost prices that are maintained for six (6) months. In no event 25 may retailers, in their departments that sell precious metals or stones, hold themselves ~~not~~ or their 26 sale out as wholesalers or as wholesale prices or otherwise;

27 (2) "Consumer property" means precious metals and stones sold primarily for personal, 28 family, gift, or household use and not for resale or for use or consumption in a trade or business.
29 For purposes of this chapter, "consumer property" includes "merchandise";

30 (3) "Date", as applied to "date on which a price comparison is stated in the 31 advertisement" in newspapers or other printed publications, means either the date of publication 32 or distribution or the date on which the completed advertising copy is submitted to the printer for 33 final printing and publication, provided the submission date does not exceed thirty (30) days from 34 the date of actual publication or distribution;

1 (4) "Precious metal" means metals ~~which~~ that are prized because of chemical and 2 physical properties (notably ~~resistance~~ resistant to corrosion, hardness, strength, and beauty) 3 desirable in jewelry, coinage, and objects of art, and ~~which~~ that are at the same time relatively 4 rare or inexpensive. Gold, silver, and the six (6) metals of the platinum group are usually 5 considered precious metals;

6 (5) "Precious stones" means one of the three (3) traditional categories of natural 7 gemstones, the most valuable, as distinguished from semi-precious and decorative. Diamond, 8 ruby, emerald, sapphire and pearl have long been considered "precious," but, in accordance with 9 their spiraling prices, alexandrite, black opal, cat's eye, demantoid, and jadeite are included in this 10 category;

11 (6) "Price comparison" means the comparison, whether or not expressed wholly or in 12 part in dollars, cents, fractions or percentages, in an advertisement, of a seller's current price for 13 consumer property or services with any other price or statement of value for consumer property, 14 whether or not these prices are actually stated in the advertisement; or, the making of price 15 reductions claims or savings claims with respect to the seller's current price. The term includes, 16 but shall not be limited to, such comparisons as "fifty percent off " "up to seventy percent off " 17 "save one-third" "half-price" sale" thirty percent to seventy percent off " "was twenty dollars, 18 now half price" "ten-dollar value, now eight dollars" "was seven dollars now six dollars" "list 19 price fifty dollars, our price twenty-nine dollars" "clearance price" or "liquidation price";

20 (7) "Sale" means a reduction from the seller's price at which consumer property is 21 offered to the public for a fixed period of time; and 22 (8) "Seller" means a person engaged in the sale of consumer property and includes 23 individuals, corporations, partnerships, associations, and any other form of business organization 24 or entity. The term shall not include banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, 25 and public utilities.

26 6-13.2-3. Records of fact. -- Any seller advertising products or services in Rhode Island 27 for the purpose of soliciting a consumer in this state in which these advertisements ~~are contained~~ 28 contain representations of statements as to any type of saving claims, including reduced price 29 claims and comparative value claims, shall maintain, for six (6) months, adequate records ~~which~~ 30 that disclose the factual basis for these representations or statements and from which the validity 31 of any claims can be established.

32 6-13.2-4. Price comparison -- General. -- (a) It shall be an unfair or deceptive act or 33 practice for a seller to make any price comparison:

34 (1) Based upon a price other than one at which the consumer property was either sold or

1 offered for sale by the seller or a competitor, or will be sold or offered for sale by the seller in the 2 future, in the regular course of business in the trade area in which the price comparison is made;

3 (2) In which the consumer property materially differs in composition; grade or quality; 4 style or design; model; name or brand; kind or variety; or service and performance 5 characteristics; unless the general nature of the material differences is conspicuously disclosed in 6 the advertisement with the price comparison, or the class of property being offered is similar to 7 but is of superior quality grade, materials, or draftsmanship than the consumer property to which 8 the seller is comparing its product; or

9 (3) Unless all the material price terms and conditions of any offer ~~which is~~ that are based 10 upon the purchase of other merchandise are conspicuously disclosed. Those types of offers shall 11 include, but are not limited to "~~Free~~" "free"; "two for one"; "two-fer"; "half-price sale"; "one 12 cent sale"; "fifty percent off " or other similar type of offer.

13 (b) No price comparison under this section may be made by a seller based on a price 14 ~~which~~ that exceeds his or her cost plus normal markup regularly used by him or her in the sale of 15 that property, or consumer property or services of like kind.

16 6-13.2-5. Price comparison advertisements. -- It shall be an unfair or deceptive act or 17 practice for a seller to advertise or make any price comparison:

18 (1) Based upon a price at which consumer property was sold by the seller unless:

19 (i) The price is a price at which the consumer property was actually sold in substantial 20 quantities by the seller in the last ninety (90) days immediately preceding the date on which the 21 price comparison is stated in the advertisement; or

22 (ii) The price is a price at which the consumer property was actually sold in substantial 23 quantities by the seller during any other period and the advertisement discloses with the price 24 comparison the date, time, or seasonal period when the sales were made.

25 (2) Based upon a price at which the seller has offered for sale but has not sold consumer 26 property unless:

27 (i) The price is ~~a~~ the price at which the consumer property was actually offered for sale 28 by the seller for at least four (4) weeks during the last ninety (90) days immediately preceding the 29 date on which the price comparison is stated in the advertisement; or 30 (ii) The price is a price at which the consumer property was actually offered for sale by 31 the seller for at least four (4) weeks during any other ninety ~~(90)-day~~ -day (90) period; and the 32 advertisement clearly discloses the date, time, or seasonal period of that offer.

33 (3) In which the seller represents that the seller is conducting a "sale" unless:

34 (i) The termination date of the "sale" is clearly stated in the advertisement; except that

1 this disclosure shall not apply to "clearance", "closeouts", "permanent markdown", or "special 2 purchases" with limited quantities and are advertised as such; and

3 (ii) The day after the "sale" ends, the consumer property reverts in price to the price 4 charged by the seller for the item before the "sale" began or to a price ~~which~~ that is higher than 5 the "sale" price, except for "clearance", "closeout", or "permanent markdown" sales where the 6 item will be reduced in price until it is removed from sale.

7 (4) Referencing a higher price at which consumer property will be offered or sold in the 8 future unless:

9 (i) The advertisement clearly discloses that the price comparison is based upon a future 10 price increase;

11 (ii) The effective date of the future higher price, if more than ninety (90) days after the 12 price comparison is first stated in an advertisement, is clearly disclosed in the advertisement; and

13 (iii) The future higher price increase takes effect on the date disclosed in the 14 advertisement or, if not disclosed in the advertisement, within ninety (90) days after the price 15 comparison is stated in the advertisement, except where compliance becomes impossible because 16 of circumstances beyond the seller's control.

17 (5) Based upon advertised savings of a particular percentage or a range of percentages 18 (e.g., "save thirty percent" or "twenty percent to sixty percent off") unless:

19 (i) The minimum percent reduction is clearly stated in the advertisement in the manner 20 as conspicuously as the maximum percentage reduction, when applicable;

21 (ii) The basis other than a regular price comparison for the advertised percentage 22 reduction is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the advertisement.

23 (6) Based upon the use of the term "original" or "originally", to fail to disclose that 24 intermediate markdowns have been taken, if that is the case. A seller may use the term "original" 25 or "originally", when offering a reduction from an original price that was the price at which the 26 consumer property was actually offered for sale in the recent, regular course of business. If the 27 comparative price, identified as "original" or "originally", is not also the last, previous selling 28 price, that fact shall be disclosed, ~~by~~ by stating the last, previous selling price, (e.g., "originally 29 $599.95, formerly $499.95, now $399.95") or indicating "intermediate markdowns taken".

30 6-13.2-6. Competitor's prices. -- It shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice for a 31 seller to make any price comparison:

32 (1) Based upon a competitor's price unless:

33 (i) The competitor's price is either a price at which the competitor sold or advertised 34 consumer property for sale at any time within the ninety ~~(90)-day~~ -day (90) period immediately

1 preceding the date on which the price comparison is stated in the advertisement, or the date on 2 which the completed advertising copy was submitted to the printer for final printing and 3 publication, provided each submission date does not exceed eight (8) weeks from the date of 4 actual publication or distribution;

5 (ii) The competitor's price is a price that is representative of prices at which the 6 consumer property is sold or advertised for sale in the trade area in which the price comparison is 7 made and is not an isolated price; or 8 (iii) Disclosure is made with the price comparison that the price used as a basis for the 9 comparison was not the seller's own price.

10 (2) Based upon a "manufacturer's suggested price"; "distributor's suggested price"; "list 11 price"; "suggested retail"; or any similar term implying a suggested or list price established by 12 anyone other than the seller, unless either:

13 (i) The seller has actually offered and sold the consumer property for sale at the 14 suggested price as its regular price; or 15 (ii) The seller can substantiate that it is the actual price at which the consumer property 16 was being offered for sale by representative retailers in the trade area in which the claim is made 17 at any time within the ninety ~~(90)-day~~ -day (90) period immediately preceding either the date on 18 which the price comparison is stated in the advertisement; the comparative price is for property 19 of same composition, grade, or quality, style or design, model, name or brand, kind or variety; or 20 the date on which the completed advertising copy was submitted to the printer for final printing 21 and publication, provided the submission date does not exceed eight (8) weeks from the date of 22 actual publication or distribution.

23 6-13.2-7. Retail price labels. -- A price label or tag permanently imprinted on or affixed 24 to consumer property or its container, by the manufacturer or supplier ("preticketed price"), and 25 not under control of the retail seller or instigated by him or her, or ~~which~~ that is required to be 26 attached to consumer property under federal law, need not be covered, obliterated, or removed for 27 purposes of compliance with this statute, unless that item was actually sold at that labeled price in 28 not insubstantial quantities on a substantial basis:

29 (1) When the retail seller's current offering price is attached to, printed on, or placed on a 30 label, tag, or sign accompanying the consumer property, provided no price comparison is made 31 by the retail seller based solely on the manufacturer's price thereon unless the comparison would 32 be valid based on past sales records; or

33 (2) When the retail seller's original offering price attached to, printed on, or placed on a 34 label, tag, or sign accompanying the consumer property, is identical to the preticketed price.

1 SECTION 12. Sections 6-13.3-1, 6-13.3-2, 6-13.3-3 and 6-13.3-4 of the General Laws in 2 Chapter 6-13.3 entitled "Environmental Marketing Act" are hereby amended to read as follows:

3 6-13.3-1. Declaration of policy. -- (1) It is the public policy of the state that 4 environmental marketing claims, whether explicit or implied, must be substantiated by competent 5 and reliable evidence so as not to deceive or mislead consumers about the environmental impact 6 of products and packages.

7 (2) Accurate and useful information about the environmental impact of products and 8 packages must be made available to consumers. The uniform standards for environmental 9 marketing claims, as contained in the ~~FTC~~ Federal Trade Commission guidelines for 10 environmental marketing claims are hereby adopted by the state of Rhode Island.

11 6-13.3-2. Deceptive environmental marketing claims. -- It is unlawful for any person, 12 in the course of that person's business, vocation or occupation, to make any untruthful, deceptive, 13 or misleading environmental marketing claims about a product or package sold or offered for sale 14 in this state. For the purposes of this chapter, "person" means any individual, corporation, 15 partnership, or other legal entity.

16 6-13.3-3. Remedies. -- (a) If the attorney general has probable cause to believe that a 17 person is violating or has violated ~~section §~~ 6-13.3-2, the attorney general may bring suit in the 18 name of Rhode Island in the appropriate court to restrain that person from further violations of 19 that section.

20 (b) Before filing a suit under subsection (a) of this section, the attorney general shall, in 21 writing, notify the person charged with the alleged violation of the alleged unlawful conduct and 22 the relief to be sought. No suit shall be brought by the attorney general until thirty (30) days after 23 that notice.

24 (c) The court may award reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal to a prevailing 25 party in a suit brought under this section.

26 6-13.3-4. Defenses. -- It shall be a defense to any suit brought under this chapter that the 27 person's environmental marketing claims conform to the standards or are consistent with the 28 examples contained in the guides for use of environmental marketing claims published by the 29 ~~federal trade commission~~ Federal Trade Commission July 27, 1992.

30 SECTION 13. Sections 6-14-3, 6-14-4, 6-14-6, 6-14-7, 6-14-8, 6-14-9, 6-14-10, 6-14-11, 31 6-14-11.1, 6-14-12 and 6-14-13 of the General Laws in Chapter 6-14 entitled "Closing Out Sales" 32 are hereby amended to read as follows:

33 6-14-3. License required for sale. -- No person shall offer for sale a stock of goods, 34 wares, and merchandise under the description of "closing_out sale"; "going_out_of_business

1 sale;" "discontinuance_of_business sale;" "selling out;" "liquidation;" "lost our lease;" "must 2 vacate;" "forced out;" "removal;" or other designation of like meaning, or a sale of goods, 3 wares, and merchandise damaged by fire, smoke, water, or otherwise, unless he or she shall have 4 first obtained a license to conduct a sale from the clerk of the city or town in which he or she 5 proposes to conduct a sale.

