STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2018

A N A C T

RELATING TO TAXATION -- LEVY AND ASSESSMENT OF LOCAL TAXES

Introduced By: Senators P Fogarty, Nesselbush, and Jabour

Date Introduced: February 15, 2018

Referred To: Senate Housing & Municipal Government

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Sections 44-5-11.5 and 44-5-11.6 of the General Laws in Chapter 44-5
2 entitled "Levy and Assessment of Local Taxes" are hereby amended to read as follows:

3 44-5-11.5. Legislative findings -- Revaluation cycle.

4 It is found and declared that:

5 (1) Rhode Island property taxes continue to play a significant role in the financing of 6 local educational and municipal services. The general assembly recognizes that the way the 7 property tax is assessed, levied and collected can be improved to provide more reliable and up-to-
8 date property values in each of the cities and towns.

9 (2) The state's ten (10) year property revaluation cycle is the longest revaluation cycle in 10 the country. Infrequent revaluations translate into disparities in property tax burden between types
11 and classes of property within and among cities and towns. In addition, because each city and 12 town represents multiple systems and procedures for administering the property tax, there is an 13 inconsistent administration of property tax law and regulations.

14 (3) It is the intent of the general assembly to ensure that all taxpayers in Rhode Island are 15 treated equitably. The more frequent the revaluation, the greater the equity within and among 16 jurisdictions. Ensuring that taxpayers are treated fairly begins with modernizing the 17 administration of the property tax that ensures:

18 (i) Up-to-date property values are maintained through more frequent property
19 revaluations;

1 (ii) Cities and towns meet defined standards related to performing updates of property
2 values;

3 (iii) The state shares in the cost of performing updates of property values in the cities and
4 towns;

5 (iv) A meaningful and effective method of ensuring that cities and towns comply with the 6 nine (9) year revaluation cycle and the updates of property values are developed;

7 (v) Procedures for administering the property tax are standardized -- such as general
8 reporting and classification systems;

9 (vi) Assessors and contracted property revaluation companies meet appropriate
10 qualifications and standards; and

11 (vii) Intergovernmental cooperation in the administration of the property tax is 12 maximized.

13 (4) With these findings in mind, it is the intent of the general assembly to institute a
14 revaluation cycle where every city or town conducts a revaluation within nine (9) years of the 15 date of the prior revaluation and shall conduct an update of real property every ~~three (3)~~ six (6)
16 years from the date of the last revaluation.

17 44-5-11.6. Assessment of valuations -- Apportionment of levies.

18 (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of § 44-5-11 [repealed], beginning on December 31,
19 2000, the assessors in the several towns and cities shall conduct an update as defined in this
20 section or shall assess all valuations and apportion the levy of all taxes legally ordered under the 21 rules and regulations, not repugnant to law, as the town meetings and city councils, respectively,
22 shall, from time to time, prescribe; provided, that the update or valuation is performed in
