21 (b) If a court of another state in which a guardianship or protective proceeding is pending

24 with the request.

25 33-15.2-106. Taking testimony in another state. – (a) In a guardianship or protective 26 proceeding, in addition to other procedures that may be available, testimony of witnesses who are 27 located in another state may be offered by deposition or other means allowable in this state for 28 testimony taken in another state. The court on its own motion may order that the testimony of a 29 witness be taken in another state and may prescribe the manner in which and the terms upon 30 which the testimony is to be taken.

31 (b) In a guardianship or protective proceeding, a court in this state may permit a witness 32 located in another state to be deposed or to testify by telephone or audiovisual or other electronic 33 means. A court of this state shall cooperate with courts of other states in designating an 34 appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

1 (c) Documentary evidence transmitted from another state to a court of this state by 2 technological means that do not produce an original writing may not be excluded from evidence 3 on an objection based on the means of transmission.

4 33-15.2-201. Significant connection factors. – Determination of whether a respondent 5 has a significant connection with a particular state shall include consideration of the following 6 factors:

7 (1) The location of the respondent's family and others required to be notified of the 8 guardianship or protective proceeding;

9 (2) The length of time the respondent at any time was physically present in the state and 10 the duration of any absences;

11 (3) The location of the respondent's property; and 12 (4) The extent to which the respondent has other ties to the state such as voting 13 registration, filing of state or local tax returns, vehicle registration, driver's license, social 14 relationships, and receipt of services.

15 33-15.2-202. Exclusive basis. – Section 8-9-9 entitled "general probate jurisdiction", 16 Chapter 15 of title 33 entitled "limited guardianship and guardianship of adults", and this chapter 17 provide the jurisdictional basis for a court of this state to appoint a guardian or issue a protective 18 order for an adult.

19 33-15.2-203. Initial jurisdiction. – In addition to the limited or special jurisdiction under 20 § 33-15.2-204, a court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective 21 order for a respondent if:

22 (1) This state is the respondent's home state;

23 (2) On the date the petition is filed, this state is a significant-connection state and:

24 (i) The respondent does not have a home state or a court of the respondent's home state 25 has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this state is a more appropriate forum; or 26 (ii) The respondent has a home state, a petition for the appointment of a guardian or 27 protective order has not been filed in a court of that state or in another significant-connection 28 state, and, before the court makes the appointment or issues the order:

29 (A) A petition for appointment or order is not filed in the respondent's home state;

30 (B) An objection to the jurisdiction of the court in this state has not been filed; and

31 (C) The court in this state concludes that it is an appropriate forum under the factors set 32 forth in § 33-15.2-206; or

33 (3) This state does not have jurisdiction under either subsection (1) or (2) of this section, 34 the respondent's home state and all significant-connection states have declined to exercise

1 jurisdiction because this state is the more appropriate forum, and jurisdiction in this state is 2 consistent with the constitutions of this state and the United States.

3 33-15.2-204. Special cases. – (a) A court of this state lacking jurisdiction under §§ 33-4 15.2-203(1) through (3) has special jurisdiction to do any of the following:

5 (1) Appoint a guardian in an emergency for a term not exceeding ninety (90) days for a 6 respondent who is physically present in this state;

7 (2) Issue a protective order with respect to real or tangible personal property located in 8 this state;

9 (3) Appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated or protected person for whom 10 a provisional or temporary order to transfer the proceeding from another state has been issued as 11 provided under procedures similar to § 33-15.2-301.

12 (b) If a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency is brought in this state 13 and this state was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition was filed, the court shall 14 dismiss the proceeding at the request of the court in such other state, if any, whether dismissal is 15 requested before or after the emergency appointment.

16 33-15.2-205. Exclusive and continuing jurisdiction. – Except as otherwise provided in 17 § 33-15.2-204, a court that has appointed a guardian or issued a protective order consistent with 18 this chapter has exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until it is terminated by 19 the court or the appointment or order expires by its own terms.

20 33-15.2-206. Declining jurisdiction if another court is a more appropriate forum. – 21 (a) A court of this state having jurisdiction under § 33-15.2-203 to appoint a guardian or issue a 22 protective order may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if it determines at any time that a court of 23 another state is a more appropriate forum.