6 6-14-4. Application for license. -- The applicant for a license shall make an application 7 to the clerk, in writing and under oath, at least fourteen (14) days prior to the opening date of the 8 sale, showing all the facts in regard to the "closing out sale;" "going_out_of_business sale;"
9 "discontinuance_of_business sale;" "selling out;" "liquidation;" "lost our lease;" "must vacate;" 10 "forced out;" "removal;" or other designation of like meaning, or in regard to the damage caused 11 to the goods, wares, and merchandise by fire, smoke, water, or otherwise, and showing all the 12 facts in regard to the sale ~~which~~ that the applicant proposes to conduct and the place and manner 13 of conducting the sale including an inventory of the goods, wares, and merchandise to be sold at 14 the sale, which inventory shall contain only goods, wares, and merchandise actually in the place 15 of business in or at which the sale is to be conducted at the time of the application together with 16 the established retail price of the goods, wares, and merchandise, and a statement, as far as 17 possible, of the names of the persons from whom the goods, wares, and merchandise to be sold 18 were obtained; the date of the delivery of the goods, wares and merchandise to the person 19 applying for the license; and the place from which the goods, wares, and merchandise were last

29 SECTION 16. Sections 6-26.1-1, 6-26.1-2, 6-26.1-3, 6-26.1-4, 6-26.1-5, 6-26.1-9, 6-30 26.1-11 and 6-26.1-12 of the General Laws in Chapter 6-26.1 entitled "Credit Card Lending" are 31 hereby amended to read as follows:

32 6-26.1-1. Definitions. -- For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions shall 33 apply:

34 (1) "Credit card device" includes any means of making a credit card transaction available

1 to a borrower pursuant to a credit card plan, including, but not limited to, a card, draft or check, 2 identification code, other means of identification, or other credit device or code, whether made 3 directly or indirectly by means of telephone, point of sale terminal, automated teller machine, 4 computer or other electronic or other communication or device, or through the mail.

5 (2) "Credit card lender" or "lender" means any entity that is a lending institution as 6 defined by ~~section~~ § 19-9-1, or licensee as defined by ~~section~~ § 19-14-1, ~~which~~ that offers or 7 extends credit in the form of a credit card transaction.

8 (3) "Credit card transaction" means any loan or extension of credit made pursuant to a 9 credit card plan. Without limitation of the foregoing, a credit card transaction may be extended 10 under a credit card plan by a credit card lender's acquisition of obligations arising out of the 11 honoring by a merchant, or other third-party; a credit card lender or other financial institution 12 (whether chartered or organized under the laws of this or any other state, the District of 13 Columbia, the United States or any district, territory or possession of the United States, or any 14 foreign country); or a government or governmental subdivision or agency of a credit card device.

15 (4) "Credit card plan" or "plan" means any arrangement or plan between a borrower and 16 a credit card lender for open-end, revolving extensions of credit made available through a credit 17 card device, provided, however, said "credit card plan" or "plan" does not include an extension of 18 credit; the repayment of which is secured by real property.

19 6-26.1-2. Authorization to make loans -- Usury. -- Any credit card lender may, subject 20 to any limitations on lending authorities contained in its charter or otherwise imposed by law, 21 offer and extend credit to a borrower and in connection with the credit may charge and collect 22 interest, interest fees, and charges, and other charges permitted by this chapter and may take any 23 security as collateral in connection with it that may be acceptable to the credit card lender.

24 6-26.1-3. Variable rates. -- If the agreement governing a credit card plan so provides, the 25 periodic percentage rate or rates of interest under the plan may vary in accordance with a 26 schedule or formula. The periodic rate or rates may vary from time to time as the rate determined 27 in accordance with the schedule or formula varies and the periodic rate or rates, as so varied, may 28 be made applicable to all or any part of outstanding, unpaid indebtedness under the plan on or 29 after the first day of the billing cycle that contains the effective date of the variation, including 30 any indebtedness arising out of purchases made or loans obtained prior to the variation in the 31 periodic percentage rate or rates. Without limitation, a permissible schedule or formula pursuant 32 to this section may include provisions in the agreement governing the plan for a change in the 33 periodic percentage rate or rates of interest applicable to all or any part of outstanding unpaid 34 indebtedness, whether by variation of the then-applicable periodic percentage rate or rates of 1 interest; variation of an index or margin; or otherwise, contingent upon the happening of any 2 event or circumstance specified in the plan, which event or circumstance may include, but not be 3 limited to, the failure of the borrower to perform in accordance with the terms of the plan.

4 6-26.1-4. Interest. -- A credit card lender may charge and collect interest under a credit 5 card plan on outstanding unpaid indebtedness in the borrower's account under the plan at any 6 daily, weekly, monthly, annual, or other periodic percentage rate or rates that the agreement 7 governing the plan provides or as established in the manner provided in the agreement governing 8 the plan. If the agreement governing the plan so provides, the outstanding unpaid indebtedness 9 may include the amount of any interest, interest fees and charges, and other charges outstanding.
10 Interest may be calculated using an average daily balance; two-cycle, average daily balance; 11 adjusted balance; ~~or~~ previous balance method; or using any other balance computation method 12 provided for in the agreement governing the plan. Credit card transactions may be included in the 13 outstanding unpaid indebtedness as of any time as may be specified in the agreement governing 14 the plan. Periodic billing cycles may be established in any manner and shall have the duration that 15 may be specified in the agreement governing the plan.

16 6-26.1-5. Interest fees and charges. -- (a) In addition to, or in lieu of, interest at a 17 periodic percentage rate or rates as provided in ~~section~~ § 6-26.1-4, a credit card lender may, if the 18 agreement governing the credit card plan so provides, charge and collect, as interest, in any 19 manner or form that the plan may provide, one or more of the following:

20 (1) Daily, weekly, monthly, annual, or other periodic charges in any amount or amounts 21 that the agreement may provide for the privileges made available to the borrower under the plan;

22 (2) A transaction charge or charges in any amount or amounts that the agreement may 23 provide for each separate purchase, loan, or other transaction under the plan;

24 (3) A minimum charge for each daily, weekly, monthly, annual or other scheduled 25 billing period under the plan during any portion of which there is an outstanding unpaid 26 indebtedness under the plan;

27 (4) Reasonable fees for services rendered or for reimbursement of expenses incurred in 28 good faith by the credit card lender or its agents in connection with the plan, or other reasonable 29 fees incident to the application for and the opening, administration and termination of a plan 30 including, without limitation, commitment, application and processing fees; official fees and 31 taxes; costs incurred by reason of examination of title, inspection, appraisal, recording, mortgage 32 satisfaction, or other formal acts necessary or appropriate to the security for the plan; and filing 33 fees;

34 (5) Returned payment charges or charges imposed for the return of a draft or check

1 drawn on a credit card plan evidencing an extension of credit under the plan;

2 (6) Documentary evidence charges;

3 (7) Stop payment fees;

4 (8) Overlimit charges;

5 (9) Automated teller machine charges or other electronic or interchange fees or charges;

6 (10) Prepayment charges authorized under subsection (b) of this section; and 7 (11) Subject to any limitations contained in this chapter, any other fees and charges that 8 are set forth in the agreement governing the plan.

9 (b) An individual borrower may pay the outstanding unpaid indebtedness charged to the 10 borrower's account under a plan in full at any time. Except for a charge imposed to terminate a 11 plan if the agreement governing the plan so provides, a credit card lender may not impose any 12 prepayment charge in connection with the payment of outstanding unpaid indebtedness in full by 13 an individual borrower. The terms of prepayment of the outstanding unpaid indebtedness relating 14 to a credit card plan involving a borrower other than an individual borrower shall be as the lender 15 and the borrower may agree.

16 (c) No charges assessed in accordance with this section shall be deemed void as a 17 penalty or otherwise unenforceable under any statute or the common law.

18 6-26.1-9. Delinquent installments. -- (a) If the agreement governing a credit card plan so 19 provides, a credit card lender may impose, as interest, a late or delinquency charge upon any 20 outstanding unpaid installment payments or portions of it under the plan ~~which~~ that are in default; 21 provided, however, that no more than one such late or delinquency charge may be imposed ~~in~~ 22 with respect ~~of to~~ any single installment payment or portion of it, regardless of the period during 23 which it remains in default; and provided further, however, that for the purpose only of the 24 preceding provision all payments by the borrower shall be deemed to be applied to satisfaction of 25 installment payments in the order in which they become due. Nothing contained in this section 26 shall limit, restrict, or otherwise affect the right of a credit card lender to change the percentage 27 rate or rates of interest applicable to the credit plan between the credit card lender and a borrower 28 upon the occurrence of a delinquency or default or other failure of the borrower to perform in 29 accordance with the terms of the plan.

30 (b) No charges assessed by a credit card lender in accordance with this section shall be 31 deemed void as a penalty or otherwise unenforceable under any statute or the common law.

32 6-26.1-11. Amendment of agreement. -- (a) Unless the agreement governing a credit 33 card plan otherwise provides, a credit card lender may at any time and from time to time amend 34 the agreement in any respect, whether or not the amendment or the subject of the amendment was

1 originally contemplated or addressed by the parties or is integral to the relationship between the 2 parties. Without limiting the foregoing, the amendment may change terms by the addition of new 3 terms or by the deletion or modification of existing terms, whether relating to plan benefits or 4 features; the rate or rates of interest; the manner of calculating interest or outstanding unpaid 5 indebtedness; variable schedules or formulas; interest fees and charges; fees; collateral 6 requirements; methods for obtaining or repaying extensions of credit; attorneys' fees; plan 7 termination; the manner for amending the terms of the agreement; arbitration or other alternative 8 dispute resolution mechanisms; or other matters of any kind whatsoever. Unless the agreement 9 governing a credit card plan otherwise expressly provides, any amendment may, on and after the 10 date upon which it becomes effective as to a particular borrower, apply to all then outstanding, 11 unpaid indebtedness in the borrower's account under the plan, including any indebtedness that 12 arose prior to the effective date of the amendment. An agreement governing a credit card plan 13 may be amended pursuant to this section regardless of whether the plan is active or inactive or 14 whether additional borrowings are available under it. Any amendment that does not increase the 15 rate or rates of interest charged by a credit card lender to a borrower under ~~section~~ §§ 6-26.1-3 or 16 ~~section~~ 6-26.1-4 may become effective as determined by the credit card lender, subject to 17 compliance by the credit card lender with any applicable notice requirements under the Truth in 18 Lending Act (15 U.S.C. ~~section~~ § 1601 et seq.), and the regulations promulgated under it, as in 19 effect from time to time. Any notice of an amendment sent by the credit card lender may be 20 included in the same envelope with a periodic statement or as part of the periodic statement or in 21 other materials sent to the borrower.

22 (b) (1) If an amendment increases the rate or rates of interest charged by a credit card 23 lender to a borrower under ~~section~~ §§ 6-26.1-3 or ~~section~~ 6-26.1-4, the credit card lender shall 24 mail or deliver to the borrower, at least fifteen (15) days before the effective date of the 25 amendment, a clear and conspicuous written notice that shall describe the amendment and shall 26 also set forth the effective date of it and any applicable information required to be disclosed 27 pursuant to the following provisions of this section.

28 (2) Any amendment that increases the rate or rates of interest charged by a credit card
29 lender to a borrower under ~~section~~ §§ 6-26.1-3 or ~~section~~ 6-26.1-4 may become effective as to a 30 particular borrower if the borrower does not, within fifteen (15) days of the earlier mailing or 31 delivery of the written notice of the amendment (or any longer period that may be established by 32 the credit card lender), furnish written notice to the credit card lender that the borrower does not 33 agree to accept the amendment. The notice from the credit card lender shall set forth the address 34 to which a borrower may send notice of the borrower's election not to accept the amendment and

1 shall include a statement that, absent the furnishing of notice to the credit card lender of 2 nonacceptance within the referenced ~~fifteen (15) day (or longer) time period~~ fifteen day (15) time 3 period, the amendment will become effective and apply to the borrower. As a condition to the 4 effectiveness of any notice that a borrower does not accept the amendment, the credit card lender 5 may require the borrower to return to it all credit devices. If, after fifteen (15) days from the 6 mailing or delivery by the credit card lender of a notice of an amendment (or any longer period 7 that may have been established by the credit card lender as referenced above), a borrower uses a 8 plan by making a purchase or obtaining a loan, notwithstanding that the borrower has prior to the 9 use furnished the credit card lender notice that the borrower does not accept an amendment, the 10 amendment may be deemed by the credit card lender to have been accepted and may become 11 effective as to the borrower as of the date that the amendment would have become effective but 12 for the furnishing of notice by the borrower (or as of any later date selected by the credit card 13 lender).

14 (3) Any amendment that increases the rate or rates of interest charged by a credit card
15 lender to a borrower under ~~section~~ §§ 6-26.1-3 or ~~section~~ 6-26.1-4 may, in lieu of the procedure 16 referenced in subdivision (2) of this subsection, become effective as to a particular borrower if the 17 borrower uses the plan after a date specified in the written notice of the amendment that is at least 18 fifteen (15) days after the mailing or delivery of the notice (but that need not be the date the 19 amendment becomes effective) by making a purchase or obtaining a loan; provided, that the 20 notice from the credit card lender includes a statement that the described usage after the 21 references date will constitute the borrower's acceptance of the amendment.

