STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2014

A N A C T

RELATING TO CRIMINALS -- CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Introduced By: Senators Raptakis, Lombardo, Lombardi, McCaffrey, and Hodgson

Date Introduced: January 09, 2014

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13-8-13 of the General Laws in Chapter 13-8 entitled "Parole" is hereby amended to read as follows:

13-8-13. Life prisoners and prisoners with lengthy sentences. – ~~(a) In the case of a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment for life, a parole permit may be issued at any time after the prisoner has served not less than ten (10) years imprisonment provided, that:~~

~~(1) In the case of a prisoner serving a sentence or sentences of a length making him or her ineligible for a permit in less than ten (10) years, pursuant to sections 13-8-9 and 13-8-10, the permit may be issued at any time after the prisoner has served not less than ten (10) years imprisonment.~~

~~(2) In the case of a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment for life for a first or second degree murder committed after July 10, 1989, the permit may be issued only after the prisoner has served not less than fifteen (15) years imprisonment.~~

~~(3) (i) In the case of a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment for life for a first or second degree murder committed after June 30, 1995, the permit may be issued only after the prisoner has served not less than twenty (20) years imprisonment; and~~

~~(ii) The permit shall be issued only by a unanimous vote of all the attending members of the board, providing that not less than four (4) members are present, and whenever, after the issue of the permit, the prisoner shall be pardoned, then the control of the board over the prisoner shall cease and terminate.~~

~~(4) (i) In the case of a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment for life who is convicted of escape or attempted escape from the lawful custody of the warden of the adult correctional institutions, the permit may be issued only after the prisoner has served not less than twenty-five (25) years imprisonment; and~~

~~(ii) For each subsequent conviction of escape or attempted escape, an additional five (5) years shall be added to the time required to be served.~~

~~(b) In the case of a prisoner sentenced consecutively to more than one life term for crimes occurring after May 7, 1981, the permit may be issued only after the prisoner has served not less than ten (10) years consecutively on each life sentence; provided, in the case of a prisoner sentenced consecutively to more than one life term for crimes occurring after June 30, 1995, the permit may be issued only after the prisoner has served not less than fifteen (15) years consecutively on each life sentence.~~

(a)(1) No person convicted for a first or second degree murder who has been sentenced to a term of life imprisonment shall be eligible for a parole permit until he or she has served at least thirty (30) years of the life sentence.

(2) If any such person shall be sentenced to consecutive life sentences for convictions of more than a single first or second degree murder, he or she shall not be eligible for a parole permit until he or she has served thirty (30) years of each of the life sentences.

(3) No person sentenced to a term of life imprisonment for the commission of a crime other than first or second degree murder, shall be eligible for a parole permit until he or she has served at least twenty (20) years of the life sentence. In the event the person has received consecutive life sentences for crimes other than first or second degree murder, he or she shall be required to serve twenty (20) years of each sentence before being eligible for a parole permit.

(4) The preceding subdivisions (a)(1), (a)(2), and (a)(3), shall apply to crimes committed on or after July 1, 2014. All persons convicted and sentenced for crimes committed prior to July 1, 2014 shall continue to be eligible for a parole permit as provided for at the time of the commission of the particular offense or offenses for which the sentence or sentences were imposed and, if applicable, pursuant to sections 13-8-9 and 13-8-10.

(5) In the case of a prisoner who has been sentenced to a term of life imprisonment for conviction of first or second degree murder committed after July 10, 1989 and prior to June 30, 1995, no parole permit may be issued until the prisoner has served at least fifteen (15) years imprisonment.

(6) In the case of a prisoner who has been sentenced to a term of life imprisonment for conviction of first or second degree murder committed after June 30, 1995 and prior to July 1,

1 2014, no parole permit may be issued until the prisoner has served at least twenty (20) years
2 imprisonment.

3 (7) In the case of a prisoner who has been sentenced consecutively to more than one term
4 of life imprisonment for conviction of crimes, other than first and second degree murder,
5 committed after May 7, 1981 and prior to July 1, 1995, no parole permit may be issued until the
6 prisoner has served at least ten (10) years consecutively on each life sentence.

7 (8) In the case of a prisoner who has been sentenced consecutively to more than one term
8 of life imprisonment for any crimes occurring after June 30, 1995 and prior to July 1, 2014, no
9 parole permit may be issued until the prisoner has served at least fifteen (15) years consecutively
10 on each life sentence.

11 (9) In the case of a prisoner who has been sentenced to a term of life imprisonment and
12 thereafter who is convicted of escape or attempted escape from the lawful custody of the warden
13 of the adult correctional institutions, no parole permit may be issued until the prisoner actually
14 shall have served at least twenty-five (25) years imprisonment; provided, however, that a prisoner
15 who has been sentenced to a term of life imprisonment for conviction of first or second degree
16 murder, committed on or after July 1, 2014, and who is convicted thereafter of escape or
17 attempted escape from the lawful custody of the warden of the adult correctional institutions, no
18 parole permit may be issued until the prisoner has served at least thirty-five (35) years
19 imprisonment. For each subsequent conviction of escape or attempted escape, an additional five 20 (5) years shall be added to the time required to be served.

21 (b) The permit shall be issued only by a unanimous vote of all the attending members of 22 the board, with no fewer than four (4) members present.

23 (c) If, after the issue of the permit the prisoner is pardoned, the control of the board over
24 the prisoner shall cease.

25 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
