13 16-93-1. Legislative findings. -- The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

14 (1) On November 4, 1988 the United States government ratified the International 15 Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide ("Genocide 16 Convention") which was approved by the United Nations General Assembly in 1948. Upon 17 ratification, the United States government recognized that throughout all periods of history, 18 genocide has inflicted great losses on humanity, and was convinced that, in order to liberate 19 mankind from such an odious scourge, international co-operation was required.

1 (2) The United States government recognizes that genocide still continues, today, in the 2 twenty- first (21st) century. The United States Congress passed House Con. Resolution 467, 3 "Declaring genocide in Darfur, Sudan" on July 22, 2004. On September 9, 2004, the United 4 States Secretary of State Colin L. Powell told the United States Senate Foreign Relations
5 Committee that "genocide has occurred and may still be occurring in Darfur. Additionally, 6 President George W. Bush affirmed the Secretary of State's finding on September 21, 2004, when 7 he addressed the United Nations General Assembly by saying: "At this hour, the world is 8 witnessing terrible suffering and horrible crimes in the Darfur region of Sudan, crimes my 9 government has concluded are genocide."

10 (3) The United States Department of Education says "education is primarily a State and 11 local responsibility in the United States. It is States and communities, as well as public and 12 private organizations of all kinds that establish schools and college and develop curricula ..."

13 (4) The State of Rhode Island also has previously demonstrated its concerns and interests 14 regarding raising awareness on subject the subjects of holocaust and genocide.

15 (i) In 2000, the Rhode Island general assembly passed house bill no. 7397 "genocide and 16 human rights education," requiring the Rhode Island department of education to "develop 17 curricular material on genocide and human rights issues and guidelines for the teaching of that 18 material."

19 (ii) In 2007, the Rhode Island general assembly passed house bill No. 5142, requiring the 20 state investment commission to divest its assets from targeted companies in Sudan.

3 (5) The establishment of free public education in the United States is intended to prepare 4 citizens for participation in American social, economic, and political activities.

5 (6) The State of Rhode Island has also previously demonstrated its concerns for civic 6 education, of which genocide education should be a component. In 2005, the general assembly
7 directed the board of regents for elementary and secondary education to develop and adopt a set 8 of grade level standards in civic education by August 31, 2007.

9 (7) Given the importance of the issue of genocide to the political affairs of the United
