2 1.2-1413 and 7-1.2-1414 of the General Laws in Chapter 7-1.2 entitled "Rhode Island Business 3 Corporation Act" are hereby amended to read as follows:

4 7-1.2-1003. Articles of merger.

5 (a) Upon approval, articles of merger must be executed by each corporation by its 6 authorized representative and must state:

7 (1) The plan of merger.

8 (2) If, pursuant to § 7-1.2-1005, the merger is to become effective at a time subsequent to 9 the issuance of the certificate of merger by the secretary of state, the date when the merger is to 10 become effective.

11 (b) The original articles of merger must be delivered to the secretary of state. If the 12 secretary of state finds that the articles conform to law, and, ~~unless the surviving corporation is a~~
13 ~~Rhode Island corporation, that~~ all fees and taxes have been paid, ~~as evidenced by an appropriate~~
14 ~~certificate of good standing issued by the Rhode Island division of taxation,~~ the secretary of state 15 shall:

16 (1) Endorse on the original the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing;

17 (2) File the original in his or her office; and 18 (3) Issue a certificate of merger.

19 (c) The secretary of state shall deliver the certificate of merger to the surviving or new 1 corporation, as the case may be, or its representative.

2 7-1.2-1008. Conversion of a domestic corporation to other entities.

3 (a) A corporation of this state may, upon the authorization of such conversion in 4 accordance with this section, convert to a limited liability company, business trust or association, 5 real estate investment trust, common-law trust, or any other unincorporated business or entity, 6 including a partnership (whether general or limited, including a registered limited liability 7 partnership) or a foreign corporation.

8 (b) The board of directors of the corporation that desires to convert under this section 9 shall adopt a resolution approving such conversion, specifying the type of entity into which the 10 corporation shall be converted and recommending the approval of such conversion by the 11 stockholders of the corporation. Such resolution shall be submitted to the stockholders of the 12 corporation at an annual or special meeting. Due notice of the time and purpose of the meeting 13 shall be mailed to each holder of stock, whether voting or nonvoting, of the corporation at the 14 address of the stockholder, as it appears on the records of the corporation, at least twenty (20) 15 days prior to the date of the meeting. At the meeting, the resolution shall be considered and a vote 16 taken for its adoption or rejection. If all outstanding shares of stock of the corporation, whether 17 voting or nonvoting, shall be voted for the adoption of the resolution, the conversion shall be 18 authorized.

19 (c) If a corporation shall convert in accordance with this section to another entity
20 organized, formed, or created under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the state of Rhode Island 21 or to a Rhode Island unincorporated "other entity", upon payment of all fees and taxes by the 22 corporation, ~~as evidenced by an appropriate certificate of good standing issued by the Rhode~~ 23 ~~Island division of taxation,~~ the corporation shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of 24 conversion to non-Rhode Island entity, executed in accordance with § 7-1.2-105, that certifies:

25 (1) The name of the corporation, and if it has been changed, the name under which it was 26 originally incorporated;

27 (2) The date of filing of its original articles of incorporation with the secretary of state;

28 (3) The name and jurisdiction of the entity and type of entity to which the corporation 29 shall be converted;

30 (4) That the conversion has been approved in accordance with the provisions of this 31 section;

32 (5) The agreement of the corporation that it may be served with process in the state of 33 Rhode Island in any action, suit, or proceeding for enforcement of any obligation of the 34 corporation arising while it was a corporation of this state, and that it irrevocably appoints the 1 secretary of state as its agent to accept service of process in any such action, suit, or proceeding; 2 and

3 (6) The address to which a copy of the process referred to in subsection (c)(5) of this 4 section shall be mailed to it by the secretary of state. In the event of such service upon the 5 secretary of state in accordance with subsection (c)(5) of this section, the secretary of state shall 6 forthwith notify such corporation that has converted out of the state of Rhode Island by letter, 7 certified mail, return receipt requested, directed to such corporation that has converted out of the 8 state of Rhode Island at the address so specified, unless such corporation shall have designated in 9 writing to the secretary of state a different address for such purpose, in which case it shall be 10 mailed to the last address designated. Such letter shall enclose a copy of the process and any other 11 papers served on the secretary of state pursuant to this subsection. It shall be the duty of the 12 plaintiff in the event of such service to serve process and any other papers in duplicate; to notify 13 the secretary of state that service is being affected pursuant to this subsection; and to pay the 14 secretary of state the sum of fifteen dollars ($15.00) for the use of the state, which sum shall be 15 taxed as part of the costs in the proceeding, if the plaintiff shall prevail therein. The secretary of 16 state shall maintain an alphabetical record of any such service setting forth the name of the 17 plaintiff and the defendant; the title, docket number and nature of the proceeding in which process 18 has been served; the fact that service has been effected pursuant to this subsection; the return date 19 thereof; and the day and hour service was made. The secretary of state shall not be required to 20 retain such information longer than five (5) years from receipt of the service of process.