24 (b) If a court of this state declines jurisdiction over a guardianship or protective 25 proceeding under subsection (a) of this section, it shall either dismiss the proceeding or stay the 26 proceeding. The court may impose any other condition the court considers just and proper, 27 including the condition that a petition for the appointment of a guardian or protective order be 28 promptly filed in another state.

29 (c) In determining whether it is an appropriate forum, the court shall consider all relevant 30 factors, including:

31 (1) Any expressed preference of the respondent;

32 (2) Whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the respondent has occurred or is likely to 33 occur and which state could best protect the respondent from the abuse, neglect, or exploitation;

34 (3) The length of time the respondent was physically present in or was a legal resident of

1 this or another state;

2 (4) The distance of the respondent from the court in each state;

3 (5) The financial circumstances of the respondent's estate;

4 (6) The nature and location of the evidence;

5 (7) The ability of the court in each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the 6 procedures necessary to present evidence;

7 (8) The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the proceeding;

8 and 9 (9) If an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor the conduct of the 10 guardian or conservator.

11 33-15.2-207. Jurisdiction declined by reason of conduct. – (a) If at any time a court of 12 this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order 13 because of unjustifiable conduct, the court may:

14 (1) Decline to exercise jurisdiction;

15 (2) Exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning an appropriate remedy to 16 ensure the health, safety, and welfare of the respondent or the protection of the respondent's 17 property or prevent a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including staying the proceeding 18 until a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is filed in a 19 court of another state having jurisdiction; or 20 (3) Continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:

21 (i) The extent to which the respondent and all persons required to be notified of the 22 proceedings has acquiesced in the exercise of the court's jurisdiction;

23 (ii) Whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court of any other state under the 24 factors set forth in § 33-15.2-206(c); and 25 (iii) Whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction under factual 26 circumstances in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standards of § 33-15.2-203.

27 (b) If a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or 28 issue a protective order because a party seeking to invoke its jurisdiction engaged in unjustifiable 29 conduct, it may assess against that party necessary and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' 30 fees, investigative fees, court costs, communication expenses, witness fees and expenses, and 31 travel expenses. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses of any kind against this state or 32 a governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of this state unless authorized by law 33 other than this chapter.

34 33-15.2-208. Notice of proceeding. – If a petition for the appointment of a guardian or

1 issuance of a protective order is brought in this state and this state was not the respondent's home 2 state on the date the petition was filed, in addition to complying with the notice requirements of 3 this state, notice of the proceeding must be given by the petitioner to those persons who would be 4 entitled to notice of the petition if the proceeding were brought in such other state, if any. The 5 notice must be given in the manner as required by chapters 15 and 22 of title 33.

6 33-15.2-209. Proceedings in more than one state. – Except for a petition for the 7 appointment of a guardian in an emergency or a protective order limited to property located in 8 this state as provided in §§ 33-1 5.2-204(a)(1) or (a)(2), if a petition for the appointment of a 9 guardian or protective order is filed in this and another state and neither petition has been 10 dismissed or withdrawn, the following rules apply:

11 (1) If the court in this state has jurisdiction under § 33-15.2-203, it may proceed with the 12 case unless a court in another state acquires jurisdiction under provisions similar to § 33-15.2-13 203 before the appointment or issuance of the order.

14 (2) If the court in this state does not have jurisdiction under § 33-15.2-203, whether at the 15 time the petition is filed or at any time before the appointment or issuance of the order, the court 16 shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court in the other state. If the court in the 17 other state has jurisdiction, the court in this state shall dismiss the petition unless the court in the 18 other state determines that the court of this state is a more appropriate forum.

19 33-15.2-301. Petition to transfer jurisdiction to another state. – (a) Following the 20 appointment of a guardian or conservator, the guardian or conservator may petition the court to 21 transfer the guardianship or conservatorship to another state.

22 (b) Notice of the petition to transfer a guardianship or conservatorship under subsection 23 (a) of this section must be given by the petitioner to those persons that would be entitled to notice 24 of a petition in this state for the appointment of a guardian or conservator.

25 (c) The court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a) of this 26 section.