22 (4) Any borrower who furnishes timely notice electing not to accept an amendment in 23 accordance with the procedures referenced in subdivision (2) of this subsection and who does not 24 subsequently use the plan, or who fails to use the borrower's plan as referenced in subdivision (3) 25 of this subsection, shall be permitted to pay the outstanding unpaid indebtedness in the borrower's 26 account under the plan in accordance with the rate or rates of interest charged by a credit card 27 lender to a borrower under ~~section~~ §§ 6-26.1-3 or ~~section~~ 6-26.1-4 without giving effect to the 28 amendment; provided, however, that the credit card lender may convert the borrower's account to 29 a closed-end credit account on credit terms substantially similar to those set forth in the then-30 existing agreement governing the borrower's plan.

31 (5) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, no notice required by this 32 section of an amendment of an agreement governing a credit card plan shall be required, and any 33 amendment may become effective as of any date agreed upon between a credit card lender and a 34 borrower, with respect to any amendment that is agreed upon between the credit card lender and

1 the borrower, either orally or in writing.

2 (c) For purposes of this section, the following are examples of amendments that shall not 3 be deemed to increase the rate or rates of interest charged by a credit card lender to a borrower 4 under ~~section~~§ 6-26.1-3 or ~~section~~ 6-26.1-4:

5 (1) A decrease or increase in the required number or amount of periodic installment 6 payments;

7 (2) Any change to a plan that increases the rate or rates in effect immediately prior to the 8 change by less than one-quarter of one percentage point (0.25%) per annum; provided that a 9 credit card lender may not make more than one such change in reliance on this subdivision with 10 respect to a plan within any twelve ~~(12)-month~~ -month (12) period;

11 (3) (i) A change in the schedule or formula used under a variable-rate plan under ~~section~~ 12 § 6-26.1-3 that varies the determination date of the applicable rate; ~~;~~ the time period for which the 13 applicable rate will apply; ~~;~~ or the effective date of any variation of the rate; ~~;~~ or any other similar 14 change; or

15 (ii) Any other change in the schedule or formula used under a variable-rate plan under 16 ~~section~~ § 6-26.1-3; ~~provided;~~ that the initial interest rate that would result from any change under 17 this subdivision (3), as determined on the effective date of the change or, if the notice of the 18 change is mailed or delivered to the borrower prior to the effective date, as of any date within 19 sixty (60) days before mailing or delivery of the notice, will not be an increase from the rate in 20 effect on the date under the existing schedule or formula.

21 (4) A change from a variable-rate plan to a fixed rate, or from a ~~fix~~ fixed-rate to a 22 variable-rate plan so long as the initial rate that would result from such a change, as determined 23 on the effective date of the change, or if the notice of the change is mailed or delivered to the 24 borrower prior to the effective date, as of any date within sixty (60) days before mailing or 25 delivery of the notice, will not be an increase from the rate in effect on the date under the existing 26 plan;

27 (5) A change from a daily periodic rate to a periodic rate other than daily or from a 28 periodic rate other than daily to a daily periodic rate; and 29 (6) A change in the method of determining the outstanding unpaid indebtedness upon 30 which interest is calculated (including, without limitation, a change with respect to the date by 31 which, or the time period within which, a new balance or any portion of it must be paid to avoid 32 additional interest).

33 (d) The procedures for amendment by a credit card lender of the terms of a plan to which 34 a borrower, other than an individual borrower, is a party may, in lieu of the foregoing provisions

1 of this section, be as the agreement governing the plan may otherwise provide.

2 6-26.1-12. Materiality of terms. -- All terms, conditions and other provisions of and 3 relating to a credit card plan as contained in this chapter or any other applicable chapter, or in the 4 agreement governing the plan (other than those which are interest under this chapter,) including, 5 without limitation, provisions relating to the method of determining the outstanding unpaid 6 indebtedness on which interest is applied; time periods within which interest or interest fees and 7 charges may be avoided; reasons for default and the right to cure any default; right to 8 accelerate; account cancellation; choice of law; change in terms requirements; right to charge 9 and collect attorneys' fees; court and collection costs; and the compounding of interest or interest 10 fees and charges, shall be, and hereby are deemed to be, material to the determination of interest 11 applicable to a plan under Rhode Island law, under the most favored lender doctrine, and under 12 ~~Section 85 of~~ the National Credit Card Lender Act (12 U.S.C. ~~section~~ § 85) or Section 521 of the 13 Depository Institutions Deregulation and Monetary Control Act of 1980 (12 U.S.C. ~~section~~ § 14 ~~1831(d)~~ 1831(d)).

15 SECTION 17. Sections 6-27-4, 6-27-5, 6-27-9, 6-27-10 and 6-27-11 of the General Laws 16 in Chapter 6-27 entitled "Truth in Lending and Retail Selling" are hereby amended to read as 17 follows:

18 6-27-4. Maximum charge -- Refunds. -- (a) No creditor shall impose a finance charge in 19 excess of an amount equal to eighteen percent (18%) simple interest per annum. This subsection 20 shall not apply to any transaction in connection with which the finance charge does not exceed 21 ten dollars ($10.00). Notwithstanding the provision of any retail installment contract to the 22 contrary, a buyer may prepay in full the unpaid balance of any retail installment contract at any 23 time before its final due date and, if the buyer does so, shall receive a refund credit on the retail 24 installment contract for the prepayment. The amount of the refund credit of finance charges on 25 precomputed loans, made for an original term of sixty (60) months or less, may be calculated on 26 the method commonly referred to as the rule of ~~78's~~ 78s or sum of the digits. Refund credits of 27 finance charges on precomputed loans, made for an original term greater than sixty (60) months, 28 must be at least the amount as that produced by the rule of anticipation.

29 (b) Where the amount of refund credit is less than one dollar ($1.00), no refund credit

31 (c) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, the maximum finance charge ~~which~~ 32 that may be applied under a revolving or open-end credit plan in connection with a transaction 33 arising out of a retail sale of consumer goods, including the retail sale of gasoline, or services, 34 shall not exceed the rate or rates agreed to by the creditor and a retail buyer compared on the

1 average daily balance of the open-end or revolving account or the unpaid balance of the open-end 2 or revolving account outstanding as of the end of the current billing cycle. Regardless of any 3 agreement to the contrary, a transaction under a revolving or open-end credit plan is subject to 4 this section whenever a solicitation for the extension of credit is made by a creditor whose 5 primary activity in Rhode Island is soliciting Rhode Island customers through the mails; and the 6 solicitation originates outside Rhode Island but is directed to, and received by, a retail buyer who 7 resides, and responds to the solicitation, in Rhode Island.

8 (d) This section shall not apply to any person doing business under and as permitted by 9 any general or special law of this state or of the United States relating to: (1) financial institutions, 10 (2) credit unions, or (3) licensees pursuant to title 19, chapter 44 of title 6, and ~~section~~ § 6-26-2.

11 (e) Under each revolving or open-end credit plan a late fee not to exceed twelve dollars 12 ($12.00) may be assessed on each minimum payment not paid in full within forty (40) days 13 following the billing date of the statement on which the minimum payment first appears.

14 6-27-5. Consumer notes. -- (a) If any contract between a retail seller and a retail buyer 15 for the sale of consumer goods and services requires or involves the execution of a promissory 16 note by a retail buyer in connection with an extension of credit by the retail seller, or by a creditor 17 to whom the retail buyer was referred by the retail seller and to whom the retail seller regularly, 18 as part of the ordinary conduct of its business; and with the actual knowledge of the creditor, 19 refers retail buyers for credit, the words "nonnegotiable consumer note" shall be placed 20 prominently on the note; and an assignee of a note with the words "nonnegotiable consumer note" 21 appearing prominently on the note shall take the note subject to the claims and defenses permitted 22 under ~~section~~ § 6A-3-306, irrespective of whether or not the assignee qualifies as a "holder in due 23 course" as defined in ~~section~~ § 6A-3-302. For the purposes of this section "consumer goods" 24 means tangible personal property used or bought for use primarily for personal, family, or 25 household purposes.

26 (b) A creditor who obtains a note from the maker in violation of this section shall be 27 punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars 28 ($500).

29 (c) If a note is obtained by a creditor from a maker in violation of this section, no 30 finance, delinquency, collection, repossession, or refinancing charges may be recovered in any 31 action or proceeding based on the contract for sale by the creditor; and if the charges are 32 recovered from a maker by a holder in due course, the maker may recover the charges from the 33 creditor who violated the provisions of this section.

34 (d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any notes executed in connection

1 with any financing ~~which~~ that is insured under federal housing administration regulations.

27 6-31-2. Consumer information required. -- (a) (1) Every person who sells, offers for 28 sale, or exposes for sale at retail any aluminum foil, bread, carbonated soft drinks, cereals, 29 cooking oils, dog or cat food, facial tissues, fish, fowl, fruits, grains, meats, napkins, plastic food 30 wrapping, vegetables, waxed paper, or other consumer commodity designated by the director, 31 shall disclose to the consumer the unit price of the consumer commodity as provided in this 32 chapter.

33 (2) The same unit of weight, measure, or count shall be utilized to express the unit price 34 of different sizes or brand names of the same or similar consumer commodities. All stamps, tags,

1 or labels expressing the total price shall be standardized within each place of business; and shall 2 set forth the cents from dollars by use of a decimal point, different type or type size, or a cents 3 sign.

4 (b) Every person who sells, offers for sale, or exposes for sale at retail any consumer 5 commodity shall disclose to the consumer the total price of the consumer commodity as provided 6 in this chapter.

7 (c) Wherever meat, poultry, fish, fresh vegetables, and fresh fruit are sold by a measure 8 of weight and are packaged or wrapped for sale by a retailer in advance of being sold, offered for 9 sale, or exposed for sale, an accurate computing scale of adequate capacity shall be placed in a 10 conspicuous accessible location so the buyer may weigh the product ~~which~~ that is being 11 purchased.

12 6-31-3. Means of disclosure. -- Persons subject to the requirements of ~~section~~ § 6-31-2 13 shall disclose the unit price and total price to consumers in one or more of the following 14 appropriate ways:

15 (1) If the consumer commodity is so located that it is not conspicuously visible to the 16 consumer, or if the consumer commodity is so located that the price information, if displayed in 17 accordance with subdivision (2), would not be conspicuously visible to the consumer; by a sign or 18 list bearing the price information conspicuously placed near the point of procurement; or

19 (2) By attachment of a stamp, tag, or label directly adjacent to the consumer commodity, 20 on the shelf on which the commodity is displayed, or by stamping or affixing the price 21 information on the commodity itself; provided, however, that upon each commodity shall be 22 stamped or affixed the total price of the commodity in arabic numerals; if and when a 23 computerized system is used; or

24 (3) In accord with regulations promulgated by the director.

25 6-31-5. Director's powers. -- (a) The director shall do all of the following:

26 (1) Designate by regulation those consumer commodities, in addition to the consumer 27 commodities specifically enumerated in ~~section~~ § 6-31-2(a), as to which display of the unit price 28 shall be required; upon a determination that the display will be in the best interest of consumers;

29 (2) Designate by regulation the unit of weight, measure, or count in terms of which the 30 unit price of each consumer commodity shall be expressed, provided that no designated unit shall 31 be such as to require persons subject to the provisions of ~~section~~ § 6-31-2(a) to measure any 32 consumer commodity solely for the purpose of complying with ~~section~~ § 6-31-2(a);

33 (3) Designate by regulation whether the unit price of each consumer commodity subject 34 to the provisions of ~~section~~ § 6-31-2(a) shall be expressed to the nearest whole cent or to an

1 appropriate fraction thereof;

2 (4) Exempt, by regulation, classes of retail establishments from any or all requirements 3 of this chapter upon a determination that because sales of consumer commodities regulated by 4 this chapter are purely incidental to the business of the classes of retail establishments, 5 compliance with this chapter is impracticable and unnecessary for adequate protection of 6 consumers; provided, however, that any person, firm, corporation, or other business entity with 7 less than eight (8) full-time employees shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter;

8 (5) Prescribe, by regulation, means for the disclosure of price information upon 9 determination that they are more effective than those prescribed in ~~section §~~ 6-31-3; and

10 (6) Promulgate any other regulation necessary to effectuate the provisions of this chapter 11 in accordance with the best interests of consumers.

12 (b) The director shall give public notice of his or her intention to promulgate regulations 13 pursuant to subsection (a) and shall receive the opinions of interested parties on the regulations.
14 Regulations shall take effect thirty (30) days from the date on which the notice is given.

15 (c) The director shall hold hearings whenever he or she has probable cause to believe, or 16 whenever twenty-five (25) or more citizens state in writing to the director their belief, that the 17 actions of any person subject to the provisions of this chapter have evidenced a pattern of 18 noncompliance with any or all of those provisions. Pursuant to the hearings, to which the 19 suspected violator shall be invited with written notice at least ten (10) days before the hearing is 20 held, the director shall, upon a finding that a pattern of noncompliance has been shown:

21 (1) Issue a warning citation; or

22 (2) Report any pattern of noncompliance to the attorney general who shall cause 23 appropriate proceedings to be instituted in the proper courts.

