EXPLANATION

BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

OF

AN ACT

RELATING TO HUMAN SERVICES - PUBLIC ASSISTANCE ACT

1 This act would prohibit a recipient of direct cash assistance on electronic benefit cards 2 from utilizing that benefit card at liquor stores, casino gaming facilities, and various adult 3 entertainment establishments, and would establish penalties for violations by recipients. This act would also prohibit store owners from accepting the benefit card for the purchase of the above 4 items and provides for penalties for violations, and would create a new criminal offense deeming 5 such offenses as "fraud against the department of human services." 6 7

This act would take effect upon passage.