21 (d) Upon the filing in the office of the secretary of state of a certificate of conversion to 22 non-Rhode Island entity in accordance with subsection (c) of this section, or upon the future 23 effective date or time of the certificate of conversion to non-Rhode Island entity and payment to 24 the secretary of state of all fees prescribed under this title, the secretary of state shall certify that 25 the corporation has filed all documents and paid all fees required by this title, and thereupon the 26 corporation shall cease to exist as a corporation of this state at the time the certificate of 27 conversion becomes effective in accordance with § 7-1.2-105. Such certificate of the secretary of 28 state shall be prima facie evidence of the conversion by such corporation out of the state of Rhode 29 Island.

30 (e) The conversion of a corporation out of the state of Rhode Island in accordance with 31 this section and the resulting cessation of its existence as a corporation of this state pursuant to a 32 certificate of conversion to non-Rhode Island entity shall not be deemed to affect any obligations 33 or liabilities of the corporation incurred prior to such conversion or the personal liability of any 34 person incurred prior to such conversion, nor shall it be deemed to affect the choice of law

1 applicable to the corporation with respect to matters arising prior to such conversion.

2 (f) Unless otherwise provided in a resolution of conversion adopted in accordance with 3 this section, the converting corporation shall not be required to wind up its affairs or pay its 4 liabilities and distribute its assets, and the conversion shall not constitute a dissolution of such 5 corporation.

6 (g) In connection with a conversion of a domestic corporation to another entity pursuant 7 to this section, shares of stock of the corporation of this state that is to be converted may be 8 exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of, or interests in, the entity to 9 which the corporation of this state is being converted or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be 10 exchanged for or converted into cash, property, shares of stock, rights or securities of, or interests 11 in, another domestic corporation or other entity or may be cancelled.

12 (h) When a corporation has been converted to another entity or business form pursuant to 13 this section, the other entity or business form shall, for all purposes of the laws of the state of 14 Rhode Island, be deemed to be the same entity as the corporation. When any conversion shall 15 have become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of the state of Rhode Island, 16 all of the rights, privileges and powers of the corporation that has converted, and all property, 17 real, personal and mixed, and all debts due to such corporation, as well as all other things and 18 causes of action belonging to such corporation, shall remain vested in the other entity or business 19 form to which such corporation has converted and shall be the property of such other entity or 20 business form, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in such corporation 21 shall not revert to such corporation or be in any way impaired by reason of this chapter; but all 22 rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of such corporation shall be preserved 23 unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the corporation that has converted shall remain 24 attached to the other entity or business form to which such corporation has converted, and may be 25 enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities and duties had originally been 26 incurred or contracted by it in its capacity as such other entity or business form. The rights, 27 privileges, powers and interest in property of the corporation that has converted, as well as the 28 debts, liabilities and duties of such corporation, shall not be deemed, as a consequence of the 29 conversion, to have been transferred to the other entity or business form to which such 30 corporation has converted for any purposes of the laws of the state of Rhode Island.

31 (i) No vote of stockholders of a corporation shall be necessary to authorize a conversion 32 if no shares of the stock of such corporation shall have been issued prior to the adopting by the 33 board of directors of the resolution approving the conversion.

34 7-1.2-1301. Voluntary dissolution by incorporators.

1 (a) A corporation which has not commenced business and which has not issued any

10 SECTION 2. Sections 7-16-5.2, 7-16-8 and 7-16-41 of the General Laws in Chapter 7-16 11 entitled "The Rhode Island Limited Liability Company Act" are hereby amended to read as 12 follows:

13 7-16-5.2. Approval of conversion of a limited liability company.

14 (a) A domestic limited liability company may convert to a corporation, a business trust, 15 or association, a real estate investment trust, a common law trust, a sole proprietorship, or any 16 other unincorporated business or entity including a partnership, (whether general or limited, 17 including a registered limited liability partnership), or a foreign limited liability company upon 18 the authorization of the conversion in accordance with this section.

19 (b) If the limited liability company agreement specified the manner of authorizing a 20 conversion of the limited liability company, the conversion shall be authorized as specified in the 21 limited liability company agreement. If the limited liability company agreement does not specify 22 the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited liability company and does not prohibit a 23 conversion of the limited liability company, the conversion shall be authorized in the same 24 manner as is specified in the limited liability company agreement for authorizing a merger or 25 consolidation that involves the limited liability company as a constituent party to the merger or 26 consolidation. If the limited liability company agreement does not specify the manner of 27 authorizing a conversion of the limited liability company or a merger or consolidate that involves 28 the limited liability company as a constituent party and does not prohibit a conversion of the 29 limited liability company, the conversion shall be authorized by the approval by the members or, 30 if there is more than one class or group of members, then by each class or group of members, in 31 either case, by members who own more than fifty percent (50%) of the then-current percentage or 33 or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate.

34 (c) Unless otherwise agreed, the conversion of a domestic limited liability company to 1 another entity or business form pursuant to this section shall not require such limited liability 2 company to wind up its affairs under § 7-16-45 or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets under 3 § 7-16-46, and the conversion shall not constitute a dissolution of such limited liability company.