8 or substituting goods that are of a lower quality or price;

9 (6) To fail to deliver to the buyer, on any date payment is made, a receipt showing the 10 amount and the date of that payment, and, upon request, the balance of payments made up to that 11 date.

12 ~~6-32-3. Right to cancel -- Method -- Exception for special order merchandise. Right~~

13 ~~to cancel -- Method -- Exception for special-order merchandise. --~~ (a) In addition to any right 14 otherwise to revoke an offer, the buyer may cancel a lay-away plan sale by written notice of 15 cancellation to the seller at the address specified for notice of cancellation provided by the seller 16 not later than midnight ten (10) days following the buyer's signing the agreement, excluding 17 Sunday and any holiday on which regular mail deliveries are not made. After the ten (10) days the 18 seller may retain no more than ten percent (10%) of the total payments made. The notice of 19 cancellation shall be by personal delivery of registered or certified mail.

20 (b) This right to cancel a lay-away plan sale shall not apply to special order merchandise, 21 ~~which~~that, for the purposes of this section, means:

22 (1) Merchandise ~~which~~ that is to be custom made and the seller has made either a 23 commitment for its procurement or a substantial beginning of its production; or 24 (2) Merchandise that substantially differs from the merchandise that the seller ordinarily 25 offers for sale.

26 ~~6-32-5. Seller's obligations on cancellation. --~~ Within thirty (30) days after a lay-away 27 sale has been cancelled, the seller shall tender to the buyer any payments made by the buyer and 28 any note or other evidence of indebtedness. If the down payment includes goods traded in, the 29 goods shall be tendered in substantially as good condition as when received. If the seller fails to 30 tender the goods as provided in this section, the buyer may elect to recover an amount equal to 31 the trade in allowance stated in the agreement.

32 SECTION 25. Section 6-34.1-1 of the General Laws in Chapter 6-34.1 entitled "Law 33 Applicable to Construction Contracts" is hereby amended to read as follows:

34 ~~6-34.1-1. Law applicable to construction contracts. --~~ (a) If a contract is principally for

1 the construction or repair of improvements to real property located in Rhode Island and the 2 contract contains a provision that makes the contract or any conflict arising under it subject to the 3 law of another state; to litigation in the courts of another state; or to arbitration in another state; 4 that provision is voidable by the party that is obligated by the contract to perform the construction 5 or repair.

6 (b) A contract is principally for the construction or repair of improvements to real 7 property located in Rhode Island if the contract obligates a party, as its principal obligation under 8 the contract, to provide labor, or labor and materials, for the construction or repair of 9 improvements to real property located in Rhode Island as a general contractor or subcontractor.

10 (c) A contract is not principally for the construction or repair of improvements to real

15 to construct or repair improvements does so as part of its agreements with the lender or other 16 extender of credit; or

17 (3) The contract is for the management of real property or improvements and the 18 obligation to construct or repair is part of that management.

19 (d) Subsections (b) and (c) of this section are not an exclusive list of situations in which 20 a contract is or is not principally for the construction or repair of improvements to real property 21 located in this state.

22 (e) The superior court of the state of Rhode Island shall have exclusive jurisdiction in 23 relation to the construing or enforceability of ~~section §~~ 6-34.1-1.

28 (1) To complement the laws of the United States governing monopolistic and restrictive 29 trade practices; and

30 (2) To promote the unhampered growth of commerce and industry throughout the state 31 by prohibiting unreasonable restraints of trade and monopolistic practices, inasmuch as these 32 have the effect of hampering, preventing, or decreasing competition. It is intended, that as a 33 result, the prices of goods and services to consumers will be fairly determined by ~~free-market~~ 34 free-market competition in activities affecting trade or commerce in this state, including the

1 manufacturing, distribution, financing, and service sectors of the economy, except as otherwise
2 provided by the statutes, regulations, and judicial decisions of this state. The general assembly 3 intends to fully exercise its power to affect and regulate commerce in order to effectuate the 4 purpose of this chapter.

5 (b) This chapter shall be construed in harmony with judicial interpretations of 6 comparable federal antitrust statutes insofar as practicable, except where provisions of this 7 chapter are expressly contrary to applicable federal provisions as construed.

30 the giving or selling of a discount or rebate, on the condition, agreement, or understanding that 31 one party shall not deal in the commodities or services of a competitor or competitors of the other 32 party; is unlawful where the effect of the contract or the condition, agreement, or understanding 33 may be to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce in any region 34 of this state.

1 6-36-9. Investigation by attorney general. -- (a) General power of investigation. -
2 Whenever it appears to the attorney general, upon reasonable cause, that any person has engaged 3 in, engages in, or is about to engage in any act or practice prohibited by this chapter;[;] or that any 4 person has assisted or participated in any plan, scheme, agreement, or combination of the nature 5 prohibited by this chapter;[;] or whenever the attorney general believes it to be in the public interest 6 that an investigation be made;[;] he or she may, in his or her discretion, either require or permit the 7 complainant to file with the attorney general a statement in writing under oath or otherwise as to 8 all facts and circumstances concerning the subject matter ~~which~~ that the attorney general believes 9 to be in the public interest to investigate. The attorney general may also require any other data 10 and information from the complainant that he or she deems relevant and may make any special 11 and independent investigations that he or she deems necessary in connection with the matter. In 12 addition, the attorney general may take any measures that will not violate due process of law to 13 preserve the confidentiality of the complainant's identity.

14 (b) Investigative demand. - (1) Whenever the attorney general has reason to believe that 15 any person may have knowledge or be in possession, custody, or control of any documentary 16 material pertinent to an investigation of a possible violation of this chapter, the attorney general 17 may issue in writing and cause to be served upon the person an investigative demand by which 18 the attorney general may:

19 (i) Compel the attendance of the person and require him or her to submit to examination 20 and give testimony under oath;

21 (ii) Require the production of documentary material pertinent to the investigation for 22 inspection or copying; ~~and/or~~ and/or 23 (iii) Require answer to written interrogatories to be furnished under oath.

24 (2) The power to issue investigative demands shall ~~not~~ neither abate ~~or~~ nor terminate by 25 reason of the bringing of any action or proceeding under this chapter. The attorney general may 26 issue successive investigative demands to the same person in order to obtain additional 27 information pertinent to an ongoing investigation.

28 (c) Contents of investigative demand. - Each investigative demand shall:

29 (1) State the section or sections of the chapter the alleged violation of which is under 30 investigation;[;] and the general subject matter of this investigation;

31 (2) Prescribe a reasonable return date no less than forty (40) days after service of the 32 investigative demand, provided that an earlier date may be prescribed under compelling 33 circumstances, but in no event less than twenty (20) days;

34 (3) Specify the time and place at which the person is to appear and give testimony;[;]

1 produce documentary material; and furnish answers to interrogatories; or do any or a 2 combination of these things;

3 (4) Describe by class any documentary material required to be produced; so as to clearly 4 indicate what is demanded; and 5 (5) Contain any interrogatories to which written answers under oath are required.

6 (d) Prohibition against unreasonable demand. - No investigative demand shall:

7 (1) Contain any requirement ~~which~~ that would be unreasonable or improper if contained 8 in a subpoena issued by a court of this state; or 9 (2) Require the disclosure of any material or information ~~which~~ that would be privileged, 10 or which for any other reason would not be required to be disclosed by a subpoena issued by a 11 court of this state, including, but not limited to, trade secrets or confidential scientific, technical, 12 merchandising, production, management, or commercial information, to the extent that the 13 material or information is protected pursuant to the rules of civil procedure of the superior court.

14 (e) Offer of documentary evidence. - Where the information requested upon oral 15 examination or written interrogatory pursuant to an investigative demand may be derived or 16 ascertained from the business records of the person upon whom the demand has been served; or 17 from an examination, audit, or inspection of the business records; or from a compilation, 18 abstract, or summary based on the records; and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer 19 is substantially the same for the attorney general as for the person from whom the information is 20 requested, it is sufficient for that person to specify the records from which the answer may be 21 derived or ascertained and to afford the attorney general reasonable opportunity to examine, 22 audit, or inspect the records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts, or summaries.

23 (f) Service of investigative demand. - An investigative demand may be served by any 24 means provided under the Rhode Island rules of civil procedure for service of a complaint in a 25 civil action.

26 (g) Motion to quash. - Within forty (40) days after the service of an investigative demand 27 or at any time before the return date specified in the demand, whichever period is shorter, the 28 person served may file in a state superior court and serve upon the attorney general a petition for 29 an order of court modifying or setting aside the demand. The time allowed for compliance in 30 whole or part with the demand as deemed proper and ordered by the court shall not run while the 31 petition is pending before the court. The petition shall specify each ground upon which the 32 petitioner relies in seeking relief, and may be based upon any failure of the demand to comply 33 with the provisions of this chapter or upon any constitutional or other legal right, privilege, or 34 qualified privilege of the party, including that the material or information sought constitutes trade

1 secrets or confidential scientific, technical, merchandising, production, management, or 2 commercial information. If qualified privilege is raised, the court may order the person to comply 3 with the demand only upon showing of particularized need and subject to an appropriate 4 protective order. The provisions of this subsection shall be the sole and exclusive means for 5 challenging the requirements of a demand.

6 (h) Those authorized to examine. - The examination of all persons pursuant to this 7 section shall be conducted by the attorney general or a representative designated in writing by 8 him or her before an officer authorized to administer oaths in this state. The statements made 9 shall be taken down stenographically or by a sound recording device and shall be transcribed.

10 (i) Right of persons served with investigative demands. - (1) Any person required to 11 attend and give testimony or to submit documentary material pursuant to this section shall be 12 entitled to retain or, on payment of lawfully prescribed cost, to procure a copy of any document 13 he or she produces and of his or her own statements as transcribed.

14 (2) Any person compelled to appear under a demand for oral testimony pursuant to this 15 section may be accompanied, represented, and advised by counsel. Counsel may advise the 16 person in confidence, either upon the request of the person or upon counsel's own initiative, with 17 respect to any question asked of the person. The person or counsel may object on the record to 18 any question, in whole or part, and shall briefly state for the record the reason for the objection.
19 An objection may properly be made, received, and entered upon the record when it is claimed that 20 the person is entitled to refuse to answer the question on grounds of any constitutional or other 21 legal right or privilege, including the privilege against self incrimination. The person shall not 22 otherwise object to or refuse to answer any question, and shall not by him or herself or through 23 counsel otherwise interrupt the oral examination. If the person refuses to answer any question, the 24 attorney general may petition the superior court for an order compelling the person to answer the 25 question.

26 (3) The information and materials supplied to the attorney general pursuant to an 27 investigative demand shall not be permitted to become public or disclosed by the attorney general 28 or his or her employees beyond the extent necessary for antitrust enforcement purposes in the 29 public interest.

30 (4) Upon the completion of a case brought under this chapter, the attorney general shall 31 return any documents, answers, and transcripts, and all copies of the material; ~~which~~ that have not 32 passed into the control of the court through their introduction into the record, to the person who 33 provided the documents, answers, or testimony. If no case in which the material may be used has 34 been commenced within a reasonable time after completion of the examination or analysis of all

1 documentary material, but in no event later than two (2) years after production of the 2 documentary material, the attorney general shall, upon written request of the person who 3 produced the material, return all documents, answers, and transcripts, and all copies of the 4 material, to the person who provided them.

5 (5) The attorney general shall have the authority, at any time, to modify or revoke any 6 civil investigative demand and to stipulate to protective orders with respect to documents and 7 information submitted in response to a demand. The protective orders may include provisions 8 appropriate to the full and adequate protection of trade secrets.

9 (j) Witness expenses. - All persons served with an investigative demand, other than 10 those persons whose conduct or practices are being investigated, or any officer, director, or 11 person in the employment of the person under investigation, shall be paid the same fees and 12 mileage as paid witnesses in the courts of this state. No person shall be excused from attending 13 the inquiry pursuant to the mandate of an investigative demand; from giving testimony; from 14 producing documentary material; or from being required to answer questions on the ground of 15 failure to tender or pay a witness fee or mileage unless demand for the fees or mileage is made at 16 the time testimony is about to be taken and unless payment is not made upon demand.

17 (k) Refusal of witness to testify or produce documents. - Any person who shall neglect 18 or refuse to attend and give testimony or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce documentary 19 material, if in his or her power to do so, in obedience to an investigative demand pursuant to this 20 section, may be adjudged in civil contempt by the superior court until the time that he or she 21 purges him or herself of contempt by testifying, producing documentary material, or presenting 22 written answers as ordered. Any person who commits perjury or false swearing in response to an 23 investigative demand pursuant to this section shall be punishable pursuant to the provisions of 24 chapter 33 of title 11.

