18 the exercise of the privilege of every person and the agent of any person having the right to sell,
19 rent, lease, or manage a housing accommodation to establish standards and preferences and set 20 terms, conditions, limitations, or specifications in the selling, renting, leasing, or letting thereof or

34 section shall be construed in any manner to prohibit or limit the exercise of the privilege of every

1 person and the agent of any person making loans for, or offering financial assistance in, the 2 acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair, or maintenance of housing accommodations to set 3 standards and preferences, terms, conditions, limitations, or specifications for the granting of 4 loans or financial assistance that do not discriminate on the basis of the race, color, religion, sex, 5 sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, military status as a veteran with 6 an honorable discharge or an honorable or general administrative discharge, servicemember in the 10 relief from any court in the form of a restraining order for protection from domestic abuse, of the 11 applicant for the loan or financial assistance or of any existing or prospective owner, lessee, 12 tenant, or occupant of the housing accommodation.

13 (d) An owner may not refuse to allow a person with a disability to make, at his or her 14 expense, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by the person 15 if the modifications may be necessary to afford the person full enjoyment of the premises, except 16 that, in the case of a rental, the owner may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission
17 for a modification on the renter agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition
18 that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Where it is necessary in 19 order to ensure with reasonable certainty that funds will be available to pay for the restorations at 20 the end of the tenancy, the landlord may negotiate as part of the restoration agreement a provision
21 requiring that the tenant pay into an interest bearing escrow account, over a reasonable period, a
22 reasonable amount of money not to exceed the cost of the restorations. The interest in the account
23 shall accrue to the benefit of the tenant. The restoration deposition shall be exempt from § 34-18-24 19(a) but will be subject to § 34-18-19(b) -- (f).

25 (e) (1) An owner may not refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies,
26 practices, or services when those accommodations may be necessary to afford an occupant with a 27 disability equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling.

28 (2)(i) Every person with a disability who has a guide dog or other personal assistive 29 animal, or who obtains a guide dog or other personal assistive animal, shall be entitled to full and 30 equal access to all housing accommodations provided for in this section and shall not be required
31 to pay extra compensation for the guide dog or other personal assistive animal but shall be liable 32 for any damage done to the premises by a guide dog or other personal assistive animal. For the 33 purposes of this subsection, a "personal assistive animal" is an animal specifically trained by a 34 certified animal training program to assist a person with a disability to perform independent living

1 tasks.

2 (ii) Every person with a disability who has a service animal, or who obtains a service
3 animal, which is necessary to afford that person an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling
4 and which does not provide a direct threat to the health or safety of others, shall be entitled to full 5 and equal access to all housing accommodations provided for in this section, and shall not be 6 required to pay extra compensation for the service animal, but shall be liable for any damage
7 done to the premises by the service animal. For the purposes of this subsection, a "service animal" 8 is an animal that has been determined necessary to mitigate the effects of a physical or mental 9 disability by a physician, psychologist, physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, other health care
10 provider, vocational rehabilitation specialist, or licensed social worker.

11 (f) Any housing accommodation of four (4) units or more constructed for first occupancy
12 after March 13, 1991, shall be designed and constructed in such a manner that:

13 (1) The public use and common use portions of the dwellings are readily accessible to 14 and usable by persons with disabilities;

15 (2) All the doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises within the 16 dwellings are sufficiently wide to allow passage by persons with disabilities in wheelchairs;

17 (3) All premises within the dwellings contain the following features of adaptive design:

18 (i) Accessible route into and through the dwelling;

19 (ii) Light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental controls in 20 accessible locations;

21 (iii) Reinforcements in bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars; and

22 (iv) Usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver
23 about the space. To the extent that any state or local building codes, statutes, or ordinances are 24 inconsistent with this section, they are hereby repealed. The state building code standards 25 committee is hereby directed to adopt rules and regulations consistent with this section as soon as 26 possible, but no later than September 30, 1990.

27 (g) Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the state building code 14 28 "accessibility for individuals with disabilities for residential use groups" suffices to satisfy the 29 requirements of subsection (f).

30 (h) As used in subsection (f), the term "housing accommodation of four (4) units or 31 more" means:

32 (1) Buildings consisting of four (4) or more units if those buildings have one or more 33 elevators; and

34 (2) Ground floor units in other buildings consisting of four (4) or more units;

1 (i) Nothing in subsection (f) shall be construed to limit any law, statute, or regulation that 2 requires a greater degree of accessibility to persons with disabilities.

3 (j) Nothing in this section requires that a dwelling be made available to an individual 4 whose tenancy would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or 5 whose tenancy would result in substantial physical damage to the property of others.

6 (k) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit an owner, lessee, 7 sublessee, or assignee from advertising or selecting a person of the same or opposite gender to 8 rent, lease, or share the housing unit that the owner, lessee, sublessee, or assignee will occupy 9 with the person selected.

10 (l) No person shall aid, abet, incite, compel, or coerce the doing of any act declared by 11 this section to be an unlawful housing practice; or obstruct or prevent any person from complying
12 with the provisions of this chapter or any order issued thereunder; or attempt directly or indirectly 13 to commit any act declared by this section to be an unlawful housing practice.

14 (m) No owner; person defined in § 34-37-3(13); person to whom application is made for 15 a loan or other form of financial assistance for the acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair, 16 or maintenance of any housing accommodation, whether secured or unsecured; no financial 17 organization governed by the provisions of title 19 or any other credit-granting commercial 18 institution; or respondent under this chapter; or any agent of these shall discriminate in any 19 manner against any individual because he or she has opposed any practice forbidden by this 20 chapter, or because he or she has made a charge, testified, or assisted in any manner in any 21 investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this chapter.

22 (n) Nothing in this section shall prevent a landlord from proceeding with eviction action 23 against a tenant who fails to comply with § 34-18-24(7).