4 When a limited liability company has converted to another entity or business form pursuant to 5 this section, for all purposes of the laws of the state of Rhode Island, the other entity or business 6 form shall be deemed to be the same entity as the converting limited liability company and 7 conversion shall constitute a continuation of the existence of the limited liability company in the 8 form of such other entity or business form.

9 (d) In connection with a conversion of a domestic limited liability company to another 10 entity or business form pursuant to this section, rights or securities of or interests in the domestic 11 limited liability company that is to be converted may be exchanged for or converted into cash, 12 property, rights or securities of or interests in the entity or business form into which the domestic 13 limited liability company is being converted or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be 14 exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of or interests in another entity 15 or business form or may be cancelled.

16 (e) If a limited liability company shall convert in accordance with this section to another 17 entity or business form organized, formed, or created under the laws of a jurisdiction other than 18 the state of Rhode Island or to a Rhode Island unincorporated "other entity", a certificate of 19 conversion to non-Rhode Island entity shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The 20 certificate of conversion to non-Rhode Island entity shall state:

21 (1) The name of the limited liability company and, if it has been changed, the name under 22 which its certificate of formation was originally filed;

23 (2) The date of filing of its original certificate of formation with the secretary of state;

24 (3) The jurisdiction in which the entity or business form, to which the limited liability 25 company shall be converted, is organized, formed, or created, and the name and type of such 26 entity or business form;

27 (4) The future effective date or time (which shall be a date or time certain) of the 28 conversion if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate of conversion to non-Rhode 29 Island entity;

30 (5) That the conversion has been approved in accordance with this section;

31 (6) The agreement of the limited liability company that it may be served with process in 32 the state of Rhode Island in any action, suit, or proceeding for enforcement of any obligation to 33 the limited liability company arising while it was a limited liability company of the state of Rhode 34 Island, and that it irrevocably appoints the secretary of state as its agent to accept service of 1 process in any such action, suit, or proceeding;

2 (f) Upon the filing in the office of the secretary of state of the certificate of conversion to 3 non-Rhode Island entity or upon the future effective date or time of the certificate of conversion 4 to non-Rhode Island entity and upon payment of all fees due by the limited liability company, ~~as~~ 5 ~~evidenced by an appropriate certificate of good standing issued by the Rhode Island division of~~ 6 ~~taxation~~, the secretary of state shall certify that the limited liability company has filed all 7 documents and paid all fees required by this chapter, and thereupon the limited liability company 8 shall cease to exist as a limited liability company of the state of Rhode Island. Such certificate of 9 the secretary of state shall be prima facie evidence of the conversion by such limited liability 10 company out of the state of Rhode Island.

11 (g) The conversion of a limited liability company out of the state of Rhode Island in 12 accordance with this section and the resulting cessation of its existence as a limited liability 13 company of the state of Rhode Island pursuant to a certificate of conversion to non-Rhode Island 14 entity shall not be deemed to affect any obligations or liabilities of the limited liability company 15 incurred prior to such conversion or the personal liability of any person incurred prior to such 16 conversion, nor shall it be deemed to affect the choice of laws applicable to the limited liability 17 company with respect to matters arising prior to such conversion.

18 (h) When a limited liability company has been converted to another entity or business 19 form pursuant to this section, the other entity or business form shall, for all purposes of the laws 20 of the state of Rhode Island, be deemed to be the same entity as the limited liability company.
21 When any conversion shall have become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws
22 of the state of Rhode Island, all of the rights, privileges, and powers of the limited liability 23 company that has converted, and all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all such debts due to 24 such limited liability company, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to such 25 limited liability company, shall remain vested in the other entity or business form to which such 26 limited liability company has converted and shall be the property of such other entity or business 27 form, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in such limited liability 28 company shall not revert to such limited liability company or be in any way impaired by reason 29 of this chapter; but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of such limited liability 30 company shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, and duties of the limited 31 liability company that has converted shall remain attached to the other entity or business form to 32 which such limited liability company has converted, and may be enforced against it to the same 33 extent as if said debts, liabilities, and duties had originally been incurred or contracted by it in its 34 capacity as such other entity or business form. The rights, privileges, powers, and interests in

1 property of the limited liability company that has converted, as well as the debts, liabilities, and 2 duties of such limited liability company, shall not be deemed, as a consequence of the conversion, 3 to have been transferred to the other entity or business form to which such limited liability
4 company has converted for any purpose of the laws of the state of Rhode Island.

6 (a) The secretary of state may not accept for filing any document under this chapter that 7 does not conform with law.

8 (b) The secretary of state may not accept for filing any organizational document, 20 appropriate certificate of good standing issued by the division of taxation.

21 ~~(e)~~(e) The secretary of state may not accept for filing a certificate of conversion to a non-22 Rhode Island entity until all required filing and other fees have been paid to the secretary of state 23 and all fees and taxes have been paid, ~~as evidenced by an appropriate certificate of good standing~~
24 ~~issued by the Rhode Island division of taxation.~~

25 ~~(e)~~(f) When the secretary of state accepts the articles of organization or a certificate of