25 (l) Duty to testify immunity. - (1) If, in any investigation brought by the attorney general 26 pursuant to this section, any individual shall refuse to attend; to give testimony; to produce 27 documentary material; or to answer a written interrogatory in obedience to an investigative 28 demand, or under order of court, on the ground that the testimony or material required of him or 29 her may tend to incriminate him or her, that person may be ordered to attend and to give 30 testimony; to produce documentary material; or to answer the written interrogatory; or to do an 31 applicable combination of these. The order as previously stated shall be an order of court given 32 after a hearing in which the attorney general has established a need for the grant of immunity; as 33 provided in this subsection.

34 (2) The attorney general may petition any superior court justice for an order as described

1 in subdivision (l)(1). The petition shall set forth the nature of the investigation and the need for 2 the immunization of the witness.

3 (3) Testimony so compelled shall not be used against the witness as evidence in any 4 criminal proceedings against him or her in any court. However, the grant of immunity shall not 5 immunize the witness from civil liability arising from the transactions about which testimony is 6 given, and he or she may nevertheless be prosecuted or subjected to penalty or forfeiture for any 7 perjury, false swearing, or contempt committed in answering, or in failing to answer, or in 8 producing evidence, or failing to do so, in accordance with the order. If a person refuses to testify 9 after being granted immunity from prosecution and after being ordered to testify as previously 10 stated, he or she may be adjudged in civil contempt by the superior court until the time that he or 11 she purges him or herself of contempt by testifying, producing documentary material, or 12 presenting written answers as ordered. The foregoing shall not prevent the attorney general from 13 instituting other appropriate contempt proceedings against any person who violates any of the 14 above provisions.

15 (m) Duty of public officials. - It shall be the duty of all officials of this state and its 16 public bodies, their deputies, assistants, clerks, subordinates, or employees, and all other persons 17 to render and furnish to the attorney general when so requested all information and assistance in 18 their possession or within their power.

19 6-36-11. Enforcement. -- (a) Action for treble damages. - Any person or public body, 20 including the United States, ~~who shall be~~ injured in his or her business or property by reason of a 21 violation of the provisions of this chapter may sue in superior court and shall recover threefold 22 the damages sustained by him or her, together with reasonable costs of suit and any reasonable 23 attorneys' fees that may be granted at the discretion of the court. The reasonable costs of suit may 24 include, but shall not be limited to, the expenses of discovery and document reproduction. In any 25 action under this section the fact that a person or public body has not dealt directly with the 26 defendant shall not bar or otherwise limit recovery. Provided, however, that the court shall 27 exclude from the amount of the damages awarded in the action, any amount of monetary relief 28 ~~which that~~ duplicates amounts ~~which that~~ have been awarded for the same injury, but shall not 29 exclude reasonable costs and attorneys' fees.

30 (b) Action by attorney general. - The attorney general shall investigate suspected 31 violations of the provisions of this chapter and if he or she shall conclude that a violation is 32 imminent, is occurring, or has occurred, he or she may institute on behalf of the state of Rhode 33 Island or any of its departments, subdivisions, agencies, or its cities and towns, an action in 34 superior court seeking appropriate relief. The attorney general may bring an action in federal

1 court on behalf of the state of Rhode Island; ~~or~~ any of its political subdivisions or agencies; ~~or~~ its 2 cities and towns; to recover the damages provided for by the federal antitrust laws, and pursuant 3 to the federal laws may undertake any measures that he or she deems necessary for the successful 4 conduct of the action.

5 6-36-12. Attorney general -- Suits parens patriae. -- (a) The attorney general may 6 bring a civil action in superior court in the name of the state, as parens patriae on behalf of 7 persons residing in this state, to secure monetary relief as provided in this section for injuries
8 sustained by the persons to their property by reason of any violation of this chapter. This parens 9 patriae action shall take precedence, have priority status, and automatically stay any other action 10 by a city or town in superior court seeking monetary relief for the same injuries sustained by the 11 persons to their property by reason of any violation of this chapter. The court shall exclude from 12 the amount of monetary relief awarded in this action any amount of monetary relief:

13 (1) ~~Which~~ That duplicates amounts ~~which~~ that have been awarded for the same injury; or 14 (2) ~~Which~~ That is properly allocable to persons who have excluded their claims pursuant 15 to subsection (c)(1) of this section.

16 (b) The court shall award the state as monetary relief threefold the total damage 17 sustained as described in subsection (a) of this section and the costs of suit, including a 18 reasonable attorney's fee.

19 (c) (1) In any action brought under subsection (a) of this section, the attorney general 20 shall, at the times, in the manner, and with the content that the court may direct, cause notice of 21 the action to be given by publication.

22 (2) Any person on whose behalf an action is brought under subsection (a) may elect to 23 exclude from adjudication the portion of the state claim for monetary relief attributable to him or 24 her by filing notice of the election with the court within the time specified in the notice given 25 pursuant to subsection (c)(1) of this section.

26 (3) The final judgment in an action under subsection (a) shall be res judicata as to any 27 claim under ~~section~~ § 6-36-11 by any person on behalf of whom the action was brought and who 28 fails to give the notice within the period specified in the notice given pursuant to subsection (c)(1) 29 of this section.

30 (d) An action under subsection (a) shall not be dismissed or compromised without the 31 approval of the court; and notice of any proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given by 32 publication at the times, in the manner, and with the content that the court may direct.

28 exposure to formaldehyde can cause nausea and vomiting, respiratory difficulties, headaches, eye 29 irritation, and allergic reactions. The symptoms may develop anywhere from a few days to more 30 than six (6) months after the gas is released. This notice of caution shall be acknowledged by the 13 system, whether acquired commercially off the shelf, modified, or customized, that is used or 14 designed to be used to increase, maintain, or improve any functional capability of an individual 15 with disabilities. An assistive technology device system that as a whole is within the definition of 16 this term is itself an assistive technology device, and in this case, this term also applies to each 17 component product of the assistive technology device system that is itself ordinarily an assistive 18 technology device. This term includes, but is not limited to:

19 (i) Wheelchairs and scooters of any kind, and other aids that enhance the mobility or 20 positioning of an individual, such as motorization, motorized positioning features, and the 21 switches and controls for any motorized features;

22 (ii) Hearing aids, telephone communication devices for persons who are deaf or hard of 23 hearing, and other assistive listening devices;

24 (iii) Computer equipment and reading devices with voice output, optical scanners, 25 talking software, Braille printers, and other aids and devices that provide access to text;

34 or leasing assistive technology devices. A dealer shall be an assistive technology device dealer

1 with respect to a particular sale or lease of a product that constitutes an assistive technology 2 device as to that sale or lease; if he or she is in the business generally of selling or leasing that 3 product or kind of product; without regard to whether that product constitutes an assistive 4 technology device for other buyers.

5 (3) "Assistive technology device system" means the final product resulting from a 6 manufacturer customizing, adapting, reconfiguring, refitting, refurbishing, or composing into a 7 system one or more component products, whether or not new, that may be assistive technology 8 devices or standard products of the same or other manufacturer.

9 (4) "Collateral costs" means expenses incurred by a consumer in connection with the 10 repair of a nonconformity, including the costs of obtaining another device or service to substitute 11 for the absence, due to a nonconformity or attempt to repair, of the device sold or leased to the 12 consumer, if no loaner was offered to the consumer, except to the extent the person opposing 13 liability for these costs shall prove that incurring these expenses was not reasonable in light of the 14 sophistication of and the means readily available to the consumer.

16 identical to or has functional capabilities equal to or greater than those of the original device.

17 (6) "Consumer" of an assistive technology device means the person who is a party,

23 use; since its manufacture; only for the purpose of demonstrating the device to the public or 24 prospective buyers or lessees.

25 (9) "Early termination cost" means any expense or obligation that a lessor incurs as a 26 result of both the termination of a written lease before the termination date set forth in that lease 27 and the return of the device to the manufacturer. Early termination cost includes a penalty for 28 prepayment under a finance arrangement.

29 (10) "Early termination savings" means any expense or obligation that a lessor avoids as 30 a result of both the termination of a written lease before the termination date set forth in that lease 31 and the return of the device to the manufacturer, which shall include an interest charge that the 32 lessor would have paid to finance the device or, if the lessor does not finance the device, the 33 difference between the total amount for which the lease obligates the consumer during the period 34 of the lease term remaining after the early termination and the present value of that amount at the 1 date of the early termination.

2 (11) "Individual with disabilities" means any individual who is considered to have a 3 mental or physical disability or impairment for the purposes of any other law of this state or of the 4 United States, including any rules or regulations under this state or of the United States.

5 (12) "Loaner" means a device provided to the consumer for use by the user free of 6 charge that need not be new, ~~or nor~~ be identical to, ~~or nor~~ have functional capabilities equal to or 7 greater than those of the original device, but that meets the following conditions:

8 (i) It is in good working order;

9 (ii) It performs at a minimum the most essential functions of the original device, in light 10 of the disabilities of the user; and 11 (iii) Any differences between it and the original device do not create a threat to safety.

13 (i) The person who manufactures or assembles an assistive technology device;

14 (ii) The person who manufactures or assembles a product that becomes a component 15 product of an assistive technology device system, to the extent such product is itself ordinarily an 16 assistive technology device; and

17 (iii) Agents of a person described in subsection (13)(i) or (13)(ii) of this section, 18 including an importer, a distributor, factory branch, distributor branch, and any warrantors of the 19 manufacturer's devices, provided that such agents shall not include, with respect to a particular 20 transaction, the dealer, unless the dealer is also a person described in subsection (13)(i) or (13)(ii) 21 of this section.

22 (14) "Nonconformity" of an assistive technology device means any failure of the device 23 to conform to any applicable express or implied warranties that substantially impairs the use, 24 value, or safety of the device. The implied warranties described in the preceding sentence include, 25 but are not limited to, the implied warranty of merchantability described in ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-314
26 or 6A-2.1-212, and the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose described in ~~section~~ §§ 27 6A-2-315 or 6A-2.1-213 and subject to the provisions of ~~section~~ § 6-45-2.

34 6-45-2. Effect on implied warranties of Uniform Commercial Code. -- (a) For

1 purposes of ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-314 or 6A-2.1-212 and ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-315 or 6A-2.1-213, with 2 respect to a sale or a lease of an assistive technology device, the term "seller" or "lessor" includes 3 the manufacturer of the device.

4 (b) For purposes of ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-315 or 6A-2.1-213, with respect to a sale or lease of 5 an assistive technology device, the seller or lessor shall be deemed to know that the particular 6 purpose, for which the device is required, is to increase, maintain, or improve those functional 7 capabilities that are appropriate to the kind of device involved; in light of any knowledge that the 8 seller or lessor may have acquired of the disabilities of the consumer.

9 (c) For purposes of ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-315 or 6A-2.1-213, with respect to a sale or lease of 10 an assistive technology device, the seller or lessor shall be deemed to know that the consumer is 11 relying on the seller's or lessor's skill or judgment to select or furnish a suitable device in light of 12 the knowledge that the seller or lessor has, or is deemed to have by reason of subsection (b) of 13 this section, unless the consumer specifies a particular device and signs and is furnished a copy of 14 a writing that:

15 (1) Particularly describes the device that the consumer is specifying;

16 (2) States that this person is specifying that device described; and 17 (3) Contains the following notice, conspicuously in type that is at least four \(4\) points 18 larger than the surrounding text: "There is no warranty (guarantee) that this product will be fit for 19 your particular needs. There is only a warranty (guarantee) that the product will be fit for the 20 purposes that it ordinarily meets. This is because you have specified the product you want to buy 21 instead of relying on the seller's/lessor's knowledge to help choose one based upon your particular 22 needs."

23 (d) With respect to a sale or lease of an assistive technology device, the implied warranty 24 of merchantability described in ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-314 or 6A-2.1-212; and the implied warranty of 25 fitness for a particular purpose described in ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-315 or 6A-2.1-213; shall not be 26 excluded or modified, pursuant to ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-316 or 6A-2.1-214 or otherwise.

27 6-45-3. Repair of assistive technology device with nonconformity. -- (a) If a new 28 assistive technology device or demonstrator has a nonconformity and the consumer first reports 29 that nonconformity to the manufacturer of the device or its authorized dealer within Term B, then 30 the manufacturer of the device shall be jointly obligated, together with any authorized dealer; if 31 an assistive technology device dealer was involved in the sale or lease of the device, to effect any 32 repairs as are necessary to conform the device to all warranties, notwithstanding that those repairs 33 might be made after the expiration of Term B.

34 (b) For all purposes of this chapter, a consumer reports a nonconformity when he or she:

1 (1) Makes any communication, written or oral, that describes a problem with the device, 2 or that may be reasonably understood as an expression of dissatisfaction with any aspect of the 3 operation of the device, which communication need only indicate in any way the nature of the 4 problem, such as an indication of the functions that the device is not achieving or achieving 5 unsatisfactorily to the consumer, and need not be in technical language or attempt to state the 6 cause of the problem;

7 (2) Does not refuse to make the device available to the manufacturer or dealer for repair; 8 and

9 (3) The problem indicated by the consumer's communication constitutes, or is caused by, 10 a nonconformity.

