15 treating physician, the administrator of the medical advisory board may increase the penalty for a 16 violation.

17 (4) This section shall not prevent the recovery of reasonable costs for immediate 18 emergency care rendered by a provider.

19 (f) As a guide to the interpretation and application of this section, the policy and intent of 24 SECTION 2. Sections 28-33-17.2, 28-33-17.3 and 28-33-18.3 of the General Laws in 25 Chapter 28-33 entitled "Workers' Compensation - Benefits" are hereby amended to read as 26 follows:

27 28-33-17.2. Employee's affirmative duty to report earnings -- Penalties for failure to 31 earnings and the penalties for any fraud or abuse must be severe and certain.

32 (b) Any employee entitled to receive weekly workers' compensation benefits shall have 33 an affirmative duty to report those earnings, including wages or salary remuneration paid for 34 personal services, commissions, and bonuses, including the cash value of all remuneration

1 payable in any medium other than cash, earned from self-employment or from any employer
2 other than the employer in whose employ he or she was injured, so that compensation benefits 3 may be properly computed.

4 (c) (1) The department of labor and training, employer, or insurer shall notify any 5 employee receiving weekly workers' compensation benefits, on forms prescribed by the 6 department, of that employee's affirmative duty to report earnings and shall specifically notify the 7 employee that a failure to report earnings may subject him or her to civil or criminal liability.

8 (2) The notice by the employer or insurer may be satisfied by printing the notice on the 9 employee payee statement (check stub) portion of indemnity checks sent to the employee, or by 10 incorporating said notice in an agreement for electronic fund transfer or use or issuance of an 11 electronic access device, signed by both the employee and the employer or its insurer.

12 (d) Any employee entitled to weekly workers' compensation benefits for any period of 13 time shall, upon written request of the employer or insurer, provide at reasonable intervals to the 14 employer or insurer an earnings report, on forms prescribed by the department, advising the 15 employer or insurer of the exact amount of earnings for each week of his or her entitlement to 16 benefits or advising that no earnings were received for particular weeks, so that the employer or 17 insurer may properly compute the amount of benefits due to the employee.

18 (e) If any employee refuses to submit an earnings report upon request by the employer or 19 insurer his or her rights to compensation may be suspended and his or her compensation during 20 that period of suspension may be forfeited.

22 weeks pursuant to a decision resulting in the entry of an order or decree, he or she shall submit an 23 earnings report as described in subsection (d) of this section. In these cases, the employer or 24 insurer must pay benefits within seven (7) days of receipt of the earnings report; provided, that no
25 petition to enforce shall be allowed nor any penalty for late payment awarded unless payments 26 were not made within seven (7) days after the earnings report has been provided.

27 (g) The employer or insurer shall be entitled to recover overpayments made to any 28 employee as a result of a violation of the employee's duty to report earnings by any of the 29 following means:

30 (1) Upon petition and order of the workers' compensation court to suspend the 31 employer's obligation to pay weekly benefits.

32 (2) By civil action in the district or superior court. Costs and counsel fees for the action 33 may be awarded to the employer or insurer.

34 (h) Any employee who by any fraudulent means obtains or attempts to obtain workers'

1 compensation benefits, whether by failure to report earnings, falsification of the earnings report
2 document, or intentional misrepresentation, may forfeit the right to any future weekly workers' 3 compensation benefits as determined by the workers' compensation court.

4 (i) Any employee who by any fraudulent means obtains or attempts to obtain workers'
5 compensation benefits to which he or she was not entitled, whether by failure to report earnings, 6 falsification of the earnings report, or intentional misrepresentation, shall be deemed guilty of 7 larceny pursuant to § 11-41-4 or other pertinent criminal statutes of the state of Rhode Island.
8 Each occurrence shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

9 (j) The administrator of the workers' compensation court, any workers' compensation 10 judge, or any representative of an employer may be the party complainant to any complaint and 11 warrant brought to invoke the criminal penalties provided for in this section, and the party 12 complainant shall, except for the representative of the employer, be exempt from giving surety for 13 costs in the action.

14 (k) All criminal actions for any violation of this section shall be prosecuted by the 15 attorney general.

