STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2017

A N A C T

RELATING TO ANIMALS AND ANIMAL HUSBANDRY -- CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

Introduced By: Senators Jabour, Lombardi, Doyle, and Lynch Prata

Date Introduced: March 02, 2017

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Sections 4-1-1, 4-1-3, 4-1-22 and 4-1-42 of the General Laws in Chapter 4-
2 1 entitled "Cruelty to Animals" are hereby amended to read as follows:

3 4-1-1. Definitions -- Responsibility for agents and employees.

4 (a) In this chapter and in §§ 4-4-9, 4-4-10, and 23-19-8:

5 (1) "Animal" and "animals" means every living creature except a human being;

6 (2) "Licensed graduate veterinarian" or "veterinarian" means a person licensed to engage 7 in the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry in this state who is a graduate of an 8 accredited veterinary medical, surgical, and dental school or college of a standard recognized by 9 the Rhode Island veterinary medical association; and 10 (3) "Owner", "person", and "whoever" means corporations as well as individuals.

11 (4) "Guardian" shall mean a person(s) having the same rights and responsibilities of an 12 owner, and both terms shall be used interchangeably. A guardian shall also mean a person who 13 possesses, has title to or an interest in, harbors or has control, custody or possession of an animal 14 and who is responsible for an animal's safety and well-being.

15 (5) Except for livestock as defined in subsection 4-26-3(7), "adequate living conditions"
16 shall mean a sanitary environment which is dry and free of accumulated feces and free of debris
17 and garbage that may clutter the environment, pose a danger or entangle the animal. The 18 environment in which the animal is kept must be consistent with federal regulatory requirements,
19 where applicable or generally recognized professional standards, where applicable, or otherwise

1 be of sufficient size so as not to inhibit comfortable rest, normal posture or range of movement,
2 and suitable to maintain the animal in a good state of health. "Adequate living conditions" for 3 livestock as defined in subsection 4-26-3(7) shall mean best management practices established, 4 no later than July 1, 2014, by the Rhode Island livestock welfare and care standards advisory 5 council.

6 (6) Except for livestock as defined in §4-26-3, "hoarding" means the accumulation of a 7 large number of animals, to a point where the owner, possessor or person having the charge or 8 custody of the aforementioned animals fails to or is unable to: provide "adequate living 9 conditions," as defined herein; provide adequate food, water and sustenance, or necessary 10 veterinary care; and who keeps said animals in an overcrowded environment resulting in a 11 negative impact on the health and well-being of the animals and/or the owner of said animals.

12 (b) The knowledge and acts of agents of and persons employed by corporations in regard 13 to animals transported, owned or employed by or in the custody of that corporation are held to be 14 the acts and knowledge of that corporation.

15 4-1-3. Unnecessary cruelty.

16 (a) Every owner, possessor, or person having the charge or custody of any animal, who 17 cruelly drives or works that animal when unfit for labor, or cruelly abandons that animal, or who 18 carries that animal or who fails to provide that animal with adequate living conditions as defined 19 in § 4-1-1, or who hoards animals as defined in §4-1-1, or causes that animal to be carried, in or 20 upon any vehicle or otherwise in a cruel or inhuman manner, or willfully, intentionally, 21 maliciously, recklessly, and/or knowingly authorizes or permits that animal to be subjected to 22 unnecessary torture, suffering or cruelty of any kind, or who places or causes to have placed on 23 any animal any substance that may produce irritation or pain, or that is declared a hazardous 24 substance by the U.S. food and drug administration or by the state department of health, shall be 25 punished for each offense in the manner provided in § 4-1-2. Any owner, possessor, or person
26 having the charge or custody of any animal who is found guilty or pleads nolo contendere to a 27 violation of this section and said violation involves hoarding, as defined herein, shall be ordered 28 to undergo a mental health evaluation to determine if counseling or treatment should become an 29 additional condition of the sentence.

30 (b) The substances proscribed by subsection (a) do not include any drug having curative 31 and therapeutic effect for disease in animals and which is prepared and intended for veterinary 32 use.

33 (c) University, college or hospital research facilities licensed and/or inspected by the 34 U.S. Department of Agriculture or the U.S. Public Health Service of the department of health and

1 human services shall be exempt from the provisions of subsection (a) provided that they are in 2 good standing with the federal agency responsible for licensing or assurance of the facility.

3 4-1-22. Care of neglected animals by society -- Forfeiture of owner's rights --

4 Expenses.

5 (a) An officer or agent of the Rhode Island Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to 6 Animals may lawfully take charge of any animal found abandoned or neglected or hoarded as
7 defined in §4-1-1 or animal that, in the opinion of that officer or agent, is aged, maimed, disabled, 8 lame, sick, diseased, injured, unfit for the labor it is performing, or cruelly treated, and shall give 9 notice to the owner, if known, or his or her agents, and may provide suitable care.

10 (b) Every owner or agent, upon conviction, plea of guilty, or plea of nolo contendere, of 11 abandonment, neglect, hoarding as defined in §4-1-1 or otherwise cruel treatment of any animal
12 taken charge of by the Rhode Island Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals under this 13 section, forfeits the rights to ownership or control of that animal to the Society for disposition in 14 any manner deemed suitable for that animal.

15 (c) Whenever any officer or agent of the Rhode Island Society for the Prevention of 16 Cruelty to Animals lawfully takes charge of any animal under this section, all reasonable 17 expenses for the care and treatment of the animal(s), while in the custody of the Society during 18 this time, shall be paid for by the owner, guardian, or his or her agent upon conviction, plea of 19 guilty, or plea of nolo contendere. The Society has the authority to commence a civil action for 20 damages against the owner or his or her agent thirty (30) days after a written demand for payment 21 of the expense of the suitable care of that animal has been sent and no payment has been received.

22 4-1-42. Care of neglected animals by Department -- Forfeiture of owner's rights --

23 Expenses.

24 (a) The director of environmental management, or any veterinarian employed by the 25 department of environmental management ("department"), may lawfully take charge of any 26 animal found abandoned or neglected, or hoarded as defined in §4-1-1, or that, in the opinion of 27 the department, is aged, maimed, disabled, lame, sick, diseased, injured, unfit for the labor it is 28 performing, or otherwise cruelly treated, and shall give notice to the owner, if known, or his or 29 her agents, and may provide suitable care.

30 (b) Every owner, guardian, or agent, upon conviction, entry of a guilty plea, or plea of 31 nolo contendere, of abandonment, neglect, hoarding as defined in §4-1-1, or otherwise cruel 32 treatment of any animal taken charge of by the department under this section, forfeits the right to 33 ownership or control of that animal to the department for disposition in any manner deemed 34 suitable for that animal.

1 (c) Whenever the department lawfully takes charge of any animal under this section, all 2 reasonable expenses for the care and treatment of the animal(s), while in the custody of the 3 department during this time, shall be paid for by the owner, guardian, or his or her agent, upon 4 conviction, a plea of guilty or plea nolo contendere. The department has the authority to 5 commence a civil action for damages against the owner or his or her agent thirty (30) days after 6 written demand for payment of the expense of the suitable care of that animal has been sent and 7 no payment received.

8 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