11 (c) It shall be presumed that the consumer has made the device available to the 12 manufacturer or dealer for repair if he or she allows the manufacturer or dealer to take it from the 13 consumer's home or other location where the user customarily uses the device. The consumer 14 shall be required to deliver the device to another location only upon a showing that it would be a 15 substantially greater hardship for the manufacturer and dealer to take the device from the 16 consumer's home, or other location where the user customarily uses the device, than for the 17 consumer to deliver the device.

18 (d) Whether or not the rights of the consumer provided by ~~section §~~ 6-45-5(a) have 19 arisen, and in addition to the remedies relating to collateral costs provided by this chapter, a 20 person who is under an obligation to repair pursuant to this section is obliged immediately to 21 provide the consumer a loaner; if the absence of a loaner would be a threat to the safety of the 22 user, but in any event when the out-of-service period exceeds seven (7) days; as determined by 23 ~~section §§~~ 6-45-4(b) and (c).

24 6-45-4. Reasonable number of attempts to repair. -- (a) A "reasonable number of 25 attempts to repair" an assistive technology device with a nonconformity means the occurrence of 26 one or both of the following:

27 (1) The same nonconformity; that is first reported during Term A; is subject to repair two 28 (2) or more times during Term B; ~~or~~

29 (2) The device is out-of-service for an aggregate of thirty (30) or more calendar days 30 during Term A because of one or more nonconformities.

31 (b) For purposes of counting the days for which a device is out-of-service because of one 32 or more nonconformities, an out-of-service period shall begin with and include the day ~~which~~ that 33 is the later of:

34 (1) The day the nonconformity first appears; ~~or~~

1 (2) The business day prior to the day on which the consumer first reports the 2 nonconformity to the manufacturer of the device or its authorized dealer.

3 (c) For purposes of counting the days for which a device is out-of-service because of one 4 or more nonconformities, an out-of-service period shall end with and include; the day on which 5 the device is returned after repair, and is then free of nonconformities, to the possession of the 6 consumer, unless this return is made by 10:00 a.m. of that day; in which case the out-of-service 7 period shall end with and include the previous day.

8 (d) In the event an out-of-service period has commenced during Term A, then for 9 purposes of subsection (a)(2) ~~of this section~~, Term A shall continue until the end of this out-of-10 service period.

11 6-45-5. Replacement or refund for device. -- (a) If, after a reasonable number of 12 attempts to repair, a nonconformity develops in a new assistive technology device or 13 demonstrator, the manufacturer shall carry out the requirement under subsections (a)(1) and (a)(2) 14 ~~of this section~~, at the sole option of the consumer upon his or her request for it:

15 (1) (i) In the case of a sale, the manufacturer shall refund to the consumer and to any 16 holder of a perfected security interest, as their interest may appear, the full purchase price plus 17 any finance charge or sales tax paid by the consumer at the point of sale and collateral costs, less 18 a reasonable allowance for use.

19 (ii) In the case of a lease, the manufacturer shall refund to the lessor and to any holder of 20 a perfected security interest, as their interest may appear, the current value of the lease and refund 21 to the consumer the amount that the consumer paid under the lease plus any collateral costs, less a 22 reasonable allowance for use.

23 (2) The manufacturer shall provide a conforming replacement.

24 (b) (1) To receive the refund described in subsection (a)(1) ~~of this section~~ or the 25 replacement described in subsection (a)(2) ~~of this section~~, the consumer shall offer to the 26 manufacturer of the device or its authorized dealer to transfer possession of the device.

27 (2) The manufacturer shall make the refund required by this section within fourteen (14) 28 calendar days after the offer described in this subsection.

29 (3) The manufacturer shall make the replacement required by this section within thirty 30 (30) calendar days after the offer described in this subsection.

31 (4) If the replacement required by this section is not made within fourteen (14) calendar 32 days after the offer described in this subsection, then the manufacturer shall provide the consumer 33 a loaner for use until replacement is made.

34 (5) The manufacturer may require that, simultaneously with the manufacturer timely

1 making the refund payment described in subsection (a)(1) of this section or the replacement 2 described in subsection (a)(2) of this section, the consumer shall deliver possession of the original 3 device to the manufacturer or its authorized dealer and sign any documents necessary to, or to 4 provide reasonable evidence of, a transfer of title and possession of the device to any person as 5 the manufacturer shall designate.

6 (6) The manufacturer may impose the requirements described in subsection (b)(5) of this 7 section only if:

8 (i) The time and place of the mutual activities described in subsections (b)(2), (b)(3), and 9 (b)(5) ~~of this section~~ are readily accessible to the consumer; and 10 (ii) The manufacturer provides the consumer a writing that is received no later than four 11 (4) business days before the time of these mutual activities; and states in clear and understandable 12 language the time and place of these mutual activities and the requirements allowed by subsection 13 (b)(5) ~~of this section~~ that the consumer must meet at that time and place.

14 (c) A reasonable allowance for use shall be that amount obtained by multiplying the full 15 purchase price (or in the case of a lease, the total amount for which the lease obligates the 16 consumer) by a fraction, the denominator of which is the number of days in the useful life of the 17 device and the numerator of which is the number of days after delivery of the device to the 18 consumer and prior to the beginning of the first out-of-service period as defined in ~~section~~ § 6-45-19 4(b).

20 (d) As used in subsection (c) of this section, the useful life of the device equals the 21 greater of:

22 (1) Five (5) years; or

23 (2) Any other time that the consumer may prove to be the expected useful life of devices 24 of the same kind.

25 (e) The current value of the lease equals the total amount for which that lease obligates 26 the consumer during the period of the lease remaining after its early termination, plus the lessor's 27 early termination costs and the value of the device at the lease expiration date, less the lessor's 28 early termination savings.

29 (f) In the case of a manufacturer of an assistive technology device system of which one 30 or more component products are not new, if the dealer gives the consumer, prior to his or her 31 decision to enter into the sale or lease, a written statement specifying the component products that 32 are not new; and containing the following statement: "You will not have replace-or-refund rights 33 under the Assistive Technology Lemon Law for the component products listed on this sheet."
34 then the manufacturer shall not have the duties and liabilities of a manufacturer under this section

1 with respect to these component products, but only with respect to component products that are 2 new and to the work performed by the manufacturer in creating the assistive technology device 3 system.

4 6-45-7. Remedies. -- (a) In addition to pursuing any other remedy, a consumer may bring 5 an action to recover any damages caused by a violation of this chapter, plus taxable costs and 6 reasonable attorneys' fees. For a violation of any of the obligations provided by ~~section~~ § 6-45-7 5(a), whether relative to a refund as described in ~~section~~ § 6-45-5(a)(1) or to a replacement as 8 described in ~~section~~ § 6-45-5(a)(2), the court shall award damages equal to the greater of:

9 (1) Actual damages; or

10 (2) The sum of:

11 (i) Two (2) times the amount obtained as:

12 (A) The amount that should have been refunded under ~~section~~ § 6-45-5(a)(1); or that 13 should have been refunded under ~~section~~ § 6-45-5(a)(1) had the consumer chosen that option; 14 minus

15 (B) The amount that was actually refunded, if any; minus

16 (C) The amount, if any, of the difference between the amounts described in clauses (A) 17 and (B) that was attributable to a good faith dispute by the manufacturer as to:

18 (I) The amount of collateral costs; or

19 (II) The length of a useful life greater than five (5) years in calculating the reasonable 20 allowance for use under ~~section~~ §§ 6-45-5(c) and 6-45-5(d); and 21 (ii) The amount described in ~~subparagraph~~ subsection (a)(2)(i)(C) of this section.

22 (b) Actual damages caused by a violation of this chapter shall include collateral costs, 23 beginning at the time of the violation, whether or not the consumer acquired the rights provided 24 by ~~section~~ § 6-45-5(a).

25 (c) The remedies of a buyer or lessee described in ~~section~~ §§ 6A-2-715 or 6A-2.1-520, 26 with respect to an assistive technology device, shall not be excluded or limited.

27 (d) The rights and remedies provided to the consumer by this chapter shall be in addition 28 to those available under any other law.

29 (e) Any waiver by a consumer of rights under this chapter is void.

30 SECTION 33. Sections 6-46-2, 6-46-3, 6-46-4, 6-46-5, 6-46-6, 6-46-7 and 6-46-11 of the 31 General Laws in Chapter 6-46 entitled "Equipment Dealerships" are hereby amended to read as 32 follows:

33 6-46-2. Definitions. -- For the purposes of this chapter, the terms defined in this section 34 have the following meanings:

1 (1) "Current net price" means the price listed in the supplier's price list or catalog in 2 effect at the time the dealer agreement is terminated, less any applicable discounts allowed.

3 (2) "Dealer" means a person, corporation, or partnership primarily engaged in the 4 business of retail sales of farm and utility tractors, forestry equipment, industrial or construction 5 equipment, farm implements, farm machinery, yard and garden equipment, attachments, 6 accessories, and repair parts. The term "dealer" shall not include a single-line dealer primarily 7 engaged in the retail sale and service of industrial, forestry, and construction equipment.

8 (3) "Dealer agreement" means a written or oral contract or agreement between a dealer 9 and a wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor by which the dealer is granted the right to sell or 10 distribute goods or services or to use a trade name, trademark, service mark, logotype, or 11 advertising or other commercial symbol.

12 (4) "Inventory" means farm, utility, forestry, industrial or construction equipment, 13 implements, machinery, yard and garden equipment, attachments, or repair parts.

14 (5) "Net cost" means the price the dealer paid the supplier for the inventory, less all 15 applicable discounts allowed, plus the amount the dealer paid for freight costs from the supplier's 16 location to the dealer's location. In the event of termination of a dealer agreement by the supplier, 17 "net cost" includes the reasonable cost of assembly and/or disassembly performed by a dealer.

18 (6) "Single-line dealer" means a person, partnership, or corporation who or that:

19 (i) Has purchased seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the dealer's total new product 20 inventory from a single supplier; and

21 (ii) Who has a total annual average sales volume for the previous three (3) years in 22 excess of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) for the entire territory for which the dealer is 23 responsible.

24 (7) "Supplier" means a wholesaler, manufacturer, or distributor of inventory who enters 25 into a dealer agreement with a dealer.

26 (8) "Termination" of a dealer agreement means the cancellation, non-renewal, or non-27 continuance of the agreement.

28 6-46-3. Notice of termination of dealer agreements. -- (a) Notwithstanding any 29 agreement to the contrary, prior to the termination of a dealer agreement, a supplier shall notify 30 the dealer of the termination not less than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the effective 31 date of the termination. No supplier may terminate, cancel, or fail to renew a dealer agreement 32 without cause. For purposes of this subsection "cause" means failure by an equipment dealer to 33 comply with requirements imposed upon the equipment dealer by the dealer agreement, provided 34 the requirements are not substantially different from those requirements imposed upon other

1 similarly situated dealers in this state.

2 (b) The supplier may immediately terminate the agreement at any time upon the 3 occurrence of any of the following events:

4 (1) The filing of a petition for bankruptcy or for receivership either by or against the 5 dealer;

6 (2) The making by the dealer of an intentional and material misrepresentation as to the 7 dealer's financial status;

8 (3) Any default by the dealer under a chattel mortgage or other security agreement 9 between the dealer and the supplier;

10 (4) The commencement of voluntary or involuntary dissolution or liquidation of the 11 dealer if the dealer is a partnership or corporation;

12 (5) A change in location of the dealer's principal place of business as provided in the 13 agreement without the prior written approval of the supplier;

14 (6) Withdrawal of an individual proprietor, partner, major shareholder, or the involuntary 15 termination of the manager of the dealership, or a substantial reduction in the interest of a partner 16 or major shareholder without the prior written consent of the supplier.

17 (c) Unless there is an agreement to the contrary, a dealer who intends to terminate a 18 dealer agreement with a supplier shall notify the supplier of that intent not less than one hundred 19 twenty (120) days prior to the effective date of the termination.

20 (d) Notification required by either party under this section shall be in writing and shall be 21 made by certified mail or by personal delivery and shall contain:

22 (1) A statement of intention to terminate the dealer agreement;

23 (2) A statement of the reasons for the termination; and 24 (3) The date on which the termination shall be effective.

25 6-46-4. Supplier's duty to repurchase inventory. -- (a) Whenever a dealer enters into a 26 dealer agreement under which the dealer agrees to maintain an inventory, and the agreement is 27 terminated by either party as provided in this chapter, the supplier, upon written request of the 28 dealer filed within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the termination, shall repurchase the 29 dealer's inventory as provided in this chapter. There shall be no requirement for the supplier to 30 repurchase inventory pursuant to this section if:

31 (1) The dealer has made an intentional and material misrepresentation as to the dealer's 32 financial status;

33 (2) The dealer has defaulted under the chattel mortgage or other security agreement 34 between the dealer and supplier; or

1 (3) The dealer has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy.