27 (d) The court shall issue a temporary order granting a petition to transfer a guardianship 28 and shall direct the guardian to petition for guardianship in the other state if the court finds that:

29 (1) The incapacitated person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to move 30 permanently to the other state;

31 (2) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been made, the 32 objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the 33 incapacitated person;

34 (3) The court is satisfied that plans for care and services for the incapacitated person in

1 the other state are reasonable and sufficient; and

2 (4) The court is satisfied that the guardianship will be accepted by the court to which the 3 proceeding will be transferred.

4 (e) The court shall issue a temporary order granting a petition to transfer a 5 conservatorship and shall direct the conservator to file a petition for conservatorship in the other 6 state if the court finds that:

7 (1) The protected person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to move 8 permanently to the other state, or the protected person has a significant connection to the other 9 state considering the factors set forth in § 33-15.2-201;

10 (2) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been made, the 11 objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the protected 12 person;

13 (3) The court is satisfied that adequate arrangements will be made for management of the 14 protected person's property; and 15 (4) The court is satisfied that the conservatorship will be accepted by the court to which 16 the proceeding will be transferred.

17 (f) The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer and terminating the 18 guardianship or conservatorship upon its receipt of:

19 (1) A provisional or temporary order accepting the proceeding from the court to which 20 the proceeding is to be transferred which is issued under provisions similar to § 33-15.2-302; and 21 (2) The documents required to terminate a guardianship or conservatorship in this state.

22 33-15.2-302. Petition to accept proceeding transferred from another state. – (a) Upon 23 issuance of a provisional or temporary order in another state to transfer a guardianship or 24 conservatorship to this state under provisions similar to those in § 33-15.2-301, the guardian or 25 conservator shall petition the court in this state to accept the guardianship or conservatorship. The 26 petition must include a certified copy of the other state's provisional or temporary order and 27 relevant file documents.

28 (b) Notice of a petition under subsection (a) of this section to accept a guardianship or 29 conservatorship from another state must be given by the petitioner to those persons that would be 30 entitled to notice if the petition were a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a 31 protective order in both the transferring state and this state. The notice must be given in the 32 manner required by chapters 15 and 22 of title 33.

33 (c) The court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a) of this 34 section to accept a guardianship or conservatorship from another state.

1 (d) If the court is satisfied with the documentation and evidence presented, the petition 2 filed under subsection (a) of this section shall be granted, unless an objection is made and the 3 objector establishes that transfer of the proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the 4 incapacitated or protected person.

5 (e) No later than ninety (90) days after issuance of a permanent order accepting transfer 6 of a guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall determine whether the guardianship or 7 conservatorship needs to be modified to conform to the law of this state.

8 (f) In approving a petition under this section, the court shall recognize a guardianship or 9 conservatorship order from the other state, including the determination of the incapacitated or 10 protected person's incapacity and the appointment of the guardian or conservator, if the guardian 11 or conservator is eligible to act in this state, and the determination of the need for a guardian or 12 conservator conforms to the law of this state.

13 (g) The denial of a petition filed under subsection (a) of this section to accept a 14 guardianship or conservatorship from another state does not affect the ability of a guardian or 15 conservator appointed by a court in another state to seek appointment as guardian of the 16 incapacitated person or conservator of the protected person under chapter 15 of title 33.

17 33-15.2-401. Registration of guardianship orders. – If a guardian has been appointed 18 in another state and a petition for the appointment of a guardian is not pending in this state, a 19 guardian appointed in another state, after giving notice to the appointing court of an intent to 20 register, may register the guardianship order in this state by filing as a foreign judgment in a court 21 of this state in any appropriate city or town of this state certified copies of the order and letters of 22 office.

23 33-15.2-402. Registration of protective orders. – If a conservator has been appointed in 24 another state and a petition for a protective order is not pending in this state, the conservator 25 appointed in another state, after giving notice to the appointing court of an intent to register, may 26 register the protective order in this state by filing as a foreign judgment in a court of this state, in 27 any city or town in which property belonging to the protected person is located, certified copies 28 of the order and letters of office and of any bond.

30 protective order from another state, the guardian or conservator may exercise in this state all 31 powers authorized in the order of appointment except as prohibited under the laws of this state, 32 including maintaining actions and proceedings in this state and, if the guardian or conservator is 33 not a resident of this state, subject to any conditions imposed upon nonresident parties.

34 (b) A court of this state may grant any relief available under this chapter and other laws
