STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2017

A N A C T

RELATING TO PUBLIC RECORDS - ACCESS TO PUBLIC RECORDS

Introduced By: Senators Sosnowski, Jabour, Conley, and Felag

Date Introduced: February 01, 2017

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 38-2-2 of the General Laws in Chapter 38-2 entitled "Access to 2 Public Records" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 38-2-2. Definitions.

4 As used in this chapter:

5 (1) "Agency" or "public body" means any executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory, or 6 administrative body of the state, or any political subdivision thereof; including, but not limited to, 7 any department, division, agency, commission, board, office, bureau, authority, any school, fire, 8 or water district, or other agency of Rhode Island state or local government which exercises 9 governmental functions, any authority as defined in § 42-35-1(b), or any other public or private 10 agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity acting on behalf of and/or in place of 11 any public agency.

12 (2) "Chief administrative officer" means the highest authority of the public body.

13 (3) "Public business" means any matter over which the public body has supervision, 14 control, jurisdiction, or advisory power.

15 (4) "Public record" or "public records" shall mean all documents, papers, letters, maps, 16 books, tapes, photographs, films, sound recordings, magnetic or other tapes, electronic data 17 processing records, computer stored data (including electronic mail messages, except specifically 18 for any electronic mail messages of or to elected officials with or relating to those they represent 19 and correspondence of or to elected officials in their official capacities) or other material

1 regardless of physical form or characteristics made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in 2 connection with the transaction of official business by any agency. For the purposes of this 3 chapter, the following records shall not be deemed public:

4 (A) (I) (a) All records relating to a client/attorney relationship and to a doctor/patient 5 relationship, including all medical information relating to an individual in any files.

6 (b) Personnel and other personal individually-identifiable records otherwise deemed 7 confidential by federal or state law or regulation, or the disclosure of which would constitute a 8 clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552 et. seq.; provided, 9 however, with respect to employees, and employees of contractors and subcontractors working on 10 public works projects which are required to be listed as certified payrolls, the name, gross salary, 11 salary range, total cost of paid fringe benefits, gross amount received in overtime, and any other 12 remuneration in addition to salary, job title, job description, dates of employment and positions 13 held with the state, municipality, employment contract, or public works contractor or 14 subcontractor on public works projects work location, and/or project, business telephone number, 15 the city or town of residence, and date of termination shall be public. For the purposes of this 16 section "remuneration" shall include any payments received by an employee as a result of 17 termination, or otherwise leaving employment, including, but not limited to, payments for 18 accrued sick and/or vacation time, severance pay, or compensation paid pursuant to a contract 19 buy-out provision.

20 (II) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, or any other provision of the general 21 laws to the contrary, the pension records of all persons who are either current or retired members 22 of any public retirement systems as well as all persons who become members of those retirement 23 systems after June 17, 1991 shall be open for public inspection. "Pension records" as used in this 24 section shall include all records containing information concerning pension and retirement 25 benefits of current and retired members of the retirement systems and future members of said 26 systems, including all records concerning retirement credits purchased and the ability of any 27 member of the retirement system to purchase retirement credits, but excluding all information 28 regarding the medical condition of any person and all information identifying the member's 29 designated beneficiary or beneficiaries unless and until the member's designated beneficiary or 30 beneficiaries have received or are receiving pension and/or retirement benefits through the 31 retirement system.

32 (B) Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person, firm, 33 or corporation which is of a privileged or confidential nature.

34 (C) Child custody and adoption records, records of illegitimate births, and records of 1 juvenile proceedings before the family court.

2 (D) All records maintained by law enforcement agencies for criminal law enforcement 3 and all records relating to the detection and investigation of crime, including those maintained on 4 any individual or compiled in the course of a criminal investigation by any law enforcement 5 agency. Provided, however, such records shall not be deemed public only to the extent that the 6 disclosure of the records or information (a) could reasonably be expected to interfere with 7 investigations of criminal activity or with enforcement proceedings, (b) would deprive a person of 8 a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (c) could reasonably be expected to constitute an 9 unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (d) could reasonably be expected to disclose the 10 identity of a confidential source, including a state, local, or foreign agency or authority, or any 11 private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, or the information 12 furnished by a confidential source, (e) would disclose techniques and procedures for law 13 enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement 14 investigations or prosecutions or (f) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical 15 safety of any individual. Records relating to management and direction of a law enforcement 16 agency and records or reports reflecting the initial arrest of an adult and the charge or charges 17 brought against an adult shall be public.