2 (b) Whenever a dealer enters into a dealer agreement in which the dealer agrees to 3 maintain an inventory and the dealer or the majority stockholder of the dealer, if the dealer is a 4 corporation, dies, or becomes incompetent, the supplier shall, at the option of the heir, personal 5 representative, ~~or~~ guardian of the dealer, or the person who succeeds to the stock of the majority 6 stockholder, repurchase the inventory as if the agreement had been terminated. The heir, personal 7 representative, guardian, or succeeding stockholder has six (6) months from the date of the death 8 of the dealer or majority stockholder to exercise the option under this chapter.

9 6-46-5. Repurchase terms. -- (a) Within ninety (90) days from the receipt of the written 10 request of the dealer, a supplier under the duty to repurchase inventory pursuant to this chapter 11 may examine any books or records of the dealer to verify the eligibility of any item for 12 repurchase. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the supplier shall repurchase from the 13 dealer all inventory, required signage, special tools, books, supplies, data processing equipment, 14 and software previously purchased from the supplier or other qualified vendor in the possession 15 of the dealer on the date of termination of the dealer agreement.

16 (b) The supplier shall pay the dealer:

17 (1) One hundred percent (100%) of the net cost of all new and undamaged and complete 18 farm and utility tractors, forestry equipment, light industrial equipment, farm implements, farm 19 machinery, or yard and garden equipment purchased within the past thirty six (36) months from 20 the supplier, less a reasonable allowance for deterioration attributable to weather conditions at the 21 dealer's location;

22 (2) Ninety percent (90%) of the current net prices of all new and undamaged repair parts;

23 (3) Eighty-five percent (85%) of the current net price of all new and undamaged 24 superseded repair parts;

25 (4) Eighty-five percent (85%) of the latest available published net price of all new and 26 undamaged non-current repair parts;

27 (5) Either the fair market value, or assume the lease responsibilities of any specific data 28 processing hardware that the supplier required the equipment dealer to acquire or purchase to 29 satisfy the reasonable requirements of the dealer agreement, including computer systems 30 equipment required and approved by the supplier to communicate with the supplier;

31 (6) Repurchase at seventy-five percent (75%) of the net cost specialized repair tools, 32 signage, books, and supplies previously purchased pursuant to requirements of the supplier and 33 held by the equipment dealer on the date of termination. Specialized repair tools must be unique 34 to the supplier product line and must be complete and in usable condition; and

1 (7) Repurchase, at average, as-is value shown in current industry guides, dealer-owned 2 rental fleet financed by the supplier or its finance subsidiary.

3 (c) The party that initiates the termination of the dealer agreement shall pay the cost of 4 the return, handling, packing, and loading of this inventory.

5 (d) Payment to the dealer required under this section shall be made by the supplier not 6 later than forty-five (45) days after receipt of the inventory by the supplier. A penalty shall be 7 assessed in the amount of two percent (2%) per day of any outstanding balance over the required 8 forty-five (45) days. The supplier shall be entitled to apply any payment required under this 9 section to be made to the dealer, as a set-off against any amount owed by the dealer to the 10 supplier.

11 6-46-6. Exceptions to repurchase requirement. -- The provisions of this chapter shall 12 not require the repurchase from a dealer of:

13 (1) A repair part with a limited storage life or otherwise subject to physical or structural 14 deterioration including, but not limited to, gaskets or batteries;

15 (2) A single repair part normally priced and sold in a set of two or more items;

16 (3) A repair part that, because of its condition, cannot be marketed as a new part without 17 repackaging or reconditioning by the supplier or manufacturer;

18 (4) Any inventory that the dealer elects to retain;

19 (5) Any inventory ordered by the dealer after receipt of notice of termination of the 20 dealer agreement by either the dealer or supplier;

21 (6) Any inventory that was acquired by the dealer from a source other than the supplier.

22 6-46-7. Transfer of business. -- (a) No supplier shall unreasonably withhold or delay 23 consent to any transfer of the dealer's business or transfer of the stock or other interest in the 24 dealership, whenever the dealer to be substituted meets the material and reasonable business and 25 financial requirements of the supplier. Should a supplier determine that a proposed transferee 26 does not meet these requirements, it shall give the dealer written notice stating the specific 27 reasons for withholding consent. No prospective transferee may be disqualified to be a dealer 28 because it is a publicly held corporation. A supplier shall have ninety (90) days to consider a 29 dealer's request to make a transfer under this subsection.

30 (b) No supplier shall unreasonably withhold consent to the transfer of the dealer's 31 business to a member or members of the family of the dealer or the principal owner of the 32 dealership, if the family member meets the reasonable business ability, business experience, and 33 character standards of the supplier, and if the transferee can demonstrate that the dealership will 34 be adequately capitalized. Should a supplier determine that the designated family member does

1 not meet those requirements, the supplier shall provide the dealer with written notice of the 2 supplier's objection and specific reasons for withholding its consent. As used in this subsection, 3 "family" means and includes the spouse, parent, siblings, children, stepchildren, and lineal 4 descendants, including those by adoption of the dealer or principal owner of the dealership.

5 (c) In any dispute as to whether a supplier has denied consent in violation of this section, 6 the supplier shall have the burden of proving a substantial and reasonable justification for the 7 denial of consent.

8 6-46-11. Waiver of chapter void. -- (a) The provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to 9 be incorporated in every agreement and shall supersede and control all other provisions of the 10 agreement. No supplier may require any dealer to waive compliance with any provision of this 11 chapter. Any contract or agreement purporting to do so is void and unenforceable to the extent of 12 the waiver or variance.

13 (b) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to limit or prohibit good-faith settlements 14 of disputes voluntarily entered into between the parties.

15 SECTION 34. Sections 6-47-1 and 6-47-2 of the General Laws in Chapter 6-47 entitled 16 "Internet Access and Advertising by Facsimile" are hereby amended to read as follows:

17 6-47-1. Advertising by fax. -- (a) No person or entity conducting business in the state of 18 Rhode Island shall transmit by facsimile (fax), or cause to be faxed, documents consisting of 19 unsolicited advertising material for the lease, sale, rental, gift offer, or other disposition of any 20 realty, goods, services, or extension of credit unless:

21 (1) In the case of a fax, that person or entity must establish a toll-free telephone number 22 that a recipient of the unsolicited faxed documents may call to notify the sender not to fax the 23 recipient any further unsolicited documents.

24 (2) In the case of faxed material, the statement shall be in at least nine ~~(9) point~~ -point (9)
25 type. The statement shall be the first text in the body of the message and shall be of the same size 26 as the majority of the text of the message.

27 (b) Upon notification by a recipient of his or her request not to receive any further 28 unsolicited fax, no person or entity conducting business in the state of Rhode Island shall fax or 29 cause to be faxed any unsolicited documents to that recipient.

30 (c) As used in this chapter, "unsolicited fax" means any document or documents 31 consisting of advertising material for the lease, sale, rental, gift offer, or other disposition of any 32 realty, goods, services, or extension of credit that meet both of the following requirements:

33 (1) The documents are addressed to a recipient with whom the initiator does not have an 34 existing business or personal relationship.

1 (2) The documents are not sent at the request of, or with the express consent of, the 2 recipient.

3 (d) As used in this chapter, "fax" or "caused to be faxed" does not include or refer to the 4 transmission of any documents by a telecommunications utility or ~~Internet~~ internet service
5 provider to the extent that the telecommunications utility or ~~Internet~~ internet service provider 6 merely carries that transmission over its network.

7 (e) The recipient of an unsolicited fax, transmitted in violation of subsection (b) of this 8 section, may bring a civil action in superior court against the person or entity that transmitted the 9 unsolicited fax or caused it to be transmitted in violation of subsection (b). Any transmission of 10 an unsolicited fax in violation of subsection (b) shall be considered a violation of chapter ~~6-13.1~~
11 of this title, known as the Deceptive Trade Practices Act, and may subject the person or entity 12 that transmitted, or caused to be transmitted, the unsolicited fax to prosecution by the attorney 13 general pursuant to chapter ~~6-13.1~~ of this title. In any such action by either the recipient of such 14 unsolicited fax or the attorney general on behalf of the recipient or recipients, damages may be 15 awarded in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) for each violation, not to exceed a total of 16 fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The attorney general may, in such circumstances as he or she 17 may deem appropriate, aggregate multiple claims against a person or entity alleged to have 18 committed multiple violations of this section; and maintain a class action on behalf of all 19 recipients of the unsolicited faxes. In any action brought under this section, the court may award, 20 in addition to the relief provided in this section, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

21 6-47-2. Unsolicited electronic mail. -- (a) No person or entity may initiate the 22 transmission of a commercial electronic mail message from a computer located in Rhode Island 23 or to an electronic mail address that the sender knows, or has reason to know, is held by a Rhode 24 Island resident unless that person or entity establishes a toll-free telephone number or valid sender 25 operated return e-mail address that the recipient of the unsolicited documents may call or e-mail 26 to notify the sender not to e-mail any further unsolicited documents.

27 (b) All unsolicited commercial electronic messages subject to this section shall include a 28 statement informing the recipient of the toll-free telephone number that the recipient may call, or 29 a valid return address to which the recipient may write or e-mail, as the case may be, notifying the 30 sender not to e-mail the recipient any further unsolicited commercial electronic mail messages to 31 the e-mail address or addresses specified by the recipient.

32 (c) Upon notification by a recipient of his or her request not to receive any further 33 unsolicited commercial electronic mail messages, no person or entity subject to subsection (a)

4 party's internet domain name without permission of the third party, or otherwise fraudulently 5 misrepresents any information in identifying the point of origin or the transmission path of a 6 commercial electronic mail message.

7 (e) As used in this section, "commercial electronic messages" means any e-mailed 8 document or documents consisting of commercial advertising material, the principal purpose of 9 which is to promote the for-profit sale or lease of goods or services to the recipient and ~~which~~ that 10 meet both of the following requirements:

18 merely carries that transmission over its network.

19 (g) For purposes of this section, a person or entity has reason to know that the intended 20 recipient of a commercial electronic mail message is a Rhode Island resident if the recipient has 21 requested of the sender not to receive any further unsolicited commercial electronic messages.

22 (h) Any person or entity who or that violates the provisions of this chapter shall be liable 23 for damages to the recipient of an unsolicited commercial electronic mail message in the amount 24 of one hundred dollars ($100) for each such violation. In addition, the recipient may recover 25 reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

16 agency, or to a consumer who is of sixty-five (65) years of age or older.

17 (b) Entities not required to place a security freeze.

18 ~~(a)~~ The following entities are not required to place a security freeze on a credit report:

32 (4) Any database or file ~~which~~ that consists of any information adverse to the interests of 33 the consumer, including, but not limited to, criminal record information, personal loss history 34 information, information used for fraud prevention or detection, tenant screening, and

2 6-48-6. Notice of rights. -- ~~At any~~ Any time that a consumer is required to receive a 3 summary of rights required under section 609 of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, (15 U.S.C.
4 section 1681 et. seq.) the following notice shall be included:

5 Consumers have the right to obtain a security freeze

6 You may obtain a security freeze on your credit report to protect your privacy and ensure 7 that credit is not granted in your name without your knowledge. You have a right to place a 8 "security freeze" on your credit report pursuant ~~to the R.I.G.L. to chapter 6-48~~ chapter 48 of title 9 6 ~~to~~ of the Identity Theft Prevention Act of 2006.

10 The security freeze will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing any 11 information in your credit report without your express authorization or approval.

12 The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being 13 approved in your name without your consent. When you place a security freeze on your credit 14 report, within five (5) business days you will be provided a personal identification number or 15 password to use if you choose to remove the freeze on your credit report or to temporarily 16 authorize the release of your credit report for a specific period of time after the freeze is in place.
17 To provide that authorization, you must contact the consumer reporting agency and provide all of 18 the following:

19 (1) The unique personal identification number or password provided by the consumer 20 reporting agency.

21 (2) Proper identification to verify your identity.

22 (3) The proper information regarding the period of time for which the report shall be 23 available to users of the credit report.

24 A consumer reporting agency that receives a request from a consumer to temporarily lift 25 a freeze on a credit report shall comply with the request no later than three (3) business days after 26 receiving the request.

27 A security freeze does not apply to circumstances where you have an existing account 28 relationship and a copy of your report is requested by your existing creditor or its agents or 29 affiliates for certain types of an account review, collection, fraud control, or similar activities.

30 If you are actively seeking a new credit, loan, utility, telephone, or insurance account, 31 you should understand that the procedures involved in lifting a security freeze may slow your 32 own applications for credit. You should plan ahead and lift a freeze -- either completely, if you 33 are shopping around, or specifically for a certain creditor -- with enough advance notice before 34 you apply for new credit for the lifting to take effect.

1 You have a right to bring a civil action against someone who violates your rights under 2 the credit reporting laws. The action can be brought against a consumer reporting agency or a 3 user of your credit report.

4 Unless you are sixty-five (65) years of age or older, or you are a victim of identity theft 5 with an incident report or complaint from a law enforcement agency, a consumer reporting 6 agency has the right to charge you up to ten dollars ($10.00) to place a freeze on your credit 7 report; up to ten dollars ($10.00) to temporarily lift a freeze on your credit report, depending on 8 the circumstances; and up to ten dollars ($10.00) to remove a freeze from your credit report. If 9 you are sixty-five (65) years of age or older or are a victim ~~of~~ ~~{of}~~ identity theft with a valid 10 incident report or complaint, you may not be charged a fee by a consumer reporting agency for 11 placing, temporarily lifting, or removing a freeze.