16 (l) Where any employer or insurer intentionally and unreasonably utilizes the earnings 17 report required by subsection (d) of this section in order to harass an employee or delay payment 18 of benefits to an employee, a penalty of twenty percent (20%) shall be added to all amounts of 19 weekly compensation benefits due and owing.

21 and directed to impose sanctions and penalties necessary to maintain the integrity of and to 22 maintain the high standards of professional conduct in the workers' compensation system. All 23 pleadings related to proceedings under chapters 29 -- 38 of this title shall be considered an 24 attestation by counsel that valid grounds exist for the position taken and that the pleading is not 25 interposed for delay.

26 (2) If any judge determines that any proceedings have been brought, prosecuted, or 27 defended by an employer, insurer, or their counsel without reasonable grounds, then:

28 (i) The whole cost of the proceedings shall be assessed upon the employer, insurer, or 29 counsel, whoever is responsible; and

30 (ii) If a subsequent order requires that additional compensation be paid, a penalty of 31 double the amount of retroactive benefits ordered shall be paid to the employee and the penalty 32 shall not be included in any formula utilized to establish premium rates for workers' 33 compensation insurance.

34 (3) If any judge determines that any proceedings have been brought or defended by an

1 employee or his or her counsel without reasonable grounds, the whole cost of the proceedings 2 shall be assessed against the employee or counsel, whoever is responsible.

3 (4) The court shall determine whether an action or defense is frivolous or conduct giving 4 rise to the action or defense was unreasonable. Where the amount at issue is less than the actual 5 attorneys' fees of the parties combined, the court shall exercise particular vigilance. Nothing in 6 this subsection, however, is intended to discourage prompt payment in full of all amounts 7 required to be paid.

8 (5) The appropriate body with professional disciplinary authority over the attorney shall 9 be notified of the action.

17 an unlawful act under this section;

20 or pursuing a claim;

21 (v) Willfully misrepresent or fail to disclose any material fact in order to obtain workers'

14 and/or penalty not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or double the value of the fraud, 15 whichever is greater, or by imprisonment up to five (5) years in state prison or both.

16 (4) There shall be a general amnesty until July 1, 1992 for any person receiving 17 compensation under chapters 29 -- 38 of this title, to the extent compensation has been voluntarily 18 reduced or relinquished by the employee prior to that date.

19 (c) The director of labor and training shall establish a form, in consultation with the 20 attorney general, to be sent to all workers who are presently receiving benefits and those for 21 whom first reports of injury are filed in the future which shall give the employee notice that the 22 endorsement of a benefit check sent pursuant to § 28-35-39 is the employee's affirmation that he 23 or she is qualified to receive benefits under the Workers' Compensation Act. The insurers and 24 self-insured employers are directed to send the form to all workers receiving benefits.

26 shall be increased annually on the tenth (10th) day of May thereafter so long as the employee
27 remains incapacitated. The increase shall be by an amount equal to the total percentage increase 28 in the annual Consumer Price Index, United States City Average for Urban Wage Earners and 33 computed by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor.

34 (3) The annual increase shall be based upon the percentage increase, if any, in the

1 Consumer Price Index for the month of a given year, over the index for February, the previous 2 year. Thereafter, increases shall be made on May 10 annually, based upon the percentage
3 increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index for the period of March 1 to February 28.

4 (4) The computations in this section shall be made by the director of labor and training
5 and promulgated to insurers and employers making payments required by this section. Increases

8 notified by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the state it becomes due, there 9 shall be added to the unpaid payment an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of it, to be paid at 10 the same time as, but in addition to, the payment.

11 (5) This section applies only to payment of weekly indemnity benefits to employees as 12 described in subdivision (1) of this subsection, and does not apply to specific compensation 13 payments for loss of use or disfigurement or payment of dependency benefits or any other 14 benefits payable under the workers' compensation act.

15 (c) No petitions for commutation shall be allowed or entertained in those cases where an 16 employee is receiving benefits pursuant to this section.

29 electronic access device said notice shall be satisfied in accordance with § 28-33-17.2(c)(2). The