18 (E) Any records which would not be available by law or rule of court to an opposing 19 party in litigation.

20 (F) Scientific and technological secrets and the security plans of military and law 21 enforcement agencies, the disclosure of which would endanger the public welfare and security.

22 (G) Any records which disclose the identity of the contributor of a bona fide and lawful 23 charitable contribution to the public body whenever public anonymity has been requested of the 24 public body with respect to the contribution by the contributor.

25 (H) Reports and statements of strategy or negotiation involving labor negotiations or 26 collective bargaining.

27 (I) Reports and statements of strategy or negotiation with respect to the investment or 28 borrowing of public funds, until such time as those transactions are entered into.

29 (J) Any minutes of a meeting of a public body which are not required to be disclosed 30 pursuant to chapter 46 of title 42.

31 (K) Preliminary drafts, notes, impressions, memoranda, working papers, and work 32 products; , including those involving research at state institutions of higher education on 33 commercial, scientific, artistic, technical or scholarly issues, whether in electronic or other 34 format; provided, however, any documents submitted at a public meeting of a public body shall 1 be deemed public.

2 (L) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a 3 licensing examination, examination for employment or promotion, or academic examinations; 4 provided, however, that a person shall have the right to review the results of his or her 5 examination.

6 (M) Correspondence of or to elected officials with or relating to those they represent and 7 correspondence of or to elected officials in their official capacities.

8 (N) The contents of real estate appraisals, engineering, or feasibility estimates and 9 evaluations made for or by an agency relative to the acquisition of property or to prospective 10 public supply and construction contracts, until such time as all of the property has been acquired 11 or all proceedings or transactions have been terminated or abandoned; provided the law of 12 eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

13 (O) All tax returns.

14 (P) All investigatory records of public bodies, with the exception of law enforcement 15 agencies, pertaining to possible violations of statute, rule, or regulation other than records of final 16 actions taken provided that all records prior to formal notification of violations or noncompliance 17 shall not be deemed to be public.

18 (Q) Records of individual test scores on professional certification and licensing 19 examinations; provided, however, that a person shall have the right to review the results of his or 20 her examination.

21 (R) Requests for advisory opinions until such time as the public body issues its opinion.

22 (S) Records, reports, opinions, information, and statements required to be kept 23 confidential by federal law or regulation or state law, or rule of court.

24 (T) Judicial bodies are included in the definition only in respect to their administrative 25 function provided that records kept pursuant to the provisions of chapter 16 of title 8 are exempt 26 from the operation of this chapter.

27 (U) Library records which by themselves or when examined with other public records, 28 would reveal the identity of the library user requesting, checking out, or using any library 29 materials.

30 (V) Printouts from TELE -- TEXT devices used by people who are deaf or hard of 31 hearing or speech impaired.

32 (W) All records received by the insurance division of the department of business
33 regulation from other states, either directly or through the National Association of Insurance
34 Commissioners, if those records are accorded confidential treatment in that state. Nothing

1 contained in this title or any other provision of law shall prevent or be construed as prohibiting 2 the commissioner of insurance from disclosing otherwise confidential information to the 3 insurance department of this or any other state or country, at any time, so long as the agency or 4 office receiving the records agrees in writing to hold it confidential in a manner consistent with 5 the laws of this state.

6 (X) Credit card account numbers in the possession of state or local government are 7 confidential and shall not be deemed public records.

8 (Y) Any documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or oral testimony 9 provided under any subpoena issued under Rhode Island general law § 9-1.1-6.

10 (Z) Any individually identifiable evaluations of public school teachers made pursuant to 11 state or federal law or regulation.

12 (AA) All documents prepared by school districts intended to be used by school districts 13 in protecting the safety of their students from potential and actual threats.

14 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