20 court may award costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to a prevailing party.

21 SECTION 37. Sections 6-50-2, 6-50-4, 6-50-3, 6-50-5, 6-50-6, 6-50-7 and 6-50-9 of the

34 (7) Section 6A-8-110;

1 (8) Sections 6A-9-301 through ~~9-307~~ 6A-9-307.

2 SECTION 43. Sections 6A-2-310, 6A-2-321, 6A-2-324, 6A-2-503, 6A-2-509, 6A-2-515, 3 6A-2-616 and 6A-2-711 of the General Laws in Chapter 6A-2 entitled "Sales" are hereby 4 amended to read as follows:

5 6A-2-310. Open time for payment or running of credit -- Authority to ship under 6 reservation. -- Unless otherwise agreed~~;~~:

7 (a) Payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the goods even 8 though the place of shipment is the place of delivery; and 9 (b) If the seller is authorized to send the goods he or she may ship them under 10 reservation, and may tender the documents of title, but the buyer may inspect the goods after their 11 arrival before payment is due unless such inspection is inconsistent with the terms of the contract 12 (section 6A-2-513); and

13 (c) If delivery is authorized and made by way of documents of title otherwise than by 14 subsection (b) then payment is due regardless of where the goods are to be received: (i) at the 15 time and place at which the buyer is to receive delivery of the tangible documents; or (ii) at the 16 time the buyer is to receive the electronic documents and at the seller's place of business or if 17 none, the seller's residence; and

18 (d) Where the seller is required or authorized to ship the goods on credit the credit period 19 runs from the time of shipment, but postdating the invoice or delaying its dispatch will 20 correspondingly delay the starting of the credit period.

21 6A-2-321. C.I.F. or C. & F. -- "Net landed weights" -- "Payment on arrival" --
22 Warranty of condition on arrival. -- Under a contract containing a term C.I.F. or C. & F.~~;~~:

23 (1) Where the price is based on or is to be adjusted according to "net landed weights", 24 "delivered weights", "out turn" quantity or quality or the like, unless otherwise agreed, the seller 25 must reasonably estimate the price. The payment due on tender of the documents called for by the 26 contract is the amount so estimated, but after final adjustment of the price a settlement must be 27 made with commercial promptness.

28 (2) An agreement described in subsection (1) or any warranty of quality or condition of 29 the goods on arrival places upon the seller the risk of ordinary deterioration, shrinkage, and the 30 like in transportation, but has no effect on the place or time of identification to the contract for 31 sale or delivery or on the passing of the risk of loss.

32 (3) Unless otherwise agreed, where the contract provides for payment on or after arrival 33 of the goods the seller must, before payment allow such preliminary inspection as is feasible; but 34 if the goods are lost, delivery of the documents and payment are due when the goods should have 1 arrived.

2 6A-2-324. "No arrival, no sale" term. -- Under a term "no arrival, no sale" or terms of 3 like meaning, unless otherwise agreed;

4 (a) The seller must properly ship conforming goods and if they arrive by any means he 5 or she must tender them on arrival, but he or she assumes no obligation that the goods will arrive 6 unless he or she has caused the nonarrival; and

7 (b) Where without fault of the seller the goods are in part lost or have so deteriorated as 8 no longer to conform to the contract or arrive after the contract time, the buyer may proceed as if 9 there had been casualty to identified goods (section § 6A-2-613).

10 6A-2-503. Manner of seller's tender of delivery. -- (1) Tender of delivery requires that 11 the seller put and hold conforming goods at the buyer's disposition and give the buyer any 12 notification reasonably necessary to enable him or her to take delivery. The manner, time, and 13 place for tender are determined by the agreement and this chapter, and, in particular;

14 (a) Tender must be at a reasonable hour, and if it is of goods they must be kept available 15 for the period reasonably necessary to enable the buyer to take possession; but 16 (b) Unless otherwise agreed the buyer must furnish facilities reasonably suited to the 17 receipt of the goods.

18 (2) Where the case is within the next section respecting shipment, tender requires that the 19 seller comply with its provisions.

20 (3) Where the seller is required to deliver at a particular destination tender requires that 21 he or she comply with subsection (1), and also in any appropriate case tender documents as 22 described in subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

23 (4) Where goods are in the possession of a bailee and are to be delivered without being 24 moved,

25 (a) Tender requires that the seller either tender a negotiable document of title covering 26 such goods or procure acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the 27 goods; but

28 (b) Tender to the buyer of a nonnegotiable document of title or of a record directing the 29 bailee to deliver is sufficient tender unless the buyer seasonably objects, and except as otherwise 30 provided in chapter 9 of this title receipt by the bailee of notification of the buyer's rights fixes 31 those rights as against the bailee and all third persons; but risk of loss of the goods and any failure 32 by the bailee to honor the nonnegotiable document of title or to obey the direction remains on the 33 seller until the buyer has had a reasonable time to present the document or direction, and a refusal 34 by the bailee to honor the document or to obey the direction defeats the tender.

1 (5) Where the contract requires the seller to deliver documents, 2 (a) He or she must tender all such documents in correct form, except as provided in this 3 chapter with respect to bills of lading in a set (~~section~~ § 6A-2-323(2)); and

4 (b) Tender through customary banking channels is sufficient and dishonor of a draft 5 accompanying or associated with the documents constitutes nonacceptance or rejection.

6 6A-2-509. Risk of loss in the absence of breach. -- (1) Where the contract requires or 7 authorizes the seller to ship the goods by carrier;

8 (a) If it does not require him or her to deliver them at a particular destination, the risk of 9 loss passes to the buyer when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier even though the 10 shipment is under reservation (~~section~~ § 6A-2-505); but

11 (b) If it does require him or her to deliver them at a particular destination and the goods 12 are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the buyer 13 when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the buyer to take delivery.

14 (2) Where the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of 15 loss passes to the buyer:

- 16 (a) On his or her receipt of a negotiable document of title covering the goods; or
- 17 (b) On acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; or
- 18 (c) After his or her receipt of possession or control of a nonnegotiable document of title 19 or other direction to deliver in a record, as provided in ~~section~~ § 6A-2-503(4)(b).

20 (3) In any case not within subsection (1) or (2), the risk of loss passes to the buyer on his 21 or her receipt of the goods if the seller is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the buyer on 22 tender of delivery.

23 (4) The provisions of this section are subject to contrary agreement of the parties and to 24 the provisions of this chapter on sale on approval (~~section~~ § 6A-2-327) and on effect of breach on 25 risk of loss (~~section~~ § 6A-2-510).

26 6A-2-515. Preserving evidence of goods in dispute. -- In furtherance of the adjustment 27 of any claim or dispute;

28 (a) Either party on reasonable notification to the other and for the purpose of ascertaining 29 the facts and preserving evidence has the right to inspect, test, and sample the goods including 30 such of them as may be in the possession or control of the other; and

31 (b) The parties may agree to a third party inspection or survey to determine the 32 conformity or condition of the goods, and may agree that the findings shall be binding upon them 33 in any subsequent litigation or adjustment.

34 6A-2-616. Procedure on notice claiming excuse. -- (1) Where the buyer receives

1 notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under the preceding section 2 he or she may by written notification to the seller as to any delivery concerned, and where the 3 prospective deficiency substantially impairs the value of the whole contract under the provisions 4 of this chapter relating to breach of installment contracts (~~section~~ § 6A-2-612), then also as to the 5 whole;

6 (a) Terminate and thereby discharge any unexecuted portion of the contract; or 7 (b) Modify the contract by agreeing to take his or her available quota in substitution.

8 (2) If after receipt of such notification from the seller the buyer fails so to modify the 9 contract within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty (30) days the contract lapses with respect 10 to any deliveries affected.

11 (3) The provisions of this section may not be negated by agreement except in so far as 12 the seller has assumed a greater obligation under the preceding section.

13 6A-2-711. Buyer's remedies in general -- Buyer's security interest in rejected goods.

14 == (1) Where the seller fails to make delivery or repudiates or the buyer rightfully rejects or 15 ~~justifiably~~ justifiably revokes acceptance then with respect to any goods involved, and with 16 respect to the whole if the breach goes to the whole contract (~~section~~ § 6A-2-612), the buyer may 17 cancel and whether or not he or she has done so may in addition to recovering so much of the 18 price as has been paid;

19 (a) "Cover" and have damages under the next section as to all the goods affected whether 20 or not they have been identified to the contract; or 21 (b) Recover damages for nondelivery as provided in this chapter (~~section~~ § 6A-2-713).

22 (2) Where the seller fails to deliver or repudiates the buyer may also:

23 (a) If the goods have been identified recover them as provided in this chapter (~~section~~ § 24 6A-2-502); or

25 (b) In a proper case obtain specific performance or replevy the goods as provided in this 26 chapter (~~section~~ § 6A-2-716).

27 (3) On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance a buyer has a security 28 interest in goods in his or her possession or control for any payments made on their price and any 29 expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, care, and custody and 30 may hold such goods and resell them in like manner as an aggrieved seller (~~section~~ § 6A-2-706).

29 44-18-30.B. Exemption from sales tax for sales by writers, composers, artists --
30 Findings. -- (a) The general assembly makes the following findings of facts:

31 (1) The arts and culture are a significant asset for Rhode Island, one ~~which~~ that generates 32 revenue through increased tourism and economic activity; ~~creates jobs and economic~~ 33 opportunities; ~~revitalizes communities adding to quality of life and property values;~~ and fosters 34 creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurship.

1 (2) Since 1998, the establishment of arts districts, where "one-of-a-kind, limited-2 production" works of art may be sold exempt from state sales tax, has resulted in an increased 3 presence for the arts in designated cities and towns, with benefits to those communities and to the 4 state.

5 (3) Since the establishment of arts districts, many communities have sought legislation to 6 expand the program to their city or town.

7 (4) There is value in expanding the arts district program statewide, providing incentives 8 for the sale and purchase of art. This is a unique opportunity for Rhode Island to shape history, 9 and gain an advantage over other states, by becoming the first-and-only state in the country to 10 declare a statewide sales tax exemption on art. This will strengthen Rhode Island's identity as an 11 arts-friendly destination and "State of the Arts".

12 (b) (1) This section only applies to sales by writers, composers, and artists residing in 13 and conducting a business within the state of Rhode Island. For the purposes of this section, a

24 (2) For the purposes of this section, a "work" includes any product generated as a result 25 of any of the above categories.

26 (3) For the purposes of this section, a "work" does not apply to any piece or performance 27 created or executed for industry-oriented, commercial, or related production.

34 jointly, a work or works which that would fall into one of the categories listed in subsection

1 (b)(1).

2 (2) This section also applies to sales by any other gallery located in the state of Rhode 3 Island.

4 (3) The tax administrator shall not make a determination unless:

5 (i) The individual(s) concerned duly make(s) an application to the tax administrator for 6 the sales tax exemption ~~which~~ that applies to the works defined in this section; and

7 (ii) The individual has complied and continues to comply with any and all requests made 8 by the tax administrator.

10 administrator, is entitled to a sales tax exemption for the sale of a work or works sold from the 11 individual's business located in the State of Rhode Island ~~which~~ that would, apart from this 12 section, be subject to the tax rate imposed by the state of Rhode Island.

13 (e) When an individual makes a request for the exemption, the tax administrator is 14 entitled to all books, documents, or other evidence relating to the publication, production, or 15 creation of the works that may be deemed necessary by the tax administrator for the purposes of 16 the exemption. The time period in which to provide this information is in the sole discretion of 17 the tax administrator and specified in the notice.

18 (f) In addition to the information required in subsection (e), the tax administrator may 19 require the individual(s) to submit an annual, certified accounting of the numbers of works sold, 20 the type of work sold, and the date of the sale. Failure to file this report may, in the sole 21 discretion of the tax administrator, terminate the individual's eligibility for the exemption.

22 (g) Any person storing, using, or otherwise consuming in this state any work or works 23 ~~which is~~ deemed to be exempt from the sales tax pursuant to this section is not liable for the use 24 tax on the work or works.

26 may apply shall comply with all the administration, collection, and other provisions of chapters 27 18 and 19 of this title.

29 district program and work with the state tourism agencies, local chambers of commerce, and 30 advertising/marketing agencies to promote this program, and will coordinate its efforts with the 31 city and town governments. The Rhode Island council on the arts may request, and shall receive, 32 from any department, division, board, bureau, commission, or agency of the state any data, 33 assistance, and resources, including additional personnel, that will enable it to properly carry out 34 this program.

1 (5) The tax administrator, in cooperation with the Rhode Island council on the arts, will 2 gather data to assess the overall impact of the statewide arts district program, and issue an annual 3 report, including, but not be limited to, the impact of the tax exemption on employment, tourism, 4 sales, and spending within the arts sector and adjacent businesses, and any other factors that 5 describe the impact of the program.
