3 4-1-3.2. Animal confinement in motor vehicles prohibited.

4 (a) No owner or person shall confine any animal in a motor vehicle that is done in a

10 means necessary under the circumstances after making a reasonable effort to locate the owner or 11 other responsible person.

12 (b) A law enforcement or animal control officer may take all steps that are reasonably 13 necessary to remove an animal from a motor vehicle if the animal's health, safety, or well-being 14 appears to be in immediate danger from heat, cold, or lack of adequate ventilation and the 15 conditions could reasonably be expected to cause extreme suffering or death.

17 officer from removing an animal from a motor vehicle if the animal's safety appears to be in 18 immediate danger from heat, cold, lack of adequate ventilation, lack of food or water or other 19 circumstances that could reasonably be expected to cause suffering, disability, or death to the

5 with this section shall, in a secure and conspicuous location on or within the motor vehicle, leave
6 written notice bearing the officer's or agent's name and office and the address of the location

12 section as provided in subsection (h) of this section if the officer reasonably believes the animal 13 needs or requires any additional medical treatment and/or medical observation. The officer shall 14 provide written notice to the owner of the animal that a hearing relating to temporary and/or 15 permanent possession of the animal will be afforded at the arraignment.

16 (f) The district court shall, after hearing, determine if and when the owner may retrieve 17 the animal and the amount the owner must pay for the maintenance, care, medical treatment, and
