STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2018

A N A C T

RELATING TO LABOR AND LABOR RELATIONS - FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

Introduced By: Representatives Shanley, Tanzi, McEntee, Regunberg, and Vella-Wilkinson

Date Introduced: June 01, 2018

Referred To: House Labor

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 28-5 of the General Laws entitled "Fair Employment Practices" is
2 hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

3 28-5-44. Reporting required.

4 Any unlawful employment practice established pursuant to this chapter shall be recorded
5 by the director who shall annually on or before September 1 of each year report the violations of 6 chapter 5 of this title including the department or agency and the violation so recorded to the 7 governor, the speaker of the house and the president of the senate.

8 SECTION 2. Section 28-5.1-3 of the General Laws in Chapter 28-5.1 entitled "Equal
9 Opportunity and Affirmative Action" is hereby amended to read as follows:

10 28-5.1-3. Affirmative action.

11 (a) The state equal opportunity office shall assign an equal opportunity officer as a liaison
12 to agencies of state government.

13 (b) Each state department or agency, excluding the legislative branch of state
14 government, shall annually prepare an affirmative action plan. These plans shall be prepared in 15 accordance with the criteria and deadlines set forth by the state equal opportunity office. These 16 deadlines shall provide, without limitation, that affirmative action plans for each fiscal year be
17 submitted to the state equal opportunity office and the house fiscal advisor no later than March
18 31. These plans shall be submitted to and shall be subject to review and approval by the state
19 equal opportunity office.

1 (c) Any affirmative action plan required under this section deemed unsatisfactory by the
2 state equal opportunity office shall be withdrawn and amended according to equal opportunity
3 office criteria, in order to attain positive measures for compliance. The state equal opportunity
4 office shall make every effort by informal conference, conciliation and persuasion to achieve
5 compliance with affirmative action requirements.

6 (d) The state equal opportunity office shall effect and promote the efficient transaction of 7 its business and the timely handling of complaints and other matters before it, and shall make 8 recommendations to appropriate state officials for affirmative action steps towards the 9 achievement of equal opportunity.

10 (e) The state equal opportunity administrator shall serve as the chief executive officer of 11 the state equal opportunity office, and shall be responsible for monitoring and enforcing all equal
12 opportunity laws, programs, and policies within state government.

13 (f) No later than July 1 each state department or agency, excluding the legislative branch
14 of state government, shall submit to the state equal opportunity office and the house fiscal advisor
15 sufficient data to enable the state equal opportunity office and the house fiscal advisor to 16 determine whether the agency achieved the hiring goals contained in its affirmative action plan
17 for the previous year. If the hiring goals contained in the previous year's plan were not met, the 18 agency shall also submit with the data a detailed explanation as to why the goals were not 19 achieved.

20 (g) Standards for review of affirmative action plans shall be established by the state equal
21 opportunity office, except where superseded by federal law.

22 (h) For purposes of this section, "agency" includes, without limitation, all departments,
23 public and quasi-public agencies, authorities, boards, and commissions of the state, ~~excluding the~~
24 ~~legislative branch of state government.~~

25 (i) The state equal opportunity office shall continually review all policies, procedures,
26 and practices for tendencies to discriminate and for institutional or systemic barriers for equal 27 opportunity, and it shall make recommendations with reference to any tendencies or barriers in its 28 annual reports to the governor and the general assembly.

29 (j) Relevant provisions of this section also apply to expanding the pool of applicants for 30 all positions where no list exists. The equal opportunity administrator is authorized to develop
31 and implement recruitment plans to assure that adequate consideration is given to qualified
32 minority applicants in those job categories where a manifest imbalance exists, excluding those job
33 categories in the legislative branch of state government.

34 SECTION 3. Chapter 28-5.1 of the General Laws entitled "Equal Opportunity and

1 Affirmative Action" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

2 28-5.1-18. Reporting required.

3 Each state department or agency shall annually on or before September 1 of each year
4 report alleged violations of chapters 28-5 and/or § 28-5.1, any alleged employment discrimination
5 or alleged violation of any affirmative action plan required pursuant to § 28-5.1-3 by any state
6 employee, agent or contractor. An alleged violation shall include, but not be limited to, the filing
7 of a lawsuit or grievance, a complaint or report to any administrative agency or a complaint or 8 notice provided to a supervisor or management personnel. The report shall be provided to the 9 office of diversity, equality and opportunity. The office of diversity, equality and opportunity
10 shall summarize and provide the reported information to the governor, speaker of the house and 11 president of the senate.

12 SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon passage.

EXPLANATION
RELATING TO LABOR AND LABOR RELATIONS - FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

1 This act would create a reporting requirement for state agencies and departments for
2 violations of the fair employment practices chapter and the Equal Opportunity and Affirmative
3 chapter. The act would also remove legislative branch exclusion from "agency" definition.

4 This act would take effect upon passage.
