SENATE RESOLUTION

EXPRESSING DEEPEST CONDOLENCES TO THE GULLUSCIO FAMILY ON THE PASSING OF RETIRED WESTERLY POLICE CHIEF JAMES R. GULLUSCIO

Introduced By: Senators Algiere, and Lombardi

Date Introduced: January 08, 2015

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1           WHEREAS, James R. Gulluscio served as the Westerly Police Chief from 1973 to 1981,
2 retiring after twenty-five years on the police force. He was well-respected for his tireless work
3 ethic, his no-nonsense style of leadership, his abiding love for the Town of Westerly, and his deep
4 concern for the police officers under his command. He will be sorely missed by his family, 5 friends, colleagues and the entire Westerly community; and

6           WHEREAS, Chief Gulluscio was a father figure to many of the Westerly Police Officers.
7 Patrol Officer Lou Masucci, Jr., credits Chief Gulluscio with providing him with the discipline
8 and steady leadership he needed as a rookie police officer. Current Westerly Police Chief Edward 9 St. Clair said that he "had the utmost respect for him as did everyone in the law enforcement 10 community"; and

11           WHEREAS, Some years after retiring, Chief Gulluscio received a call from Westerly
12 High School Principal Jim Murano, a close friend who had played football at Westerly High 13 School when Chief Gulluscio was an Assistant Coach, asking him if he would help him out by 14 serving as a Hall Monitor at the High School. Principal Murano was deeply concerned about the 15 growing problems with students smoking in the bathrooms and loitering in the hallways. In the 16 words of Principal Murano, Chief Gulluscio "jumped at the opportunity" and "within a week we 17 saw immediate results" because "of his ability to relate so well to the kids, he was able to be both 18 an authority figure and a friend at the same time"; and

19           WHEREAS, Chief James R. Gulluscio was a United States Army Veteran. He leaves

1 behind his wife, Barbara, his son, James R. Gulluscio, Jr., and two daughters, Doreen Champlin
2 McNeill and her husband, Stephen, and Diann Izzi; now, therefore be it

3 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
4 hereby expresses its deepest condolences to the Gulluscio Family on the passing of Chief James 5 R. Gulluscio; and be it further

6 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to send 7 a duly certified copy of this resolution to Barbara Gulluscio.
